

New Marian College Building to Welcome Students in the Fall

THE PHOENIX

Vol. XI

Marian College, Indianapolis, Indiana, May 31, 1948

No. 8

Coronation Musicale Entertains MC Campus Queen and Attendants

Campus Queen crowning took place on the triple terrace south of Marian Hall, Sunday, May 23.

The Queen, Mary Sunderhaus, senior, of Cincinnati, and her attendants, Rosemary Doyle, Eileen Gaughan, Gladys Gonzalez, and Kathleen Holtel, were elected by an all-school vote. Junior, sophomore, and freshman classes selected, as court representatives, Suzanne Orth and Mary Helen Wells, Eleanor Smith and Martha Souza, Louise Burkert and Angela Peters.

CYO Leader Speaks At Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate services will take place June 2, at 8:15 p. m. in the college chapel.

Rev. Richard T. Kavanagh, archdiocesan CYO director and superintendent of Cathedral High School will give the baccalaureate sermon.

The A Cappella Choir will sing the following selections:

Ravanello.....Veni Creator
Bentivoglio.....Ave Verum
Carturan.....Tantum Ergo
Anerio.....O Jesu mi dulcissime

After chapel service a reception will be held for the seniors, their parents, and friends. Music will be provided by the String Ensemble.

Senior Art Majors Present Exhibition

May 23-June 3 senior art majors, Lillian Lieland Kraezig and Lois Tenbieg are presenting an exhibit in the art gallery and adjoining room.

Lois, who has completed eight years of private art study, is partial to pastel and water-color and to surrealistic subjects. Her best achievements in oil are two fantasies, "The Carnival," and "The Pied Piper," rich in color and graceful in movement.

Lillian, who has four months of part-time employment in the fashion department of L. S. Ayres and Company to her credit, has divided her college courses between creative art and fashion illustrations. An outstanding still life in oil is her fruit composition in which she has effectively and colorfully contrasted red and green apples and golden Oregon pears.

The exhibit is a substitute for senior comprehensives.

Planned for since 1940, the new college building is approaching actualization. Above is the first architect's drawing, release May 26—just in time to be included in this issue.

Commission Ratifies NSA Constitution; Delegates Chosen

The commission especially set up on campus for the purpose ratified the NSA constitution 26-11, May 11.

The reservation attached to the ratification states that the By-Laws, the Student Bill of Rights in particular, are not acceptable in their entirety. Marian will cooperate with the other regional schools to draft an acceptable substitute.

The final vote was preceded by several months of study of the constitution and its implementation. The voting board of 40 was composed of SA Board members and activity heads supplemented by class representatives elected at large.

Delegates to represent Marian, Aug. 23-28, at the first National Congress are Mary Jane Porter, voting, and Katherine Moran, alternate.

Convening at the University of Wisconsin, the Congress will, through workshops, panels and plenary sessions, develop the theme, "the student in the university community."

Campus Queen Mary Sunderhaus surrounded by class attendants. Left to right: Angela Peters, Martha Souza, Sue Orth, Kathleen Holtel, Gladys Gonzalez, Rosemary Doyle, Eileen Gaughan, Mary Helen Wells, Eleanor Smith, Louise Burkert.

Archbishop Schulte Confers Degrees, Speaks at Commencement Exercises

Forty-eight seniors will receive degrees at the annual commencement exercises, June 3. His Excellency, the Most Rev. Paul C. Schulte, D.D., Archbishop of Indianapolis, and chancellor of Marian College, will preside.

A formal academic procession, beginning at 10:00 a. m., will conduct the seniors to Madonna Hall, while Elgar's Processional is being played on the chapel organ.

Soloist, Bel Canto Program

Jeanne O'Brien, coloratura soprano, accompanied by Wanda Tofolo will sing the Aria from La Traviata by Verdi. The Bel Canto Ensemble, select choral group, will contribute the three-voice chorus, "O Lord Most Holy" by Marchetti.

The candidates for degrees will be presented by the Very Rev. Msgr. John J. Doyle, Ph.D., college chaplain and head of the department of philosophy. His Excellency, Archbishop Schulte, will confer the degrees and deliver the commencement address.

Bachelor of Arts Candidates

The following students will be graduated with the bachelor of arts degree: Joan Baumer, Dorothy Bersch, Joan Casler, Joan Courtney, Marjorie Davey, Mary Jo Doherty, Rosemary Doyle, Joan Fischer, Jeanne Gallagher, Catherine Gardner, Jane Gaughan, Gladys Gonzalez, Kathleen Holtel, Lillian L. Kraezig.

(Continued on Page Six)

Soap Drive Clinches Year's Student Relief

The Student Relief Campaign on campus was boosted to its close with the shipment of three additional cartons of clothes, and one of soap. The seventh and eighth grade students of Little Flower School attracted by the campaign slogan, "Clean up Europe was wash out Communism," contributed sample as well as regular size bars of soap to the Marian drive.

The Cincinnati region, of which Marian is a member, was one of the seven regions of the country to reach its relief goal. The national total reached $183,000. At the national NFCCS congress at Philadelphia delegates voted to continue the campaign again next year.

Rosemary Doyle Takes Prom Honors

Rosemary Doyle reigned as the 1948 Junior Prom Queen May 14, in Madonna Hall. The Queen and her attendants, Jane Costello and Jane Gaughan, were elected by the junior class.

Martha Bosler, junior class president, crowned Rosemary with a tiara of white carnations to the background music of "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody." Nick Cranciunoiu furnished the music.

Madonna Hall was decorated by (Continued on Page Six)

SENIOR EDITION with M. Davey, staff business manager, M. J. Doherty, S. J. Mahan, and R. Taske supplying the business ability and the prophecy, will, and history authors "showing off" their literary talent.

SPECIAL BULLETIN
Alumnae Reception

June 27

2 P. M.

Two Sides of Graduation

After four happy and full years at Marian it is more difficult to write a few final words which will editorially and otherwise bring these years to a close.

Certainly sadness is as much a part of graduation as diplomas and collegiate gowns. Sorrow lies in the knowledge that this good life which we have built up for ourselves suddenly is to be ended just as it has reached its zenith.

But there is more to graduation than the nostalgic side of it.

College graduation signifies a great accomplishment; years of successful studying and mental discipline have merited a degree of which we have every reason to be proud.

Graduation also entails a responsibility. The world at large looks with no little awe to the newly graduated man or woman. He or she symbolizes the hope of the country—the "cream of the crop." It is our obligation to live up to their beliefs, and to actually put our education to work for the glory of God and country.

Here, however, are mere generalities. Each of us is an individual. As individuals we must determine the success or failure of the years spent at college through separate application of the principles learned at Marian in the light of modern life. Herein lies the real test of a successful Catholic college graduate.

