

The Carbon Salutes the Marian College Chorale and MadrigALS

A CLOSE FIT BUT THEY ALL MADE IT
 The views of this publication are those of the individual writer and do not necessarily reflect.

TO THE MASSES:

I, as a Marian College student, would like to thank you for your fine efforts here at our peaceful campus. You have accomplished one great thing, you have really deterred the villianous actions of parking violators.

After numerous parking tickets, we the college community, feel that we should receive adequate protection for ourselves and our property. It seems that when one of our cars are parked where it shouldn't be, you are right there to write us up. Or, we often discover fines for no parking stickers. But, where the HELL were you Monday night when our cars were being destroyed?

After some inquiring, the assailants must have been at Doyle between 12:30 & 1:45. Now, if it took at least five minutes per car and 8-10 cars were looted, it would be safe to say that they were in the lighted parking lot for a good half an hour! Where were you, security?

It seems that your efforts have been continous throughout my college career. Two years ago typewriters, calculators and other items were stolen. Last year Clare was being set on fire and Doyle was kept running outside for firedrills. WHERE WERE YOU?

I realize it is almost impossible to stop these fits of crimes, but at least try to be a little more alert!!!

Sincerely yours,
Robbed and Ticketed

TO THE MASSES:

What occured in the wee hours of Tuesday morning in the Doyle parking lot facing 30th Street, is of course a reflection on the insufficient protection given the students' valuable properties at Campus.----A couple of cars were seen badly smashed on their glass shutters and expensive stereo systems snapped and flicked away.

We don't think any intruder would attempt a robbery of this nature in a densely populated campus like Marian unless or otherwise the outsiders Knew about the weak defense mechanisms maintained by the College. ---- A wide open campus, "guarded" by a single person, with no proper ammunition for protection in case of an unexpected outside aggression, is nothing but a paradise to the social parasites. Whenever there is an open invitation, why not anybody come in and see whats there?---Sure. -----And this they did and found something good to take along. It's quite easy for one person to keep busy issuing parking tickets but it's not humanly possible for him to have an eagle eye on all evil eyes.

I am of the opinion that the individuals responsible for the unfortunate phenomenon at campus are not going to stop with one successful loot. They are going to string their boots again and strike at a bigger target next time. Before they do that, let the College build a high wall around campus both with bricks and security personnel and eternally cast a vigilant eye for any intruder in the future.

Name withheld.

FROM THE EDITORS:

....yet another editorial....

We are aware of the seriousness of the crime committed at Doyle Hall last Tuesday and we are of the opinion that Marian College security is not as tight as it might be.

By security, we mean, the attitude of the entire community. It is more or less taken for granted that we who live on campus are relatively safe and secure; witness the fact that there haven't been more serious and more numerous crimes on campus, from outside aggressors.

It would be financially impossible from the administration's viewpoint for the school to obtain more security gaurds. However, as residents we must be more aware of the possible dangers and remember to do our "bit" for security. The security guards must be alert and ready to respond immediately to any problem situation whether during or after the fact.

TO THE MARIAN COLLEGE COMMUNITY.....

Over the mid-term break I had the opportunity to visit with Merle Tebbe at Indiana Central University. He is doing quite well (despite a sprained ankle dur to a basketball game) in his new job as Director of Student Life at I.C.U. He helps coordinate operations and activities for I.C.U.'s six dorms. He wanted me to relay to all of his best wishes, and hopes for a successful year for Marian. Feel free to call, write, or visit Merle anytime!

Respectfully submitted,
Beth Wathen

INTRMURAL FOOTBALL

Intramural football got under way last Oct. 8 and LAGNAF stormed to the league lead with a 3-0 record. The 1977 runnersup scored lopsided victories against all three opponents. They walloped the BAD JOSE, 41-6; I TAPPA KEG, 37-6; & the newcomers, NOT READY FOR PRIME TIME PLAYERS, 46 - 0.

The defending champs, I AETA THI, appears to be ready to defend their crown with a strong 2 - 0 record. They blasted I TAPPA KEG 45 - 0 and toppled their rivals, BAD JOSE 26 - 12 in a hard fought game.

The much improved BAD JOSE struggled to a 1 - 2 record with its lone victory over the NOT READY FOR PRIME TIME PLAYERS. The veteran JOSE battled out a 24-14 victory in that contest.

SEE PETER.....

Hi there buckaroos, this is Sybil Peter, the tacky columnist with 16 separate personalities, none of which are decent people. And, -----

This is Bette, Sybil's butch side. I wanna know why I can't audition for the "Love Course" at all. I took the course twice and student-taught it at day school! So why ain't I been invited -----

Oh! This is Margo, Sybil's tacky cute side. Now I'm not as tacky or cute as the people who auditioned for the Variety Show, but at least as cute as Greg Bauer or Linda Leonard in Black Curtain's "Pippin". God knows how long that's running! Speaking of running, I've got to. So, here's-----

Dis be Ben. Aye I go to see "I Never Saw Another Butterfly" (Be that right Sybil?) When it goes on. I cheer for Nazis, but have warm spot for Polish Princesses (Skoal, P.W.!) Aye show you warm spot, and-----

Oooh! Finally! This is Sybil Peter finally back in control. What's left news-wise? Umm...Bette in "What Ever Happened to Baby Jane" friday night... Danny Kasles' production of "Hoosier Schoolmaster"... Hot Flash! (and not my first dr.) Linda Leonard leaves "Pippin" for Footlite Musical's production of "Little Night Music". Check your (or anyone's) paper for dates and times. I'd look but I think Ben is trying to get out. I'd best say "Tah!"

