ISSUE AT HAND

Several weeks ago Herman Schrader, Secretary of the Student Board, submitted to the Board a motion to start a debating team at Marian College. The motion was discussed but neither seconded nor passed.

At first this might seem strange that the Student Board would not even second the motion; but when you think about it, there isn't any reason why the Board should have any control over a debating team.

The question rests with the Speech Department, not the Student Board. Certainly the Speech Department would do everything in its power in forming and promoting a team if there were enough students interested in it.

Now the question arises, "What good would a debating team be to Marian College?" Here are just a few advantages of a debating team. It would give those on the team invaluable experience in public speaking. The research, organization, and presentation of the material would be a great asset to the speaker. Local, state, national, and international events would be discussed at the debate meetings. And it would provide good publicity for Marian to send a good debating team to other schools.

It is quite understandable that everyone will not be interested in this. But for those who are in speech class or for those who hope someday to teach or to give lectures, this would be a wonderful opportunity to practice speaking to the public. The decision is up to the students. If enough are interested, we'll have a debating team.

GREENBACKS NEEDED

If you are tired of trying to sell your ideas, but still enjoy the sport of selling, the Yearbook Committee is now confronted with the grave problem of money in the form of ads. Maybe you could approach that rich uncle(what, no uncle?), friend, non-acquaintance or what have you and convince them a yearbook is the place to advertize.

Since this has been a big issue in previous years--let's make it a big issue this year.

ROUND THE RIM

Pre-season predictions had Marian College's basketball team the underdog because of their inexperience and from all appearances, they seem to be right.

In the first game Marian gave Taylor a scare, but went down 85-79. The team played a good game but couldn't get those few extra points.

In the second game the Villa Madonna "giants" had everything under control and breezed to a 102-66 victory.

Wednesday Marian plays Bellarmine, and Saturday, Indiana Central. If Boehm(Capt.) and DeHart keep pouring in those points, and Raters, Waning, and Riley add their support, the other teams are going to be in for a surprise!

With the material Marian has, plus the promise of a chicken dinner by Mrs. Seyfried, they can do anything.

Let's everybody go and cheer them on to victory!

ROCK-A-BYE BABY!

Congratulations to Gus Stinnet, whose wife gave birth to a 6 lb. boy on Saturday, Nov. 19. It's the first child for Papa Gus. His wife and the baby are both in good health. Maybe another Marianite in 18 years. How about it, Gus?