Marian has labored unceasingly to instill these worthy ideas into our minds and hearts. The future is up to us. It is the determination of each member of the class of '48 that Marian will be glorified through our spiritual and temporal success.

Dear Seniors,

For the last three years we have looked up to you—the class just one year ahead. Now that your graduation is so near, we have tried to think what Marian will be like without you, your gay chatter, your fast friendship. And frankly, seniors, we're going to be lost.

Yet we are glad to see that four years of hard work and play have come to a climax and that you have reached a goal. Perhaps you are as hesitant about stepping into the world as we are into the senior class, but with the qualities you've shown this past year, we think your chances of success are tops.

Thanks for the example, seniors, and may your future be all that you want.

The Juniors

Why Not?

Going places this summer? Why not include a week or week-end of intellectual stimulus, of meeting outstanding people, of spiritual uplift?

Here are some pointers:

Students Social Action Institute invites you to Marygrove College, Detroit, June 13-18.

National CSMC Convention says, "Come to Notre Dame Aug. 26-29."

Summer School of Catholic Action will accommodate you somewhere from St. Louis to Denver and beyond almost any week from June 7 to Aug. 30.

A Day of Recollection or Week-end Retreat may be just the tonic you'll want.

Staying home? Why not brush up parish contacts, especially the pivotal friendship—your Eucharistic Lord?

Reader's Scrap-Box

Vacation brings, or ought to bring, leisure, and with it the opportunity to read—but what? There are many bids for our reading, not all of them with an accent on the reader's profit.

Aquinas Literary Guild offers the following as pleasant and worthwhile lawn-chair companions.

Biography

Out on a Limb. Baker.
"Good Night," Sweet Prince. Fowler.
Golden Fleece. Harding.
Throw Me a Bone. Lothrop.
Incredible Crosby. Ulanov.
Autobiography of W. A. White.

Fiction

Jane Eyre. Bronte.
Wuthering Heights. Bronte.
Heart in Pilgrimage. Eaton and Moore.
Mrs. Mike. Freedman.
Night of Decision. Grant.
Pilgrim Inn. Goudge.
Miracle of the Bells. Janney.
Dry Wood. Houselander.
When the Mountain Fell. Ramuz.
Lydia Bailey. Roberts.
Prince of Foxes. Shellabarger.
Aurora Dawn. Wouk.

Miscellaneous

Speaking Frankly. Byrnes.
Royal Road to Romance. Halliburton.

Congratulations

Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Francis Shea (Wilma Bittner) May 15, Our Lady of Lourdes, Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell Novotny (Pauline Plumm) May 17, Holy Name, Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bauer (Florence Chung) May 9, St. Joseph, Indianapolis.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. D. Keith Gilpin (Marian Sorg) daughter, Diane Marie, May 12.

Sympathy

Faculty and students extend their deepest sympathy to Sister Mary Cephas on the death of her brother and to Peggy O'Hara on the death of her aunt and foster-mother.

At Random

by Jeanne Gallagher

MY IMAGINATION is working overtime again of course, but it seems as if I can almost hear faint strains of Auld Lang Syne as I begin this column for the last time . . . but all pleasant things must come to an end, and this is one of them. From now on it will have to be "in earnest" instead of "at random."

SARA JO MAHAN'S house was the scene of the last informal get-together for the Class of 1948. Buffet supper was served and an "utterly delicious" time was had by all 29 of us.

"DEW DROP INN" suggested the match covers, invitations, and menus at our Red Cross sponsored dance at the Vets . . . a very cagy idea.

NOT CUTTING CLASS, just making a happy combination of plant study and soil conservation were the freshman biologists who transplanted horsetail and wild ginger.

DRESSING UP Madam Pompadour and other period dolls has been the recent occupation of the historic costume design class . . . this is one way of giving history a feminine touch.

AFTER THE PROM dozens of seniors and their dates explored Lillian Lieland Kresig's new home . . . food and more dancing followed.

JUNE 3, 1948

A last salute . . .
to your gracious halls
where we have learned
the beauty of truth,
the value of goodness.

A last glance . . .
at your smooth lawns
and flowered walks,
where we have planned,
and studied
and sung together.

A last pledge . . . of loyalty
to our patron,
to your ideals,
to college friends.

A last thought . . .
as the organ sounds,
the processional begins:
"Marian . . . we give to thee
our love and loyalty!"

Phoenix Feathers to the Science Club and to its vice-president, Dorothy Bersch, for their donation of Chairs 62 and 63 for the new science lecture hall.

THE PHOENIX
Published monthly October through May

Member

Associated Collegiate Press
Catholic School Press Association
Vol. XI No. 8

Editor-in-Chief.....Jeanne Gallagher, '48
Associate Editor.....Mary Jane Porter, '49
Assistant Editors.....Norma Schaefer, '49, Mary Catherine Cavanaugh, '50, Barbara Hipp, '50, Jane Lanahan, '50, Beatrice Loos '50
Business.....Marjorie Davey, '48, manager; Mary Patricia Sullivan, '49, Virginia Nordmeyer, '50, Connie Kraker, '51
Circulation.....Dolores Mayer, '49, manager; Bernadette Mullen, '49, Jane Peters, '49, Mary Haugh, '50, Patricia Brezgar, '51, Claudine Lents, '51, Joan Matkovich, '51, Josephine Powell, '51
Reporters.....Mary P. McCarthy, '49, Mary Helen Wells, '49, Colleen Morin, '50, Joyce Abrams, '51, Billie Jean Eilers, '51, Mary Louise Eilers, '51, Anna Mae Lepley, '51, Alice Redmond, '51, Rita Small, '51, Amy Snapp, '51
Art.....Sarah Page, '49, Lois Tenbleg, '48

Basis for Awareness

1948-49 may bring a new type of orientation to Catholic college campuses. At least, that is the hope of NFCCS as it launches a program intended to make all students keenly aware of the Christian principles of education.

"We have ascertained," the theme session resolutions of the Philadelphia Congress begin, "that there exists within our member NFCCS colleges student bodies a blindness to the true nature of a Christian as one living in the supernatural order, there is consequently denial of Christ and the life of grace in our daily lives as Christians, and more properly as students living a Christ-life."

Basis for this assertion was a poll of student opinion taken among 15,000 Catholic college students, distributed on all the member campuses. To implement this resolution the national officers will meet in June to work out details for presenting to the whole student body "an interesting exposition of the nature of the Christian student with the personal and social implications thus incurred being brought home to the student by practical examples in the specific field of learning."

Spotlight on the Family

For many of us family life holds the greatest allurements. And it is well, for the family constitutes the basic unit of society. It is only in the strength of the home that the strength of the nation can be built.

Here on the campus we have tried to foster the spirit of prayerfulness with the hope that it will carry over into our family life. It is truthfully stated that "the family which prays together, stays together."

