DEAR MARIAN COLLEGE COMMUNITY,

Apathy, apathy, apathy — is that what Marian College's problem is ??? Certainly judging from the noise emitted from the residence halls every night one could not say that students are so busy studying as to deprive them of time to be concerned about Marian. Yet something is wrong somewhere.

Why do I say something is wrong? I say it because anyone who stands back and does nothing, says nothing, and perhaps even sees nothing (much like the three monkeys) has a problem. Four years ago, I was admitted to this institution. During my first year, I saw a yearbook for 1974, two issues of the PHOENIX EVERY month, a CARBON EVERY week, and a Fall and Spring issue of the FIORETTI. So went 1974-75. Then came 1975-76. In the Fall of '75, the 1975 yearbook was distributed, the PHOENIX appeared quite regularly, the CARBON came out almost every Friday, and a Spring FIORETTI was printed and distributed. Then in 1976-77, no yearbook was distributed, a sum total of three (yes, three—you can count them on one hand!) PHOENIX issues appeared for that YEAR, the CARBON was around when the editors felt like putting it together, and a Spring FIORETTI was produced. Well folks, it's November, 1977, and not one yearbook meeting has taken place, two issues of the PHOENIX have been printed (I'll refrain from commenting on quality), the CARBON has come out EVERY Friday, and Spring awaits the FIORETTI, which has already begun planning and soliciting material.

After that bit of history, I'll now come to my point: Do you, as a Marian College student, faculty member, administrator or staff member, want to have a 1978 MARIAN (for those of you who are wondering, the MARIAN is the proper name of the Marian College yearbook)? Before you throw this down, please, let me present to you my reasons for wanting a 1978 MARIAN.

1) A yearbook is a pictorial review of events occurring during the school year. I am sentimental in that I like to remember friends and events. Since I am no photographer, I appreciate the collection of such photographs in the form of a yearbook.

2) A yearbook shows the personality and life of a school. Times change, but the brief moments we are here are captured in the pages of a yearbook. When people look at institutions to really get a "feel" for the place, they often like to see yearbooks, which capture the highlights of the institution's activities.

3) A yearbook is a "group" project (except in the past few years) which brings people together and allows them the feeling of accomplishment. It helps people appreciate and see the beauty and value of others and of their environment.

4) A yearbook is testimony that you attended the institution and of your involvement in that institution. Within the pages of the yearbook, students' involvement is reflected in the various pictures of the activities and events.

5) Finally, as a senior I most seriously do want a truly great yearbook for 1978 to show to others to illustrate what exactly I am talking about when I say "Marian College" or talk of some activity I attended here.

Class rings are nice; school newspapers are nice, too, but they do not last like a yearbook, are not as picturesque as a yearbook, or as easy to store, and are not as personal as a yearbook can be. I take pride in Marian College. Sure, Marian has its failings, but it also has many good qualities. I would like to say that one of its best qualities is its people. But, apathetic people are hinderances, not assets. We need an editor and a staff for the 1978 MARIAN if it is to become a reality. We also need the support of every person on this campus if we are to have a GREAT yearbook. And, that's what I want — a GREAT MARIAN. But the ingredients for a great yearbook are time, support, and money. Is Marian College willing to expend the necessary time and effort, or will the tradition of the MARIAN die due to the mistakes of the past two years? Think about it. Don't you have enough pride in this institution, in yourselves, that you would want to have your memory and your accomplishments live on? Again, think about it, and during the week of November 14th a survey will be taken to gauge Marian College community interest in the 1978 yearbook. Apathy must go — either you feel a yearbook is worthwhile or you don't. But the year is a 'wastin' and time is precious. If the interest is there I feel that we have enough talent on this campus to produce a FANTASTIC MARIAN, and "on time!" Again — the decision is yours, please think about it.

DEATH AT MARIAN . . . . .

Possibly, for the first time in the Carbon's history, it must print an obituary. On October 31st, 1977, after a lingering illness, maturity passed on from this campus. It seems that the deceased had been severely weakened through bouts of drunkenness and flyin' high, being tortured through a sharp increase in mooning, incendiarism, toilet-papering, and a general deficiency in intellectual process.

However, Halloween night dealt the mortal blow. Concurrent raids on Dlyle and Clare were launched. Aftermath: damage (one girl's carpet is ruined); destruction; danger (a girl was nearly killed when a male grabbed the sheet she was wearing, which was attached at the throat.); and over-all ill will. In addition, the inconvenience and danger off-campus (in the form of water-balloons and eggings) were a definite contributing factor to maturity's demise.

It is a shame about maturity, cut down before its prime. Some of us, the few who will attend or even notice the last rites, will mourn its loss.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

As an upset Clare Hall Resident I would not let Monday night go by without saying anything.