GOD'S GIFT TO US

We all have so many of them
We don't have to buy any
Because we possess them all in our soul
We can use our gifts to make people happy
The kind of happiness no material gift can give
We can have Christmas all the year through
By giving of ourselves as we are meant to do.

THE PHOENIX

The PHOENIX, the oldest continuous student publication of Marian College, proposes to publish three issues during the remainder of the '78 - '79 academic year.

One issue would be published this semester; two during the Spring semester. The Student Board approved funding last Tuesday evening for one issue, reserving judgement on second semester funding.

So as not to overlap, conflict or cross-purpose other campus publications, THE PHOENIX will design its format and content to be unique.

The format will be a four-page style similar in size or slightly smaller than THE PHOENIX of recent years. The content will differ in that it will not be news oriented with date-line problems, but rather will concentrate on feature or timeless material and photography.

THE PHOENIX proposes to be timely but not "timed." It proposes to explore issues and personalities in depth, using fewer stories but better developed than other publications can achieve because of their special formats.

Co-editors Katie Caress (sophomore English major) and Tony Owens (freshman English major) will head a small but select staff of writers. Membership will not be exclusive, but quality of writing will be stressed. Formal writing is a learning experience and will profit any student willing to follow the disciplines required.

Two meetings of the Publications Committee have been held within the past month to discuss the PHOENIX. To further clarify financial questions, paid advertising will be acceptable to THE PHOENIX. While not aggressively sought out, advertising opportunities are presented periodically through local firms and national accounts and could generate funds toward publication costs.

Students interested in serving on THE PHOENIX staff (writers only please) are invited to attend an organizational session at 12:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 26. Contact Katie Caress or Tony Owens for details.

HOMECOMING !(&* (oops, nevermind) 1978

Plans for Homecoming week (Nov. 5--11) are coming along. Booster Club met on Wednesday and voted to once again have the Crazy Days. This year's days will be: Hush Day, Inside/Outside Day, Grub Day, Dress-up Day, and Clash, hat, sock, and 2-shoe Day. More details about these days and the method for class scoring will be announced later.

Instead of the crazy leg contest we had last year, we are going to have a baby picture contest. Each class will submit a boy and girl from their class. Voting will be by money (small change) in a jar.

Sunday afternoon will be the Championship football game and Sunday night will be a Frosh activity of some kind. Monday will be the Gong Show at 9:30 in Piene. Tuesday will be the Little 500 bike race, Wednesday will be the Ms. Marvin U. (ready, girls?), Thursday night some "old" alumni will take on a student team in basketball, followed by a coffee house sponsored by the Sophs. Friday night student talent will shine through in the Variety Show. Saturday morning there will be a possibility our football champs will play a rough and ready alumni team, then the Parade to the basketball game. Saturday evening will be the Homecoming dinner dance, $15 a couple. More information will be available next week.

To: Marian Faculty and Students

Project 4S is a national demonstration project which will test and evaluate over a two-year period a proposed innovation in higher education and service to the aged: the campus-based service/learning center.

Regardless of form, every project should have two essential elements: tangible service on behalf of older persons; and opportunities for participating students to gain perspectives on aging as well as valuable career or life experience.

The demonstration phase of Project 4S is to begin in January, 1979, and will involve 30 students from the CUE institutions at six day activities sites and another 25 students in homebound activities. Instead of each member institution being arbitrarily assigned to a site, students will be assigned to sites on the basis of their interests.

Within the next ten days a Marian College advisory committee will be organized.

On Thursday afternoon, November 9, representatives from the National Council on Aging will conduct an orientation session for interested faculty and students here at Marian. Anyone interested and who wants additional information on Project 4S, please contact Miss Haugh in the Sociology Dept.

ANSWER TO AN INDICTMENT

You say if the shoe fits
As blithely assuming that it must pinch
That is not always so.

You liken my mind to a cement bridge
Shall I be like the weather vane
To turn and veer with every vragrant breeze ?
Shouldn't a bridge be strong and steady
so that they who walk it
May reach the otherside in safety?

And again
You would compare me to a pendulum.
Perhaps I err in that I try to hard
To span the gap of understanding
That Lies between us.
Is this bad?
Doesn't the pendulum always return
To its starting point?

You accuse me of Non-acceptance
Of something different
Tell me then in what way you are different?
The clothes you wear
Are cut on different lines
But underthem is the exact same form
Bequeathed on Adam
And, through him, on all his sons.

You say my attitude is holier than thou
Can't the warmth you say you feel for me
Persuade you to look, not at what I say or do,
But at my motives
Shall I be mute while you run lightly down the path
Straight into anoose
Nor cry a warning when
Eyes fixed on some far delight
You do not see the quicksand at your feet
Does not the wild cub nudge her cub away
From the enticing pool, of poison water?
Does no even thettimid hare turn on the fox
And risk her life
To let her young ones win to safety?

Or how could I reduce you?
If, indeed, you see yourself as sad and empty
Could it be that you looked into the mirror
That shows only on your outer shell?

Indeed I hope you pray for me.
Not for that which I'm guilty :
But that my clumsy reaching hand
Will not creata vibrations which might desroy
The tenuous balance
On the tightrope you walk.

And I have always prayed for you,
And always will.
When I have crossed the mountain crest
And am no longer in your sight,
I still will pray for you .

Need you ask why?
True love never dies!