If we look further into Christian family life, we find that the woman of today, as wife and mother is the heart of the home. She is mistress, not only of a material realm, handling material needs, but it is she who must supply the fuel for the all-important fire of the family spirit. With God as the center of family life, and love the binding force, her little kingdom will prosper.

The administration and faculty at Marian College have stressed this objective and have faith that the students entering the family world in the face of the new paganism that is confronting us today, and in the face of economic conditions that are often cruelly hard, will remain loyal at all costs to the standards of Christian living.

Women of today busy themselves with many tasks about which their grandmothers did not so much as dream. They are able to compete successfully for positions formerly held

The program aims, moreover, to include extra-curricular groups. Campus clubs will follow up the orientation program by examining the correlation of Faith and the specified field represented by each.

"Evaluations of the probable careers which would result from study in the major field in question as regards the worth of the career itself in the light of Christian charity and justice, and as regards the individual's participation in that field as a Christian" will be made.

Public resolutions adopted included: sanction of the work of the UN commission on human rights, with the recommendation that the Commission recognize "these rights as coming from the Creator of all mankind;" approval of selective service in time of emergency; recommendation of nondiscrimination in regard to race, creed, or color in admission to Catholic schools; cooperation with and a better understanding of Pax Romana, the international movement of Catholic students; strengthening of student governments in Catholic colleges; and integration of NFCCS into the school organizations.

entirely by men. Yet it is more important that women, especially Catholic women, recall the truth that being is fundamentally more important than doing.

We, who are about to step out into the world and take our place in it as home-makers, as career women in the business or political world, or in the immediate service of God, realize more and more the importance of a true Christian education. Here at Marian we are being trained to take our respective places in the world. We are receiving Catholic philosophy which will carry us through the mazes of present day thought, which is a requisite in the complex life of today. We live in the atmosphere of a Catholic campus, where not only spiritual beauty is present, but physical beauty as well.

The world today more than ever before, needs women of deep faith with a capacity for unselfish service in bringing Christ back to His own. As Christ came into the world through Mary, it is becoming Mary-like that Marian students will best play their part in God's plan. No matter who we are, or what our circumstances may be, it is possible to follow Mary in the one thing she did and does, to bear Christ into the world each in her own sphere.

(Excerpt from Campus Queen Message)

Retrospection . . .

The History of the Class of '48

Sept. 7, 1944—Dazed and bewildered, we began our college career. The day began with a Mass in honor of the Holy Ghost, and the rest of the day we spent meeting new friends and renewing acquaintances with old school mates.

Sept. 13—Came the dawn of this day and we were made to feel a part of the school. Chain gangs were formed, make-up was taboo, and we paraded our names on placards printed in bright green ink.

In October we elected class officers—Mary Katherine Klaiber, president. During October, too, we proudly showed our parents the campus and hideouts we had discovered in the month of roaming.

Our days of lassitude were numbered, however, and midterms rolled around. And then—term papers. The library, buzzed with busy freshies trying to meet the deadline—Christmas vacation.

On Feb. 10, 1945, the freshmen entertained the sailors of the Armory with a dance in Madonna Hall. The sailors decided this Navy life wasn't so bad after all.

March 7, 8—Silence reigned supreme while we enjoyed a spiritual retreat.

May 4—The class entertained the high school graduates. How much fun to act as hostesses after having learned so much in one short year.

May 29 marked the end of the finals and a celebration at the Homestead and a chicken dinner strengthening our poor, tired bodies.

Sept., 1945—The first few weeks back at school and the cooperative class spirit resulted in a successful wiener roast down by the lake.

Sophomore elections gave the class reins to Theresa McConahay.

Feb., 1946—Our pearl studded diamond shaped, gold and onyx class pins were presented at a dinner in the Columbia Club. Some members were said to have worn theirs to bed—so proud were we!

April 8—The apple orchard formed the setting of the sophomore-junior picnic.

April 30—Social event of the school year, the Sienna Ball, under the leadership of Virg Connor was held at the Indiana Roof and met with unusual success.

May 8—Field Day, with the sun shining all day. Result—red faces and a couple of casualties—victims of sprained ankles.

Sept., 1946, found our number greatly lessened. But carry on we did under the able leadership of Dorothy Bersch.

Nov. 22—The junior and sophomore classes joined heads and presented a gala formal dance—the first of the season.

May 2, 1947—The biggest thrill of the junior year—the Junior-Senior Prom. Whispers as to the outcome of the prom queen election were prevalent. The night finally arrived, and we crowned our lovely little queen—Mary Ann Gearin.

September once again and a group of 29 dignified seniors returned under the leadership of Mary Stieff, president, and Sara Jo Mahan, Student Association president.

Oct. 14, 1947—Shovels were decorated and Mother Clarissa and Archbishop Schulte broke ground for the long awaited new building.

April 8, 1948—Mid-terms over we felt the need of a bit of relaxation and good food, so off we went to enjoy a delicious steak dinner midst good music and splendid companionship.

May 4, 7—For four years we had been dreading this—the days of comprehensives. Braincracked and confused, we struggled through to the end, and reached it triumphantly.

May 14—A night of candlelight and magic—how proud we were of our prom queen—Rosemary Doyle. Decorations were beautiful—and thanks, juniors, for a wonderful time.

May 23—Again the senior's turn to shine—and we did a good job of it in the person of Mary Sunderhaus, our Campus Queen, and her attendants.

May 29—Our last informal "get together" at the buffet supper in Dode Mahan's home.

June 2—The stillness of the night lends enchantment to the beautiful, impressive Baccalaureate ceremony. Father Cavanagh encouraged us with his words on this—the eve of our graduation.

June 3—To the strains of Pomp and Circumstances we marched through Madonna Hall, our hearts pulsating with the rhythm of the music, and the realization that this indeed is the final step in our college career. To justify our happy times which we have enjoyed during our four years in school it seems timely to express our thanks to the faculty—especially to those who get little recognition for their wonderful cooperation in making every occasion one of success.

Rosemary Doyle,
Sara Jo Mahan.

The Oracles Have Whispered

O, listen ye "high and mighty" Seniors of 1948 to the words of wisdom from the lips of your prophet who now speaketh unto you what hath been revealed unto her, even as it hath been decreed by the powers that be.

For it hath come to pass that the veil of the future of the class of 1948 was to be given unto the hands of this your prophet to do with even as she listed that she cried out in a loud voice of lamentation saying: "What am I, peasant that I am, that the future of this great, stupendous, colossal, marvelous, glorious, super-duper class should depend on miserable me. What am I that the fate of these most fair, gorgeous, beautiful damsels should rest upon the decision of one so humble of intellect and so infirm of purpose?"

As I looked into the future I could discern moving among the dim shadows of people—yet-to-be the familiar "shapes" of those fair and radiant beings who were once my class-mates now changed and transformed into citizens of the world outside.

