MANASA

On Saturday, February 28th, Manasa went to LaRue Carter for an "Arts and Crafts" day. We divided up in groups and made posters of the way we perceived outer space. Everyone used their creative imagination.

On March 7th we potted little ivy plants. Each child wrote their name on their pot and took it back to the ward. We also went to the gym for a game of basketball and dodge ball. On March 18th we went to Girl's School for a St. Patrick's Day party. Each girl was given a cup of party favors. We had snacks, played cards, and listened to their wild stories. It was a real experience.

Saturday, March 28th, we are going to LaRue Carter to make and fly kites. We are leaving Clare Hall desk at 9:15am and will arrive back at Noon. Anyone wishing to attend, call Becky at ext 411 or Beth at ext 414. Everyone is welcome.

Also, thanks to all those who participated in the previous activities.

WHERE IS THAT RESPECT?!

"Manners maketh a person" they say, but it's dwindling down at Marian. Respect for others' private property is lacking. Some in the dorms seem to think breaking in and taking possession of others' possessions is quite o.k. as long as they don't get caught. But what they fail to realize is that their motive is selfish. This easy, sleezy way of getting what they need is quite contrary to dignity. Any person who is qualified to enter college is considered a dignified person without any reservation. Sadly, among some of us at Marian, it is not the case. "Evil often triumphs, never conquers." One cannot continue to do wrong always. One day he is going to be caught. But then it will be too late to change and repent. The stigma attached would be so severe that one will have to spend the entire life trying to erase it. So, the time is now. Do try sincerely to get rid of this extra-curricular activity and concentrate more on the purpose for which one is here in college --- to graduate with dignity and live respectfully. Lets give respect and give respect.

A BLACK MAN'S DREAM

What do you think when you hear a black person discuss civil rights? Is it: "Oh, there goes another one of those black militants! When will they be satisfied? We all know that slavery was an unfortunate incident over 100 years ago, but haven't we made up for it? Didn't we abolish slavery? Give 'em all 40 acres and a mule, and they couldn't make a profit didn't we put them all on welfare? And for those too proud to go on welfare, didn't we set up the affirmative action plan and mandatory quota systems? Why, we even let their kids go to school with our kids and what did they do? They started riots. I just don't understand what those blacks have on their minds. All I know is that they sure can hold a grudge long."

Perhaps this is not your view, but you have heard it stated before. Well, I'd like to give you an explanation of what goes on in the black mind. On the wings of poetry, I'd like to take you through a black man's dream.

Fields of flowers, meadows sweet and green ...
these are the things that a black man dreams
Laugh, sing, have fun acts seldom seen ...
often done when a black man dreams
Hate, fear, vengeance, sorrow ... feelings often experienced in reality ...
never when a black man dreams
Life everlasting, tranquility, equality, harmony
And peace ... They've never existed in this world ... Are looked forward to in the next ... Forever thought
When a black man dreams
The allowance to succeed, the chance to do good deeds ... wishes often denied in this life ... forever thought
When a black man dreams
Fate has dealt the black man a near mortal blow
That only God can heal and love can fade ...
One day all will be forgotten; the color of your skin, the texture of your hair ... And that's a dream every black man wants to share.

In this dream you saw no hidden animosities; no plans to conquer the world and annihilate other races. Only the wish to succeed, to exist in harmony, and the allowance to live. It was not my intention to anyone. I'm simply trying to give you an idea of the black view. Because lack of understanding breeds ignorance and ignorance breeds racism. The next time you hear the statement "I just don't understand what goes on in those black minds," remember, all the black man wants is to live and love freely just like every other man.

OUTRAGED!

Students of Marian College, I say enough is enough. Just because the morals of this country are becoming more depraved each day, does that mean that we here at Marian must allow our own morals to slip? I speak of that so-called literary magazine, the Fioretti, and its editors, who have polluted our senses and morality by shamelessly exhibiting a centerfold in their latest edition. Is it not enough that we have to cope with pornography on the outside? Is nothing sacred?
I know, the centerfold was only that of a unicorn with its privates carefully hidden, but where will it lead? Perhaps to a doe looking seductively over its shoulder? Or an otter bathing? Or an eel sending voltages of lust through our minds?
I tell you that this is just the start! Already there is a rumor that the next issue of the Fioretti will feature a human model! Will it be one of the instructors? Perhaps Pedtke lying on a rug? Perish the thought!
Students, I urge you to join with me to combat this moral cancer before it is too late!

Signed,
Morally Disgusted

[P.S. For those of you interested in the centerfold, please contact the editor of your choice.]

THE APATHY AT MARIAN COLLEGE

In reply to the letter written last week. Apathy in sports? Not only in sports but in most areas on campus.

Our priority here at college is education. The majority of us are paying for our education and feel we must spend a proportionate amount of our time on studies. Although we are proud of our team record and hope that they make it to Kansas City we cannot always be at the games to support them with our cheers. The support we give to the team is not dependent on if they are winning or losing but on the amount of time as a student that we can give to that particular activity.

If the basketball players are so concerned about lack of support they should look at their own behavior in supporting other activities at Marian College. Take for example Homecoming week. This week is designed to build up spirit with the basketball team in mind and yet during this week how many basketball players are seen exhibiting interest in the events(crazy days, blue-gold day, square dance, grub day, etc.)?

Just as the team needs a crowd to get their adrenalin flowing, so does any sponsored activity need interest. It is not quantity of the support but the quality of the support shown. What we are trying to say is that no one is free from the label "apathetic" at some point or another.

Addressing the point of transportation, as there are many students on campus without cars perhaps it would be a good idea to take the "Blue Goose" to the games 1 mile away.

We sincerely believe that Little Tree's letter made a good point, but we also believe there is another side to this issue.

JUST A REMINDER THAT...

The BLOOD DRAW will be held Monday, February 9th, from 10:30-3:00pm in Clare Hall Lounge. If you have not signed up and would like to, please contact either Lisa Mailoux or Paula Sgambelluri. Since the blood draw will not be as rushed as it was in the Fall, last minute drop-in donors will be accepted.

DEAR FELLOW DRIVERS

I am writing this letter in complaint of the parking situation in the back of Clare Hall. I realize that there is often trouble finding adequate parking during the day, yet I feel there is sufficient parking elsewhere on campus, so you need not trap others in their parking spaces.

I realize the agonies of not finding a space to leave your car when it's 8:29 and you have a 8:30 class, but imagine the agonies of having an important interview and not even being able to leave in your car to get there. Anyway, I'd greatly appreciate some consideration of those parking behind Clare hall.
