LETTER TO THE STUDENT BODY

WARNING!!!

"The mixed lounge will be closed"- if the present conditions of sloppiness prevail. The student body has already been warned about this and a set of rules was posted on the main bulletin board for the care of the lounge, but no noticeable improvement is evident.

Last year over $2500.00 was spent by the Administration and Student Board on new furniture in order to improve the appearance of the lounge. Unfortunately, however, the lounge looked better with the old furniture last year than it does with the new this year.

The other day the following remark by one of our students was overheard: "I sure wish everybody would quit leaving their bottles on the end tables, there's no room for me to put my feet"! This certainly doesn't strike one as a mature college attitude. As a matter of fact, it hasn't began to approach the high school level yet.

If this final appeal is ignored by the students, THE LOUNGE WILL BE CLOSED!

WIENER ROAST AND HAYRIDE

De Hart's Farm in Trafalgar, Ind. is to be the scene of the Sophomore Wiener Roast and Hayride tomorrow night at 7 o'clock P. M. All you can eat in the way of hot dogs, potato chips and refreshments are yours for $1.00 and only $1.50 per couple. This of course is to say nothing about the fantabulous hayride to follow immediately thereafter. So find yourself a gal who'll match the landscape, get yourself some tickets, and float on down to Trafalgar Sat. night. Tickets may be purchased today at the table in the front hall or at the gate.

FOOTBALL RESULTS

The scoring tempo picked up considerably this week as the three winning teams scored a total of 95 points in Marian's outdoor amphitheater. The Colts who have been trotting up to now, broke into a gallop and romped over the Bears 45-0. The Colts were led by Pat Cunningham with 12 points, who now leads the league in individual scoring with 24 points.

The Rams won their third straight game by defeating the Giants 25-19. This contest was more like a ping-pong game as the Giants scored, then the Rams, then the Giants, then the Rams etc. The Giants held a slim 19-18 lead with 6 minutes to go only to see their dreams evaporate when Steve Gantner fired a strike to Bill Byers, now second in league scoring with 21. The defensive heroics of Jim Rolles saved the day for the Rams as he intercepted a Giant pass, stopping a frantic last minute pass.

The Cards moved into second place behind the Rams with a 2-0 record as they dealt a 25-6 defeat. Don Beck threw passes to Leo Clouser, Mike Hearnden, and Dan Drew for the Cards, and John Wintz ran for the other.

Be on hand next week for the pigskin parade because it is rumored that two P.F.L. scouts will be in Marian's invisible bleachers next Sunday.

Plastic man is sponsored by Cola Flakes, the breakfast cereal that snaps, crackles and bizzs, the very same kind rock and roll singer Sides Burnsquick uses on his fabulous hair. Now back to our thrill-packed drama. We left our hero, Plastic Man, star of stage, screen, and home movies in the middle of a superhuman stretch.