. . . I could see through the thin veil of the future our beloved president, Mary Stieff, in a chemistry lab. She seems to have—yes, she has—our Mary has split an atom. But she didn't do it alone; she has an accomplice, Pat Ward—together they have succeeded. And even more spectacular is another associate, Jane Costello, working feverishly to put that atom back together . . . In the adjoining room I see Rita Taske, protractor in one hand, logarithms in the other, calculating how to . . . sorry, I can't tell you, it's a military secret!

. . . Following through to the domestic scene, I see our three married seniors, Pat, Shiela, Lillian, doing scientific work of a different nature as they delve into the latest methods of sterilizing baby bottles.

. . . Looking further, a sheet of newspaper comes into view—there is a column giving advice to the love-lorn, edited by none other than Marge Davey . . . As the pages of the newspaper unfold I see another familiar name, Joan Courtney, who was signed with the RETAW Co. to do sky-writing. She spells WATER backwards. (It ain't easy!) . . . Further down the page is the report of Foreign Correspondent,

"A night of candlelight and magic"—the junior prom. Her Highness, Queen Rosemary Doyle, and attendants Jane Gaughan and Jane Costello.

Last Will and Testament
of the Senior Class of 1948, residents of Marian College, Marion County, Indiana.

We, the Senior Class of 1948, of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, sign, publish, and declare this instrument to be our last will and testament.

We give, devise, and bequeath the following to the Junior Class of 1948:

I, Lois Tenbieg, will to Sarah Page my ability to relax completely in class, and ignore assignments.

I, Jane Costello, will my free periods to Pat Parker, and the fillings in my teeth to Sue Orth.

I, Sara Jo Mahan, will to Mary Helen Wells my skill at the comptometer.

I, Rosemary Doyle, will my knack of finding the right house and one-half can of blue paint to Dorothy Fox.

I, Pat Ward, will to Norma Schaefer, with best wishes, my chemistry comprehensives.

I, Mary Jo Doherty, wanted to will my comprehensive notes to Mary Jane Porter, but in a fit of joy I tore them up and threw them away immediately following comprehensives so . . .

I, Dorothy Bersch, will to Mary Jane my old tooth brush.

I, Adeline Valdez, will my excellent piano technique to Mary P. McCarthy.

I, Rita Taske, will all my pleasures and worries as president of the Science Club to Ruth Gallagher.

I, Jane Gaughan, will to Bernadette Mullen my ping-pong paddle.

Joan Baumer, with the latest news of the World Abroad.

. . . In the amusement section I see a full length photo of the new singing sensation, called by the critics "a second Madame Melba" . . . To us she is known as Jeanne Gallagher. Her accompanist also pictured was Kathleen Holtel, another graduate of '48 . . . Running down the list of plays I see the name of Mary Sunderhaus starring in "A Taxi Called Despair." Critics say it's different anyway! . . . Currently featured at the 54th Street Theatre are Joan Casler and Junella Vachon with the Ballet Russe . . . The new cartoonist for "Berry and the Tyrants," I see, is Lois Tenbieg.

. . . Turning to the book review section we see the "Valdez Report" given a very favorable review by Mary Jo Doherty, the well-known authoress of "Gone with the Breeze." . . . On the sports page we read of the

(Continued on Page Six)

I, Eileen Gaughan, will my gray hair to Dolores Mayer.

I, Catherine Gardner, will to Mary Lou Reder my adeptness at Spanish.

I, Junella Vachon, will the shoes I don't wear in class to Mary Piczko.

I, Pat Garrett, will to Martha Brosnan my tact for getting along with little ones.

I, Mary Stieff, will to Patricia Norris my secret formula for cleaning biurets, and also two blue books.

I, Joan Baumer, will my capacity for coming early to class to Mary Pat Sullivan.

I, Joan Wolff, will to Joan Coyle my nonchalance in ignoring history assignments.

I, Mary Sunderhaus, with deepest pleasure, endow Wanda Toffolo with my masculine roles in plays.

I, Jeanne Gallagher, will to my sister Ruth my ability to hit high C on a rainy day.

I, Gladys Gonzales, will to Anna Catherine Dean my Puerto Rican sun-tan.

I, Lillian Kraeszig, will my extra bedroom to resident students on week-ends.

I, Kathleen Holtel, will to Jane Peters an inch of height.

I, Antoinette Pangallo, will my gift of translating French novels to Rosina Menonna.

I, Marge Davey, will my ability to get up early to Elaine Thomas.

I, Joan Fischer, will three bars of Hershey to Jane Monaghan.

I, Joan Courtney, will to Barbara Schenkel my towering stature.

I, Marianne Lauber, will a pocketful of unused transfers to Geraldine Schloeman.

I, Shiela Wood, will all my unused pencil stubs to Jeanne O'Brien and my worn-out notebook to Martha Bosler.

I, Joan Casler, will to Martha Baase my old saddle shoes.

Finally, we, the Senior Class, as a body, bequeath all our bent paper clips and broken rubber bands, and regretfully pass on our magic power over all freshmen to the juniors to be used discreetly for their personal interest and benefit.

A Chaplain Looks at Graduation

by Msgr. John J. Doyle

The eleven years that have passed since the first students began their courses at Marian College have seen the most rapid growth in college enrollment in the history of American education. Careful students of the needs of the country are convinced that if the United States is to prosper and to play its proper role in the world community an even greater increase in the next eleven or twelve years: that the number of students in colleges and universities should be doubled by 1960. The accomplishment of this objective demands a tremendous effort in the provision of teachers, building and equipment. Marian College believes that it has the duty to participate in this movement and thereby to contribute its share to the welfare of the country; it has therefore begun to erect new buildings that will enable it to provide opportunities for education to many more young people than has hitherto been possible. This project calls for a large measure of faith and courage in those that have the responsibility of carrying it out. It will require also the cooperation of all that are interested in the work of Catholic education in Indianapolis and Indiana—the faculty, the students, the alumnae, the Catholic people in general—to make the project succeed materially and spiritually.

The Class of 1948 is perhaps the last one whose college career will have been spent in the original buildings. But the members of the class have experienced the excitement that accompanies the beginning of a task and they have seen in the foundations that have been laid the outlines of the college as it is to be. They have shared in the inspiration of those that planned the work and as they become alumnae they will be able to convey this to those that have known the college in its older form. We hope also that they will take to these others the assurance that the change in the outward aspect of the college marks no change in the devotion to the search for truth and to Christian ideals that from the beginning has been its strength.