First of all, what ever happened to the nore "fun" type raids where we just had leaves, shaving cream, and tooth-paste? Why did Monday night's raid include rotten pumpkins, peppers, eggs, dirt, etc.? Maybe the individuals responsible would have liked to clean up the mess they left behind, like eggs on walls and ceilings? Or smashed pumpkins on people's rugs? Or better yet—how would you have liked to have to sleep on second floor, where the odor from the remnants of the raid permeated the halls and rooms? Is it fun to make messes for others to clean up and lose sleep over? Is it fun to destroy the property of others?

Secondly—it really shows cooperation (?) among the Clare Hall residents who either (1) say the raid was fun, (of course — you didn't help clean up!) or (2) go back to bed not caring and not helping clean up!

Third — why were the senior girls who came carolling to Doyle attacked by individuals hiding in the bushes, using alcohol, water, etc.? The girls were trying to add a little fun to their yearly tradition.

Last, but not least, it showed a complete lack of respect for other people's property when (1) the guys raided Clare (2) girls retaliated at Doyle, (3) the guys returned yelling obscenities and attacking our security guard and his car.

Do all these actions show responsibility and maturity on the part of Marian College residents? I strongly believe that they don't. I'd suggest alot of individuals, male and female alike, do some growing up and quit ruining what could be some of the good memories of the years at Marian College. Sign me...

FROSH CLASS MINUTES:

The Frosh class meeting was held November 3,1977 in the Library auditorium. Called to order at 12:35p.m., the basic reason of the meeting was to chart progress on Homecoming activities and the Frosh 50's Dance Sunday November 13th at 8-11p.m. in the intramural gym. It was decided that $.25 admission would be charged to those who did not dress up. Free if you dress up!!!!

Also, Nick Fohl, Sophomore Class president was present to explain that Sophs need financial backing for the planned rock concert Feb. 10th featuring Roadmaster. The plea was voted on and officially as of now, the Frosh class is backing them for $100.00 in case they should go in debt.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN!

The October 28th issue of the CARBON contained in the "CARBON BOO-ER" the phrase "Nosey switchboard operators who listen in on calls and cut you off". You who submitted that line did not honestly believe I would let you get away with it, did you? At first, I really took it personally but then I hoped that anyone with a complaint about me would come up and tell me face-to-face. Still, it really ticked me off- another example of ragging to the wrong people! Granted - there may be a very legitimate complaint. I will be the last to claim that any switch-board operator is perfect. But, at the same time, there is a very legitimate method of registering that complaint, a method which will provide results. So, for future reference, if you feel that the switchboard operators have treated you rudely or unfairly, let me know - Peg Rankin at ext.425, or call the Boss lady- Sr. Laurita in the Business Office at ext. 207. Very often, your complaint may stem from your misunderstanding of the workings of the board or a misunderstanding on the part of the operator.

I hope this little tidbit of info will turn other people's complaints toward more workable channels. To the person who boo-ed one of us last week, you have a choice (1) let it drop or (2) use the channels charted above. Hopefully the whole situation will not be repeated!!

A TRICK THAT WAS NO TREAT

I really had fun decoration my room for Halloween! Unfortunately, after all my hard work, someone saw fit to rip-off (and I mean literally RIP) part of our decorations. Now we put these up not only for our enjoyment but also for everyone else's enjoyment, yet because of what happened, much of our enjoyment was dissipated. I hope that whoever perpetrated the trick got a lot of enjoyment out of it since it was at the expense of others and that this person(s) realizes that what they might have thought was fun, had hurt someone else.

SEE PETER REPORTS:

Well, lambs, this is See Peter once again, galloping through the glitter — and that's only in my room. I've been watching Variety Show rehearsals and I think it is definitely worth while. There are several things to watch for: A disqusted coed ... a well-known crimefighter proving his masculinity ... talking sculpture ... Shakespeare revolving in his grave ... and if you order right now, you'll receive this genuine sterling silver ... now where was I? Remember, November 18th, and 20th in Marian Hall Auditorium (the gaping hole in the wall where the DTP cloister.)

It seems that quite a few of you were, shall we say, grossed out by the chicken/freshman line last time. I've spoken to Margo, and she promises to restrict herself to sheep and juniors (are you listening, S.C.?) However, she has been giving the pigeons some odd looks lately. Well, life goes on and there's a psych major/phys. ed. minor born every two minutes — in Slabotky. Ciao, baby. (How butch can one get?)

SEE PETER (See sharp. See flat. See natural. Phil, put down that ax!!!!!!)

"...THE BLIND SHALL SEE, THE DEAF SHALL HEAR, THE LAME SHALL LEAP FOR JOY."

