CARBON WELCOMES New READERS

Vol. 39 -

Jan. 24, 1975

The views in this publication are those of the individual writer and do NOT necessarily reflect those of Marian College.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The grapevine has brought us a message from that ominous body of power called the Board of Trustees. They request the Carbon be sent to the individual trustees. There are two possibilities; either they like or they don't what we're doing. At any rate, they are at least taking an interest in student affairs.

Cheers - Editors

Dear Concerned,

No, I am not an editor of the Carbon, but I am the sports writer and I am interested in your article printed in last week's issue. May I remind you that the Carbon is not school censored. As editors, Bill and Paul print everything given to them, except, of course, pornographic material. It states on the front page that "the views are those of the individual writer and not those of the school." So you were reacting to an article by a fellow student.

It is not the editors' fault that crap is printed in this paper. It is not their fault that people here don't see things as they like it, nor is it their fault that the school is run as it is. They just print everything given to them, but they do discuss every article often times having to rewrite some.

If you are so concerned, come up to the Carbon office on Thursday nights and help out. We're just as concerned as you.

Till we can understand one another----

BALLAD

One of the literary forms that holds a place in American Literature is the ballad. Ballads are very seldom written today; however, we have come across one that has been recently written. The author of this lyrical passage is anonymous. The story is about a young man who is arrested and sent to prison for growing marijuana. The subject matter of this story may anger some people, but we're not asking anyone to agree with it. Its value is that it is certainly reflective of the times.

BALLAD of Duda*

*(Sing to the tune of "Camptown Races")

Repeat verse after each refrain

Verse:

Sold my soul for a half a lid, Duda, Duda
Sold my soul for a half a lid, all the Duda day
Gonna smoke all day, Gonna smoke all night
Sold my soul for a half a lid, all the Duda day

Plant my seeds in my backyard, Duda, Duda
Plant my seeds in my backyard, All the Duda day
Gonna smoke all day, Gonna smoke all night
Plant my seeds in my backyard, all the Duda day.

Harvest my crop on the fourth of July, Duda,
Duda.
Harvest my crop on the fourth of July, all the Duda day.
Gonna smoke all day, Gonna smoke all night.
Harvest my crop on the fourth of July, all the Duda day.

Mike Amico knockin' at my door, Duda, Duda
Mike Amico knockin' at my door, all the Duda
day.
Gonna smoke all day, Gonna smoke all night.
Mike Amico knockin' at my door, all the Duda
day.

Now I'm livin' in Attica State, Duda, Duda
Now I'm livin' in Attica State, all the Duda
day.
Gonna smoke all day, Gonna smoke all night
Now I'm livin' in Attica State, all the Duda
day.

The world is in hard times these days: starvation, unemployment, inflation, drought, famine, recession. Trying to understand and find solutions to these problems can make the head spin. These problems affect our lives at Marian in a very small scale. Occasionally, we are served nearly inedible meals, or the heat in Clare Hall is turned down. Not much in the way of human sufferage.

Our secure little world is changing. It began this year when the expected amount of students didn't show. As a result, the budgets of academic departments and student organizations were cut. This would normally go unnoticed by the average student because it wasn't a fatal catastrophe. It is my opinion that this is just the beginning and Marian is in for harder times.

The economic troubles Marian is currently undergoing will become apparent next semester. It has already been decided that there will be reductions in Drama Productions, the Convocation series, Athletic, faculty traveling and the Library budget. These reductions will be felt by the entire community. Ahhh....but there is more to come.

People in the administration are beginning to fear for their jobs. Positions in offices such as Student Services, may be considered expendable. It would be a shame to lose some of these people and the functions they perform, but the budget may demand it. (Want more?...Keep reading)

Several faculty members will be eligible for tenure next semester. Tenure is a safeguard teachers receive when they sign their sixth contract for whatever institution they work for. It is insurance against firing a teacher for arbitrary reasons. Tenure is good until the teacher chooses to retire or move on to greener pastures.

The Board of Trustees may consider these people expendable and not offer to renew their contracts. The teachers not returning could be replaced by nuns at a much lower salary rate. This prospect would not only foul up the lives of the teachers, but also lower the standards of Marian. The student's education would inevitably suffer.

Most of this editorial is speculation. It is, in my opinion, a series of possibilities which could be milling through the minds of the Board of Trustees. Grim as they are, I find these possibilities very hard to ignore.

Men's Sports

Shades of Football

Well sports fans, it finally happened. The UFO team disbanded and left a problem for Commissioner Schroth. After much thought, he has decided to cancel all games that were to be played against the UFO's. No team will take a forfeit victory, instead the game will not count at all. Also any games which are scheduled to be played after UFO games will be moved up to fill the vacancy. Example: This Sunday the UFO's were to play Wazuri at 2:00 p.m. Now all games scheduled after that will be moved up. All the Marbles vs Ladies Choice which was at 3:00 is now at 2:00.

Enough Bull!

Last weeks game of the week; Apathy 44 Wazuri 38: Wazuri put its perfect record on the line against a rapidly improving Apathy team. In the end Apathy's control play was victorious. Greg Shires and Don Masten each hit 12 for the winners while Butch Washington netted 19 for Wazuri.

Ladies Choice 46 BS&T 28: Tom Schroth lead the way with 13 as Bob Mael, Mark Gatto and Ron Seibal each scored 8 as the Ladies ran away. Jeff Jordan hit 13 for BS&T.

All the Marbles 66 The Hurd 21: No contest as Stoll and Stockraham each hit 14 and Voeke 12. John Nally hit 10 for the losers.

Wells Fargo 38 Sisters 19: Wells had balanced attack as Dey hit 8, Leibel 7 and Cano 6. Joe Rea once again was high man for the Sisters with 8.

Mother Truckers 56 Mean Machine 38: In a run away which the score doesn't tell Jim Kilps was high for MTR with 15 as Noel Kurtz added 10. Lower was hot for the machine with 20 as Shielder hit 14 and Cochran 11.

Vikings 47 Perc 44: In a mild upset the Vikings played superb as newcomer Jimmy Meyers hit 12 and Greg Seamon 10. Dan Holtzhausen hit a career high 26 for the losers.

All the Marbles 80 Sisters 38: The amazing Dave Ball burned the nets for a career high of 12 pts, but it was to no avail as his Sisters fell. Dave Record matched Ball's 12 as Foley added 10. The winners were paced by Mike Heim's 26, Stockraham's 22, Baze's 14 and Terry Baker's 12.

Mother Truckers 70 White Lightni 28: Bickley hit 26 for the Truckers but he had help from team captain Eric Toney's 14. Moose was high for the losers with 8.

Wazuri 61 BS&T 52: The second close for Wazuri who pulled away in the closing minutes. Butch hit 26, brother Randy earned 18 and Vic hit 12. The losers were paced by Jeff Jordan's 24 as Nick and Lynn hit 8 each.

Women's Sports

Hello, Sports Fans--

It's been awhile since you've heard from us-our apologies are extended. We started off the second semester leaving a lot to be desired(in other words, we're behind schedule!)

So far we have 9 teams signed up for our 1975 Intramural Basketball Season which will finally get off the ground on Monday, January 27.

It should prove to be an interesting season. We haven't really done much in the way of predictions. B.S. Bombers will probably be in the running along with Schuck's Garden and the Beaver Shooters. Hopefully there will be a surprise performance by another team and bring some new faces into the spotlight. Good Luck Teams!!!