CLASS

of '48

Lillian L. Kraeszig
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Art
Minor: English
Social Committee 4
World Affairs 4
Literary Club 4

Shiela Wood
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Biology
Minor: Social Science
Who's Who 4
Red Cross 1-2
Fioretti assistant editor 3

Lois Tenbieg
Cincinnati, Ohio
Major: Art
Minor: Biology, Education
Red Cross 3-4
Science Club 1-4, historian 4
Inter-American 1-2, treasurer 2
Literary Guild 3-4, president 4
Orchestra 1-3
College Choir 2-4
Fioretti, editor-in-chief 3
Fioretti, editor-in-chief 3, staff 2, 4
Nat'l Anthology of College Poetry 1-4

Dorothy E. Bersch
Madison, Indiana
Major: Biology
Minor: German
Class president 3
Science Club vice-president
Literary Guild 3-4
Red Cross chairman 4
Vice-chairman 3
World Affairs 3
Phoenix circulation staff

Eileen Gaughan
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Education
Play 1
Literary Guild 4
World Affairs 4
Red Cross 2-4
Glee Club 1
Campus Queen attendant 1, 4
Mission representative 3

(Left)

Sara Jo Mahan
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Economics
Minor: English
SA president 4
Class secretary 1
CSMC representative 2
Glee Club 1
Red Cross 1-4

(Right)

Rosemary Doyle
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Economics
Minor: English
Prom Queen 4
Campus Queen attendant 3-4
Inter-American Club 4
Sodality Representative 3
Red Cross 1-3

(Left)

Jane Claire Costello
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Chemistry
Red Cross 1-3
Eta Delta 2-4
Social Committee 4
Prom Queen attendant 4

Antoinette Pangallo
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: French
Minor: Social Science
French award 3
Delta Epsilon Sigma 4
World Affairs Club 4
Inter-American Club 4

(Upper right)

Marianne Lauber
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Education
Red Cross 1, 2, 4
Orchestra 1-4
Inter-American Club 2, 4
World Affairs 4
Science Club 1-2

Gladys Gonzalez Delgado
Isabela, Puerto Rico
Major: Biology
Minor: Social Work
Who's Who 3
Campus Queen attendant 3-4
Fioretti circulation manager 3
Inter-American Club 1-4
President 3
Science Club 3-4
Historian 4
Literary Guild 4
World Affairs Club 4

Rita Taske
Cincinnati, Ohio
Major: Chemistry
Minor: Mathematics
Science Club 1-4, vice-president
president 4
CSMC representative 4
Orchestra 1-3
Glee Club 1-2
College Choir 1-4
Eta Delta 2-4
Red Cross 3-4

Adeline Valdez
Park View, New Mexico
Major: Education
Inter-American Club 2-3, secretary 3
Legion of Mary 2-4, treasurer 2-4
Literary Guild 3
Science Club 2
Glee Club 1-3
College Choir, 1-4
Sodality representative 4

Mary Jo Doherty
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: English
Minor: Social Science
Who's Who 4
Sodality prefect 3-4
Red Cross Production 2, 4

Kathleen T. Holtel
Oldenburg, Indiana
Major: Economics
Minor: French
Who's Who 4
French award 4
SA treasurer 3
Campus Queen attendant 4
Class treasurer 4
Orchestra 1-3
String Ensemble 1-4
Science Club 4
World Affairs Club 3

Mary Arline Stieff
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Chemistry
Kappa Gamma Pi 4
Who's Who 3
Class treasurer 3
Class president 4
Eta Delta 2-4
Red Cross 1-4

Joan Wolff
Dayton, Ohio
Major: Chemistry
Minor: English
Literary Guild 3
Eta Delta 1-4
Science Club 1-4
Red Cross 1, 2, 4
Nat'l Anthology College Poetry 4
College Choir 2-4

Catherine E. Gardner
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Spanish
Minor: English
Kappa Gamma Pi 4
Spanish award 1
Inter-American Club 3-4
President 4

Patricia Filcer Garrett
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Education
Delta Epsilon Sigma 4
Red Cross 1-2

Patricia Frances Ward
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Chemistry
Red Cross 1-4
Mission Study Club 3-4
Student Directory co-editor 4

Jeanne Elizabeth Gallagher
Cincinnati, Ohio
Major: English
Minor: Philosophy
Phoenix editor-in-chief 4, staff 2-3
Nat'l Anthology College Poetry 4
Literary Guild 3-4, secretary 3
Victory Committee 1
Science Club 1-3
Glee Club 1-3
Bel Canto 1-4
A Capella Choir 3-4
Play 1-3
College Choir 1-4
Inter-American Club 1

Mary Sunderhaus
Cincinnati, Ohio
Major: Economics
Minor: English
Campus Queen 4, attendant 1
Legion of Mary treasurer 2-4
NFCCS delegate 2-4
Glee Club 1-3
Red Cross 1-4
Science Club 2
CSMC Study Club 1
Phoenix circulation 1-2
Play 2-4

(Left)

Joan M. Baumer
Anderson, Indiana
Major: English
Minor: Music
Literary Guild vice-president 3-4
Inter-American Club 3
Science Club 2-4
World Affairs Club 3
Class secretary 4
Fioretti editor 4, assoc. editor 3
Red Cross Production chairman 2-3
Phoenix assistant editor 4
Nat'l Anthology College Poetry 4

(Right)

Joan Casler
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Economics
Minor: English
Red Cross 3-4
Inter-American Club 4
World Affairs Club 4
Social Committee 4
Play 1

Jane E. Gaughan
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Spanish
Minor: English
Kappa Gamma Pi 4
Spanish Award 1
Class secretary 2
SA secretary 3-4
Inter-American Club 3-4
Sports chairman 2
Prom Queen attendant 4

Joan F. Fischer
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: Biology
Minor: Economics
World Affairs 4
Glee Club 1

Junella Vachon
Fort Wayne, Indiana
Major: Education
Orchestra 1-3
World Affairs 4
Glee Club 1
Red Cross 1-3

(Left)

Marjorie Therese Davey
Frankfort, Indiana
Major: Social Sciences
Minor: English
Play, 1, 2, 4
Literary Guild 3-4
Orchestra 1
Campus Queen attendant 2
Phoenix business manager 2-4
Inter-American Club 3
College Choir 3-4
Student Directory co-editor 4

(Upper right)

Joan Mary Courtney
Indianapolis, Indiana
Major: History
Minor: Biology
Red Cross 2-3
Glee Club 1
World Affairs Club 4

Legionnaires Sponsor Picnic, Play, Classes

Auxiliary and active Legionnaires of Mary joined in the annual wiener roast picnic on the college campus recently.

After the "eats" the picnickers played a "wicked game" of softball until 7:00 when time was called for benediction in the chapel.

The Legion sponsored and produced a play, entitled "Pom Pom," presented by the children of St. Rita's on Mother's Day. The proceeds of the play, $10.40, were donated to the school to help pay for much-needed equipment.

On Saturday of each week the Legion directs handicraft classes of leather and art work at the Catholic centers.

NFCCS Elects At Dayton Meeting

University of Dayton was host to the NFCCS regional meeting, May 16.