This is what took place Friday night at the rock gospel concert in the Marian Hall auditorium. The "singers" gave some people the chance to "hear" music who had never heard it before. Many of those in the audience who could hear were "seeing" music for the first time. The actual band and voices in the background were beautiful, and whether they sang together or in parts the signers were following them so we could both see and "hear" the full beauty of what they were saying. One couldn't help but believe as we watched the unique expressions on the faces of the children who had been brought up on stage as the group "sang" I Believe in YOU. And the lame did leap for joy, for there was a tiny lady sitting in a wheelchair at the very front of the auditorium who had come in before the concert and met the group. When the group dedicated one of their songs to her the expression of joy that came over her face and her ecstatic bouncing in time to the music was enough to make the evening worthwhile. Yet, the most rewarding moment came when the entire audience lifted their hands with sign for "I love you" and you could actually feel the warmth and love emanate from each person present there.

AN EXHIBITION OF COLOR PHOTOGRAPHIC PRINTS BY DREW APPLEBY WILL OPEN IN THE LIBRARY ON SUNDAY NOVEMBER 6th.

THE UNKNOWN CITIZEN

He was found by the Bureau of Statistics to be
One against whom there was no official complaint,
And all the reports on his conduct agree
That, in the modern sense of an old-fashioned word, he was a saint
For in everything he did he served the Greater Community.
Except for the War till the day he retired
He worked in a factory and never got fired,
But satisfied his employers, Fudge Motors Inc.
Yet he wasn't a scab or odd in his views,
For his Union reports that he paid his dues,
(Our report on his Union shows it was sound)
And our Social Psychology workers found
That he was popular with his mates and liked a drink.
The Press are convinced that he bought a paper every day
And that his reactions to advertisements were normal in every way.
Policies taken out in his name prove that he was fully insured,
And his Health-card shows he was once in the hospital
but left it cured.
Both Producers Research and High-Grade living declare
He was fully sensible to the advantages of the installment plan
And had everything necessary to the Modern man,
A phonograph, a radio, a car, and a frigidaire.
Our researchers into Public Opinion are content
That he held the proper opinions for the time of year;
When there was peace, he was for peace; when there was war, he went.
He was married and added five children to the population,
Which our Eugenist says was the right number for a parent of his generation,
And our teachers report that he never interfered with their education.
Was he free? Was he happy? The question is absurd:
Had anything been wrong, we should certainly have heard.

wildman.s word...

After Sunday's games, still two teams remained undefeated, I AETA THI handled the JEWS rather easily and LAGNAF battled the GODS to win by a close 20-12 score. In the first game THI'S defense remained unscored upon and Zapp continued to lead the strong offensive team to 36 more points. Zidron had 2 scores not including the one he had called back. The JEWS highlight came when Bobby Meyers scored only to have it called back because of a penalty. THI will get a real test of their offense and defense Sunday when they take on the undefeated LAGNAF. LAGNAF's high scoring offense was a bit throttled last Sunday when they beat the GODS but still managed 20 points. They tried to contain KISSYFACE and did somewhat but not quite enough. LAGNAF's secret weapon, Joe Brochin, scored for his third time in three weeks and LAGNAF jumped out to a 14-6 lead and never looked back! This then sets the stage for Sunday's ballgame between undefeated LAGNAF and undefeated and unscored upon I AETA THI. In Wednesday's game, the GODS and the BAD JOSES battled for a play-off spot. Mr. Doherty, starting to become in play-off form, threw for 5 touchdowns as the GODS left no prayer for hope for the JOSES. This Sunday the JEWS and the BAD JOSES will battle for the fourth play-off spot. Meyers to Meyers twice will be enough and they will win 16-6. In the League Championship Game, THI will be too physical for LAGNAF. LAGNAF will score however, but lose 24-12. In the only other game, the GODS will cream the RAIDERS 35-0. Next Wednesday and Thursday the play-offs start. So far, the GODS, LAGNAF, and I AETA THI all have reserved spots. Come and see the MEN (oh, come on t.p - ed.) in action. OK girls!!

P.S; Start getting intramural teams ready for basketball- 10 man rosters.

LAGNAF	9.6	4	0

HEALTH SERVICES SURVEY

Due to the poor response to the first printing of this survey (three as of Oct. 26th; 2 faculty and 1 staff), it is being reprinted. The purpose of the Health Service is to provide quality, low cost treatment of minor illness and injury for Marian College students, faculty, and staff. Because the resources of Health Services are limited, continued and primary care for serious medical problems is provided on a referral basis.

The Health Clinic is open from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Monday through Friday (except vacations). The nurse cares for minor ailments, dispenses non-prescription medication and refers patients for further care.
