NO. 3 - "The unexamined life is not worth living"- Socrates Oct. 13, 1961

Question of the Month:

WHERE ARE THE STUDENTS FOR ROSARY EVERY EVENING IN THE CHAPEL AT 5:15 ?

Before the rosary was added to the Benediction service, there were 25 or 30 students present in the evenings. Now there are scarcely a dozen.

Are we too lazy to give 10 minutes extra time out of the 1,440 minutes in each 24 hours to pray to Our Lady? Who would guess that this is the month of the rosary?

ONLY 5 LEFT!

Yes, only 5 Marian car stickers left the hands of the M-Club members this week. Please buy one from a member of the M-Club today! (especially Mr. Mercier)

New "Mr. Mopper" on Campus!

Congratulations to Gene Payne, the new "Big Mopper" this year. (You'll have to go a long way to fill Mike Sifferlin's shoes, Gene.)

Faculty Highlights

We're glad to see the hedge is back in shape, thanks to Father Kahle's being back in shape.

Who are the two "pros" on the tennis courts in the afternoons, giving the tennis team (what's left of it) a rough time in doubles?

IF THE COMMUNIST PARTY CAME TO MARIAN COLLEGE everybody would join, but no one would go to the meetings.

The Carbon Editors and the students offer their prayers for the speedy recovery of Mrs. Gilbert Tutungi.

Out of the goodness of their hearts, the Carbon Editors have handed down the following advice to their contemporaries.

1.) Bring the professor newspaper clippings dealing with his subject. Demonstrate fiery interest and give him timely items to mention to the class.

If you can't find clippings dealing on his subject, bring any clippings at random. He thinks anything deals with his subject.

2.) Look Alert. Take notes eagerly. If you look at your watch, don't stare at it unbelievably and shake it.

3.) Nod frequently and murmur "how true". To you this seems exaggerated. To him, it's quite objective.

4.) All the upperclassmen insist that the way to make a hit with the professor is to laugh at his jokes. They say that you know when he tells a joke if he looks up from his notes and smiles expectantly.

5.) Another tip is "Ask for outside reading material. You don't have to read it," they add. "Just ask!"

6.) Of course, all upperclassmen agree that if you must sleep, arrange to be called by a friend at the end of the hour. It creates an unfavorable impression if the rest of the class has left and you sit there alone, dozing.

7.) "Be sure the book you read during the lecture looks like a book from the course," advise the senior students. "If you do math in psychology class and vice-versa, match the books for size and color."

8.) Another way to capture and keep a good grade, the upperclassmen say, is by asking any questions you think the professor can answer. Conversely, avoid announcing you have found the answer to a question he can't answer, and in your younger brother's second grade reader at that.

Remember...Sunday, October 22nd is the day you are to bring Mom and Dad out here to Marian's Campus for Parent's Day!

M-Club Queen Candidates

The men of the M-Club have chosen their candidates for this year's M-Club semi-formal dance to be held Nov. 3.

A girl was chosen from each class, and the four candidates are:

Senior - Sally Jo Ryan

Junior - Mary Ellen Benedetto

Freshman (including nurses) -

Noreen Hughes

The Queen will be voted upon by the M-Club and announced at the annual dance.

The basketball team is presently engaged in historical research on St. Francis of Assisi. One of the members suggested that if it could be proved St. Francis played basketball, the school might get some athletic scholarships.

The Editors have discovered a new Sophomore on campus: Johnnie Bonson. (We had noticed her and her timepieces before, but we just found out her name today.)

Attention Little Sisters!

We don't like to be cryptic, but, have you checked your "big sisters" lately?

Anatomy is a quality with which we are all endowed, but it invariably looks better on the gals.

For the alleviation of any overly great curiosity around in Freshman minds- we do not have a West Point drill field next door. That's the Park School football team issuing forth with their guttural sounds every afternoon.

Coming Schedule

We'd love to tell you, but unfortunately, someone (or ones) keeps playing hide-and-seek with the intramural football schedule in the locker room doors, and we could not get a list of the games.

COMING EVENTS

Friday the 13th doesn't scare the Latin-German Klubbers, because they are entering the social circles with their first annual "Juke Box Frolic", held in the lounge from 8:00 to 12:00. It costs only 50¢ for what promises to be a "SEHR GUT" evening!