Application was made by Xavier University for a regional commission in Family Life Study. Vote will be taken by mail as the application was not made two weeks prior to the meeting.

Tentative plans were made for a summer meeting of the new and retiring officers to map next year's program.

Members from Marian attending the meeting were: Mary Sunderhaus, Anna Catherine Dean, Mary Jane Porter, and Mary Haugh.

Election of officers resulted as follows: Jerome Conrey, Xavier University, Cincinnati, president; Mary B. Ritter, Our Lady of Cincinnati, vice-president; Vivian Igel, St. Mary of the Springs, Columbus, recording secretary; Betty Schmidt, Mount St. Joseph, corresponding secretary, and Mary Ann Kennedy, Nazareth College, Louisville, treasurer.

Chemistry Majors Tour Laboratories

Chemistry students and faculty members from 13 Indiana colleges and universities and two high schools participated in the 12th students' meeting of the American Chemical Society held April 30 at the Lincoln Hotel.

Trips were made to the laboratories and plants of the Marion Chemical Corporation, the Reilly Tar and Chemical Company, and the Naval Ordnance Plant.

Luncheon and dinner at the hotel were followed by speeches, "The Technical Man Looks for a Job," by Mr. John Hall, and "So You Want to Become a Chemist," by Mr. H. V. Churchill.

Students attended a dance in the evening in the Travertine Room.

Sister Mary Rose, Sister Marie Bernard, Jane Costello, Mary Stieff, Pat Ward, Joan Wolff, and Rita Taske were guests of Mr. P. C. Reilly at the meeting.

Art Majors

(Continued from Page One)

large jars of spring flowers and pastel candles. Tables were placed in Room 20 and the library reading room. The terrace was strung with paper lanterns.

Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Doyle.

Patricia Tally exhibited lettering and fashion illustrations in the art gallery May 18. A sophomore, Pat is looking toward a career in designing.

Ballet Boheme, oil painting by Sister M. Dolores, Marian art instructor, is completing a tour of Indiana cities as part of the Hoosier Salon Exhibit. The painting won second award "for outstanding work by an instructor in a Catholic university or high school."

Oracles

(Continued from Page Three)

departure of Jane Gaughan—who has flown to Switzerland to compete in the Olympics. She is said to be a cinch to cop the pingpong title . . .

In the next column we read some spectacular news. Sara Jo Mahan has qualified 134.77 for pull position in the 500-mile Speedway Race . . . Turning to the "Reporter's Report on Latest Events" we find that Antoinette Pangallo delivered an address in French at the annual Dinner for the "Ancient Order of Hibernian."

. . . To all of the little housewives of Indianapolis, be sure to tune in the WISH every morning at 10:15 to "Kitchen Kapers with Jodie and Rosie" (nee Wolff and Doyle) for the latest in tasty recipes! . . . Miss Joan Fischer, prominent woman lawyer, is currently defending her fellow class-mates of '48, Catherine Gardner vs. Pussy Bersch. Pussy is accusing Kate of coating her berry pie with drops of paris green.

. . . Marian College has taken on another philosophy teacher the past week. She is Sr. Mary Michael, PhD., a former student then known as Eileen Gaughan. She will be assistant to Monsignor Doyle. The Good Will Ambassador to Puerto Rico will speak at the Murat this week on "Will Puerto Rico Be Our 51st State?" The speaker, Miss Gladys Gonzalez, is well known in Indianapolis circles and is being entertained by her Marian College classmates of '48 . . . The gathering will be held, incidentally, by Marianne Lauber at her famous restaurant, "The Homestead."

And verily as I beheld this scene and marvelled thereat thinking, Aye, even if these things should come to pass with each of us, sure that as "coming events cast their shadows before" only goodness and truth and prosperity shall follow all the days that are to come to the fair and talented members of the Class of 1948.

Mary Sunderhaus,
Joan Wolff.

M. Bosler, SA Prexy, Student Vote Decides

Year-end all-school elections gave the presidency of the Student Association to Martha Bosler, junior class president and chairman of Student Relief.

Officers of the association, sodality prefect, and CSMC president were elected from a slate prepared by the outgoing board. Phoenix and Fioretti editors were elected directly by the board.

A complete list of May election returns is given on Page 8.

Commencement

(Continued from Page One)

Sara Jo Mahan, Antoinette Pangallo, Mary Sunderhaus, Lois Tenbieg, Joan Wolff, and Shiela Wood.

Candidates for the bachelor of science degree are: Jane Costello, Mary Stieff, Rita Taske, and Patricia Ward. The degree of bachelor of science in education will be conferred on Patricia Garrett, Eileen Gaughan, Marianne Lauber, Junella Vachon, and Adeline Valdez.

Also to receive the degrees of bachelor of arts and bachelor of science in education will be 19 religious, Sisters of St. Francis and of St. Joseph.

With Congratulations

— Alumnae

Miss Catherine Pangallo
Miss Mary Anne Gallagher
Miss Mary Jo Falvey
Miss Margie Mellen
Miss Patricia Hagen
Miss Mary Ellen Fox
Miss Mary McNulty
Miss Ruth Bill
Miss Rebecca Martinez
Miss Alice Marie Dooley
Mrs. Robert Kern (Joanne Lauber)
Mrs. Cyril Des Jean (P. Byfield)
Mrs. Marvin Northcutt (Bette O'Neill)
Miss Mary Louise Alter
Miss Juliana Dillhoff
Mrs. Adrian Parker (Martha Gosch)
Mrs. Chas. Fleetwood (M. A. McCarthy)
Miss Joan Kervan
Miss Jane Swengel
Miss Joan Duffin
Miss Dolores Martini
Mrs. Justin Weber (Rita Krekeler)
Mrs. Russell Elliott (Marian Guenter)
Mrs. George Luebke (Sylvia Luley)
Miss Mary Jane Herman
Miss Virginia Hunter
Miss Janet Myers
Miss Peggy Foltz
Miss Magaline Sgro
Mrs. E. F. Glaze (Betty Armstrong)

Receives UC Award

School days will not be over for Rita Taske when she receives her bachelor of science degree, June 3. Rita, a chemistry major, has been awarded a chemistry scholarship and assistantship by the University of Cincinnati. She will begin work for her master's degree in September and at the same time assist in undergraduate laboratory work.

To the Class of 1948
May Marian Joys
be always yours
— A Friend

Metcalf, Mahan and Mahan

Shorthand Reporters

610-612 Fletcher Trust Bldg.

FRanklin 2675

GOOD LUMBER

FINE MILLWORK

Burnet-Binford Lumber Company

1401 W. 30th Street

TAIbot 3315

CANTEEN COMPANY

A. P. Lawrence, Manager

IRvington 7697

970 N. Chester St.

Compliments of

TUXEDO CLEANERS

325 E. Market St.

FREE COFFEE

Hurry to

The Hurryburger

30TH and ILLINOIS

FREE COFFEE EVERY DAY

9:30 to 11:00 a. m. - 11:30 to 3:30 p. m.

