ARMOR

ATTENTION ALL YOU HEARTY OUTDOOR PEOPLE!

This is strictly for those who enjoy a good time playing and picnicing under spring's fresh skies. The Newman Club is holding its annual picnic at Turkey Run State Park this coming Sunday. It will be a rather large affair as Butler, Indiana, Purdue, and other colleges will be participating. There will be softball teams, volley ball teams, tennis, horseback riding and all sorts of horse-play. Trophies will be awarded for the events, excluding the last one. Dinner and supper will be furnished also. All this is yours for one, thin, worn George. In other words one dollar takes care of your expenses. Dinner is at 1:30 and the events will follow. So plan to drive over in time for chow.

For those of you who really want to go, sign the list in the Perculator. This operation must be done by no later than 4:30 today. If you are shy that dirty greenback, don't panic. All is well. Just sign and pay Sister Rachel by Friday. So come one and all to the picnic.

JUST A MOMENT PLEASE

'Tis the month of May, the month of Mary, the Mother of God. This is her month and as such we should pause in our busy, busy days to set aside a short period for our particular devotion to her. This might consist of 10 minutes during the devoto recite the rosary, or a short visit to the Chapel to read the Litany of Our Blessed Mother. It might be a half hours sleep that we give up in order to attend Mass and Communion. Whatever we do let's do it each in his own way to show Mary that she is our Queen of May.

For The Voter

COME: Everyone
WHERE: To The Polls
WHEN: Friday--May 13, 10:30 a.m.
to 1:30 p.m.
WHY: To vote for your student government officers.
HOW: Intelligently
FOR WHOM: One of the nominees up for the office
WHAT ARE THE OFFICES: President,
Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, CSMC, and Sodality.

WHO CAN FILL THE JOB?

The offices of the student board are not merely honorary titles. These students are given the right to administer for the students. Parallel with these rights there are accompanying duties.

The president is responsible for executing all activities of the board, officiating at all meetings and serving as a member of any student committee. To fulfill these duties the president must have the respect of the student body. The president must be willing to sacrifice time to carry out the projects, should have the ability for leadership, and loyalty to the school.

The Vice-President must be able to substitute in the absence of the president and assist the president in all activities.

Who is your choice for these offices?

Joann Hazlewood
Ann Herber
Therese McCarthy
Judy Rahe

The duties of the secretary are to notify the students of coming events, record minutes of all meetings, and take care of all correspondence.

Who is most responsible?

Rita Frey
Sheila Mears
Herman Schrader

The treasurer is to keep a financial account of income and expenses, and be able to give a report at any time to the board

Who has the ability?

Phil Jones
Mona Miller
Harry Reith

The president of the CSMC is responsible for leading the group's activities of aiding the missions materially and spiritually through prayers for our missionaries.

Who can accomplish this need?

Maureen Feeney
Jim O'Donnell
Ray Tonetti

The Sodality directs the club in fostering devotion throughout the year to the Blessed Mother. One of the prefect's privileges is crowning the Blessed Mother at the May Crowning.

Who is worthy?

Annette Richards Margaret Winsor
Dorothy Walsh Judy Zipp

INTELLIGENCE QUIZ?

1. Will you go to the polls on Friday and cast your vote for one of the nominees?
2. Will you think seriously about the nominations and cast your vote for the one whom you consider most able of holding the position?
3. Will you remember the fact that these nominees will be the student representatives and that they will thus be the voice of the student body, attempting to foster good and efficient student government?
4. Will you inquire about the nominees and find out just what are their capabilities if you do not already know?

If you were able to answer all these questions yes, then you are an intelligent student of Marian College, and you would be recommended as a co-worker of the student board.

DIRECTIONS FOR VOTING

1. Make one choice of the candidates for president and vice-president
2. Make one choice for the other offices
3. Place your ballot in the box.
