FARE THEE WELL

"Oh, somewhere in this favored land the sun is shining bright,
The band is playing somewhere, and somewhere hearts are light;
And somewhere men are laughing, and somewhere children shout,
But there's no joy on CARBON: Mighty Steve has just bowed out.
E.L. Thayer

The editor's desk, once alive with the bustling activity of so talented a person, now stands empty and lifeless. The silence of his typewriter is deafening. His laughter still echos in the room, and his voice, as clear and resonant as if he were standing here, keeps murmuring, "Do what you think's right! And keep your chin up!" Then, looking at the deserted desk I asked myself: "Who could ever dream of filling the shoes of one who was so versatile, and who was so capable of perfecting whatever task he undertook?"

But due to many and varied reasons, he had to give up that which he enjoyed most. But we hope that he will find a moment or so every now and then to add one of his many gems to the CARBON.

ROOM 304 - CO-EDITOR DESK OPEN

Because Steve Gerard, co-editor of the Carbon, has resigned, the Student Board must appoint a new co-editor at the next Board meeting, Monday November 7.

If any student knows of someone whom he feels will make a good co-editor of the Carbon, give the name to your class president, who will submit the name to the Student Board for approval. Keep in mind that the one who is nominated should have an interest in the school and the paper, and will be able to devote as much time as necessary to the publication of it every week.

SHOULD MARIAN BE IDENTIFIED?

We are not sure if the "For Sale" sign erected in front of Marian last week was a mis-guided realtor or a Halloween prank, but even so it could have easily been the first. It's both humorous and a little embarrassing when you hear the fellows say, "I have seen everything! An out-of-town visitor had his flashlight out looking at our bronze plaques the other night and just to find if we were the "needle in the haystack" he had been looking for.

Maybe the problem could be put before our Student Board sometime in the future.

SOMETHING MISSING?

All lost articles, pens, books, playing cards, etc. should be turned into the book store on the ground floor of Marian Hall. Consequently, the owner can find them without making an oral survey of the school.

P.S. The only thing you can lose and not find in the book store is your friends. (Could be they are next door?)

Come all you young lovers. The Sophomore Class is holding a hayride Friday, November 11. The tickets are on sale now, and the cost is nominal--only $1.50 per couple.

However, due to the nature of the event, tickets must be purchased in advance--deadline November 9. So run, do not walk, to the closest Sophomore and purchase an evening of singing, hilarity and all round good fun! See you there!

STUDENT BOARD MINUTES

Meeting opened with a prayer. The reports from the treasurer, clubs, and committees followed. Treasurer reported that there was $300 on hand. The report was seconded and approved. The C.S.M.C. announced that Ray Tonetti was elected Vice-President and Treasurer, and Theresa McCarthy was elected Secretary.

Discussion followed after the report from the Budget Committee. The main point of the discussion was concerned with the allotment of money from the Treasury for N.F.C.C.S., if Notre Dame and Aquinas enter, we would not pay the additional revenue that is being asked. The report from the Budget Committee was then accepted.

The various committees for Parent's Day also reported. The reports are as follows: Invitation Committee reported that the invitations had been sent, but the invitations to the lay faculty members had not been sent out. The Luncheon Committee and Program Committee were undecided on exactly what they should do. Discussion followed which enabled these two Committees to get some idea on just exactly what procedure they were to use.

The C.S.M.C. announced that a bake sale would be held on October 19. The President of the Board announced that the Constitution Committee, made up of the Board officers and the four class presidents, would meet on Wednesday, October 12, at 4:30. Jim McLaughlin moved that a Mass be said for Sister Georgene's father. Juniors announced that they had planned a dance on November 18. The freshmen announced that they had tentatively planned a dance on November 18. Following a discussion, the Juniors accepted November 4 for their dance and the freshmen November 18 for their dance.

The Carbon

The inevitableness of life has always been death. In life, as in death there is always beauty. Perhaps nature teaches us the best example of this in Autumn. Colorful in molten red, soft in goldness, bronze and sombre green, nature raises its sacrifice to a majestic blue, the final curtain before the Creator's omnipotence and ubiquity. Death is not a lamentful, eternal passing, but rather a transition in pageantry of love. And love is sacrifice.

The days of Fall pass by, each more breathless than the former, each more memorable--twining like the beads of a rosary--until at last both days and beads end at the Consummation--a bare gibbet of wood. A Man is dead upon that gibbet, Sacrifice. A weeping Lady at His feet, Love. Death is only a shadow of this beauty, but Love its counterpart.

IT'S TIME TO SHINE

All you ghoulish creatures are going to have your day. Come on out from behind your tombstones, grab your brooms, and lets start hopping. The fellows are invited too, not just the girls. Thanks to the A.R.A. (Allied Riots of America) we are all cordially welcomed to ghastliness and ghoulish nonsense by way of dancing. Strictly for squares. Mr. Henry Lohse will be there to call sombre words of gathering 8:00 to 11:30 on Friday night, October 28. The macabre festival is entitled, aptly, the Ghoul Stomp.

WE'LL BE ALL WET

...in more ways than one. Don't miss the Swimming Party at the I.U. Med. Center this Friday. Come on, last one in's an Irishman. (They don't come any lower?)

THREE O'CLOCK JUMP

It seems that a wondering segment of a tipsy band got lost last night and decided to serenade the residents of Clare Hall. All sorts of explanations have been rumored, but Father Courtney's dreary idea of the whole thing points to a union dispute between Petrille and a would be group of musicians. Only a few know the unmelodious truth, but that would be telling, wouldn't it now?

REMINDER

To those students who are cutting classes without an excused absence slip, you must fill out the absentee forms in the information room on the first floor. These forms should be duplicated and taken care of as soon as possible. Even if you have an excused absence this RULE still holds.

PARENT'S DAY

As everyone should know by now, (we just found out) this coming Sunday is to be set aside for our parents. A number of events have been conjured up for their entertainment. Mr. Harry Reith, Emcee, will direct the program. Their will be talent galore, quartets, the Bel Canto, daring athletics, and other such things. A luncheon will complete the activities for the day. Let's all make it a grand success by our attendance.

JUST A NOTE

To thank those students responsible for making the C.S.M.C. Bake Sale a success. This note of thanks includes the students who offered their services at 10:30 in rigging up the stand and our "homemakers?" who supplied the delicacies. Just think of the thousands of starving children who are feed because of the C.S.M.C., not to mention a few lean apparitions we call Marian Students.