THE J. P. KOEHLER PHARMACIES

30TH and CENTRAL - 30TH and ILLINOIS INDIANAPOLIS

SERVES THE NORTH SIDE WITH PERFECT PRESCRIPTION WORK
Complete Line of Biologicals
General Electric Refrigerator Equipment

Mr. and Mrs.
George E. Bersch

portraits

by photography

Individuality

15 East Ohio Street

MARket 4744

Indianapolis 4, Indiana

A tense scene from "The Barretts," this year's dramatic presentation. Left to right: Rita Small (Henrietta), Rosina Menonna (Wilson), Wanda Toffolo (Robert Browning), Geraldine Schloeman (Elizabeth), Mary Sunderhaus (Mr. Barrett).

Indiana NSA Meets At War Memorial

The spring meeting of the Indiana region of the NSA was held May 8 at the World War Memorial.

"Information on NSA" was the keynote of the meeting. The working basis of the association and its objectives were explained and the past history of the NSA related for delegates unacquainted with the beginnings of the organization.

Schools represented were: DePauw University, Earlham College, Franklin College, Indiana Technical, Indiana State, Marian College, Purdue University and St. Francis College.

Guild Officers Named

Election of officers was the main activity at the May meeting of the Marian Guild. The new officers for the coming year are: Mrs. R. J. Mortlock, president; Mrs. James P. Stieff, vice-president; Mrs. William E. Talley, corresponding secretary. Reelected were: Mrs. D. R. Brosnan, recording secretary, Mrs. Charles Bruns, treasurer. The college orchestra entertained.

At the next meeting, June 8, a covered dish luncheon will be held

Best Wishes to the Graduates

Mrs. Jane Holtel
Mrs. Robert Kerker
Miss Barbara Downtain
Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Gallagher
Mr. and Mrs. George F. Sunderhaus
Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Davey, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. James B. Mahan
Tommy and Joe Tomlinson
Mr. and Mrs. James P. Stieff
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Breindl
Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius F. Haugh
A. E. Taske
A. Friend
Rev. Joseph V. Beechem
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Doyle
Mr. Fred J. Becher
Mr. Thomas D. Doyle, Jr.
Miss Rosemary Doyle
Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Filcer
Miss Suzanne Pursian
Miss Gladys Gonzalez
Miss Irene Holtel
Mrs. Paul McManis (M. K. Klaiber)
Miss Theresa VanBenten
Miss Mary Alice Miller
Miss Josephine Powell
Miss Alice Raben
Miss Mary Morin
Miss Helen Eckrich
Miss Betty Jean Smith
Miss Betty Burk

in the school cafeteria. Members are invited to bring guests.

Miss Anna Marie Snider
Miss Rosemary Bumen
Miss Ann Gill
Miss Betty Kannapel
Miss Claudine Lents
Miss Joan Kaiser
Mr. and Mrs. F. Gonzalez Doret
Miss Selma Yabroudy
Miss Carol Mortlock
Miss Connie Kraker
Miss Patricia Brezigan
Miss Joan Matkovich
Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Burkert
Miss Jeanette Garcia
Miss Helen Reid
Miss Virginia Connor
Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Costello
Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wolff
Mr. Robert V. Corrigan
Miss Cleo Feldshake
Miss Mary Jo Foley
Miss Mary Helen Rhodes
Miss Mary Jane Lund
Miss Marjorie Markham

Meridian
Flower Shop, Inc.
Flowers for All Occasions
Wabash 1578

Claire's Beauty Shoppe
208 W. Pearl Street
Batesville, Ind.
PHONE 2192

Carlos
THE BAKER

Wedding and Party Cakes for the Graduate bride.
2460 S. Meridian ID. 2379

W. J. Murphy Speaks Critic's Heyday On Atomic Age

by Mary Jane Porter

"Science has a very guilty conscience," said Mr. W. J. Murphy, American Chemical Society editor, former research chemist and chemical engineer, in a lecture here May 19.

Eye-witness at Bikini and federal investigator of European conditions, Mr. Murphy is persuaded of the inadequacy of science alone, and atomic energy in particular, to effect world peace. Despair is Europe's most serious affliction.

Guests of the college with Mr. Murphy were Mr. P. C. Reilly and Dr. Cislak.

Death took two of America's great men this month. The influence of Father Flanagan who based his life on the phrase "There's no such thing as a bad boy," will continue for generations as Boys Town consistently turns out young men a credit to their country. The second of the duo is Tom Breneman, a real personality of the radio. His genuine liking for people and ability to make them, especially elderly ladies, feel important, drew over two thousand to his funeral and will doubtless make him a legendary figure in years to come.

A magazine has revealed that publishers, in order to capitalize on authors, photograph them in four standardized poses—the out-door, austere, hand to head, and ethereal look with stereotyped blurbs on the jacket flaps and standardized pictures on the back, why should we even expect what is between the covers to be different?

Proof of the Communists' power is the rumpus they are raising over The Iron Curtain, a movie based on last year's spy trials in Canada. Dramatically revealing the subversive methods of the Soviet government's attempt to steal atomic-energy information from Canada, The Iron Curtain is a movie the Communists definitely did not want filmed. This explains the bold attempts to keep it from being released. This explains why every American should want to see it.

South America seemed a long step nearer after accounts by the Rev. Arthur C. Kiernan, M.M., during his stop-over at Marian enroute to Maryknoll from the Puno Mission, Peru. Especially significant were his references to the Basque element in flourishing centers of Catholicity and culture. Father Kiernan is a personal friend of Lucy Raygada, sophomore, from Lima.

Other solos featured, as representative composers, Alvarez, Beethoven, Delibes, Rubinstein, and Sullivan.

Soloists Perform

Instrumental soloists—piano, violin, and organ—were: Amy Snapp, Geraldine Schloeman, Sara Perera, Mary P. McCarthy, Elaine Thomas, Wanda Toffolo, Corinne Martin, Kathleen Holtel, and Margaret Murello.

Vocal soloists were: Lucy Raygada, Jeanne Gallagher, Joan Baltz, Jeanne O'Brien, and Rosina Menonna.

The musicale was under the direction of Sister M. Vitalis, Sister M. Olivia, and Sister Ruth Irma.

Fine Meats featuring the Kingan's label!
RELIABLE

KINGAN & CO.
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

Paul Bisesi and Sons

COMMISSION MERCHANTS

Compliments of

Curley's

CLEANERS — HATTERS

2967 NORTH ILLINOIS ST.
TAlbot 3313

Have You A Building Problem?

CALL...

F. A. Wilhelm

CONTRACTOR

3914 PROSPECT

BLACKSTONE 2464

Student Leaders 1948-1949

Student Association

Martha Bosler, '49, president
Patricia Parker, '49, vice-president
Mary C. McCarthy, '50, secretary
Colleen Morin, '50, treasurer

CSMC

Jane Peters, '49, president

Sodality

M. C. Cangany, '50, prefect

NFCCS

Mary Haugh, '50, senior delegate
Carol Mortlock, '51, junior delegate

NSA

Mary Jane Porter, '49, convention delegate

Kathryn Moran, '50, alternate delegate

Phoenix

Mary Jane Porter, '49, editor

Fioretti

Sarah Page, '49, editor

Red Cross

Sarah Page, '49, chairman
Barbara Zerr, '50, vice-chairman
Claudine Lents, '51, secretary
Barbara Hall, '50, treasurer

Literary Guild

Beatrice Loos, '50, president
Sarah Page, '49, vice-president
Jane Monaghan, '49, secretary
Amy Snapp, '51, treasurer

Science Club

Ruth Gallagher, '49, president
Corinne Martin, '50, secretary
Beatrice Loose, '50, secretary
Jean Mortlock, '50, historian

Inter-American Club

Martha Dousdebes, '50, president
Rosina Menonna, '49, vice-president
Joan Coyle, '49, secretary
Maria Porras, '51, treasurer.

Broadcast, Production Sign Off Red Cross

Veterans Musical Pillbox radio program, May 19, included seven Marian students. Jeanne Gallagher sang two popular numbers, "Full Moon and Empty Arms" and "The Stars Will Remember," accompanied by Elaine Thomas. Sara Perera played two Spanish numbers on the piano. "Dress Rehearsal," a dramatic monologue, was presented by Rita Small. Four French students, Helen Eckrich, Patricia Kelly, Rita Small, and Loretta Spalding, sang "Frere Jacques." The program is given weekly for the patients.

Marian's Red Cross Production Corps had a display of hand-knitted and machine-sewn articles, May 25, in the Home Economics laboratory. In the display were hand-knit children's sweaters and dresses for foreign relief, bassinet covers and draperies for St. Elizabeth's Home.

Sportscaster

by Helena Gonzalez

Jaunts on the bridle path provide unexpected thrills—and amusement—for campus riders. Lucy Raygada did a perfect three-point landing in the mud after a beautiful somersault when her horse decided to head back for the stables—but fast. "Whoa, Dixie Belle!"

Equestrians, new and old, marvelled at the thick underbrush they had to penetrate when they went riding through the woods. Riding up and down hills and crossing streams were part of the adventure. Mary Morin was no less surprised than her spirited horse, "Teddy," when he went down on his knees to swim—a foot deep stream.

* * *

Softball seems to be replacing swimming as one of the more popular campus sports. Billie Jean and Mary Louise Eilers, and Joyce Abrams, from the home of the Cincinnati Reds, and Ruth Holtel were among the batters who recently hit home-runs, to the great delight of their teams.

Tennis fans Virginia Nordmeyer, Joan Kaiser, Mary McCarthy, Colleen and Mary Morin find time from their books to indulge in their favorite sport.

Ask potential mountain climbers, Pat Kelly and Joyce Abrams about their recent adventure for which they have stiff necks and bruised limbs to show.

* * *

Women of the water—B. Allen, C. Kraker, A. Kuebler, V. Koelker, C. Jones, C. Moran, and B. Loos received a Red Cross "Skilled Swimmer's" Certificate. G. Schloeman helped out in practice and testing.

* * *

Seen (and heard) enjoying the rides at Riverside Amusement Park Piedad Rubianes, Jeannette Garcia, Ruth Gallagher, and Alicia Bath.

* * *

Softball, swimming, boating, ping pong, kickball, volleyball—Virginia Nordmeyer, sports chairman, had slated all. The gay, multi-colored May Pole stood ready, the dancers having practiced their routine days before. Came Thursday, May 13, and rain clouds hovered threateningly over a rain-soaked campus. The announcement, "Field Day will be cancelled on account of the weather," confirmed the girls' worst fears. The groans were loud and long. "O Wind, if black clouds come, can Rain be far behind?"

Campus Club Notes

Aquinas Literary Guild

Last project of the Literary Guild was the drawing up of a summer reading list. Lois Tenbieg, retiring president, and Beatrice Loos, newly elected president, collaborated on a list of worthwhile current books and classics.

Eta Delta

Eta Delta presented Jean Mortlock with an orchid at the last meeting of the school year. Jean obtained the highest average in the weekly sets of problems on organic chemistry. The Beta and Alpha Rays ended the year with a tied score.

Inter-American Club

At the last meeting of the club, May 19, Martha Souza gave a closing address in Spanish, and Catherine Gardner and Jane Gaughan said their "goodbye's" in English.

Everyone participated in singing Spanish songs and dancing.

The first issue of the monthly mimeographed paper of the regional Inter-American Action Commission, NFCCS, was distributed. The paper features articles on Latin America and Inter-American Club news from the member campuses. The Marian unit has charge of the book review section, the first contribution being Madariaga's "The Rise of the Spanish American Empire" by Barbara Schenkel.

Science Club

Stiff joints and sunburned faces were the effects of the Science Club picnic held Sunday, May 16, on campus.

Jean Mortlock, Corinne Martin, and Betty Smith, the arrangements committee, saw to it that wieners, salad, and cokes were generously provided.

The highlight of the day was the two-inning softball game between the sophomores and freshmen—score (24) to 6.

World Affairs Club

With Barbara Schenkel as chairman, club members debated the Marshall Plan at assembly, May 14. Patricia Parker and Mary L. Reder, took the affirmative; Joan Coyle and Mary P. Sullivan, the negative.

Living Rosary Said

The living rosary offered for world peace signalized this year's sodality-sponsored Mary-crowning. Sodality officers, with Patricia Brezigar and Josephine Powell as attendants, formed the cross; 59 other students completed the five-decade chaplet. Passing a tulip from one prayer leader to the next marked the completion of each prayer.

Final sodality tribute to Mary was the senior class recitation of the Office of the Immaculate Conception, May 24, feast of Our Lady Help of Christians.

KARL L. KERNEL

Optometrist

with

HOOSIER OPTICAL CO.
144 North Illinois Street

Compliments of

Ross J. Moore Garage

325 E. MARKET

Delaware

Flower Shop

2922 N. Delaware Street

TAIbot 4568

With Compliments

to

Marian College

Compliments of

Ward's Barber Shop

Fred B. Alexander

TYPESETTING

111-113 S. Capitol Avenue

Lincoln 2206

Compliments of

Kirby Mortuary

Farrell & Argast

ELECTRIC COMPANY

Meridian and Maryland

TEE PEE

Fall Creek at 38th St.

BY OUR FOOD
SHALL WE BE KNOWN

