CARBON FEATURE —

The CARBON is proud to present the 1979 Carbon Cover Baby — Miss Christine Marie Akin!

Miss Akin is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Tim Akin (Marian's resident C.P.A. and accounting prof.) born last Tuesday, Jan. 16 during the wee morning hours.

First runner-up in the Cover Contest is Master Benjamin Allen Carson. Master Carson is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Tom Carson (past marian students) born Jan. 11, 1979. Benji is not pictured as he is vacationing with his family on the West Side.

Congratulations to Christy and Benji and their proud parents. We wish you all a long, happy and healthy life.

LETTERS TO THE CARBON:.....

TO THE MASSES:

On many occasions in the past it has been necessary for ourselves, as smokers, to sit in the non-smoking section of the Caf.

This is a direct result of lack of room in the smoking section during meal times.

Although it is not our intention to blatantly ignore the rules we have "lit up" in the non-smoking area of the Caf. In trying to comply with the rules we can truthfully state that we have checked with those around us if they would mind. When there is no objection we go right ahead and smoke only to be berated by a few people who are habitual complainers.

We would like to suggest that the non-smokers sit in the designated area so we can do the same.

We are not trying to be smug but just wish that others would show us the same courtesy we try to extend to them.

A Few Smokers:
Patty Riley
Theresa Clemons
Danine Bettice

TO THE MASSES:

—or anyone else brave enough to challenge their own mental capacities to the extent of reading the following: For all of you uninformed individuals out there there happens to be a fine specimen of educational material coming your way. The annual yearbook - THE MARIAN 1979 - is a fine example of combined literature and photography in an interesting layout. For those of you looking for a good laugh there will be a picture or two of Mike Pratt.

Anyway, I was doing my usual 30th street survey and here are some of the responses I received: John Belushi said it had soul, man; Rodney Dangerfield said it was a very respectable book; Johnny Carson got a laugh out of it (Mike's picture anyway); Richard Nixon had no comment; Woody Hayes got a real kick out of it.

Which brings me to a very important point, there will be a second and final subscription drive coming up in a few weeks. So write home and tell your Mommy to send you some bucks. A measly $10.00 will entitle you to memories, photos and various literature never before witnessed by intelligent beings. For more information either contact Sr. Carol Slinger or the distinguished, temporarily Blind Business Manager (Joe Horan, ext. 341) as soon as you can.

HELLO THERE!

The holidays are over and it's snowing. We have returned to begin a new semester. Though the sun will not be shining bright throughout the winter, hope you will have a bright year.

Speaking of brightness, the dorm looks a bit brighter with all the patchwork being done in most parts of the building.

ARA has turned to the bright side after a very slipshod service during the vacation (this is not the first time). I hope they don't make that a habit.

The New Year has brought forth three new R.A.s. Congratulations to Mary, Bob and Chris. We wish you all the best.

With the departure of Co-editor Karen Davis, the CARBON is once again out on a search for a replacement. I hear a couple of students have come forward to shoulder the responsibility with Danine. Hopefully one will be selected after the Student Board meeting next Tuesday night. It's indeed encouraging to find students getting interested in student affairs. Keep it up!

Now, looking at the Theater Dept. They are all set to go ahead with the rehearsals for that big musical production "Man of La Mancha". The cast will be directed by Mr. Edgecomb. Best of Luck.

A REFLECTIVE THOUGHT FOR THE RECEIVERS OF LAUGHTER

There once was a young man, who, during his brief life tried to spread happiness and joy. So long as he could give happiness, dispense joy and make people smile he felt needed.

Until one day a great sadness came over him. The dispensing of joy and making of laughter suddenly held new meaning for him. Rather than giving him pleasure, it became his reason to live.

Everyone enjoyed his laughter- everyone but him. Everyone thrilled at his joy- but he was not joyous. He didn't want laughter he only sought joy. The joy that comes from being loved.

His crying and pleading for love fell on deaf ears. Ears deafened by their own laughter. He had taught others to truly laugh. He saw their laughing as the end to his reason. for life. He never heard the words "I love you." nor believed they would ever be spoken to him.

So one spring afternoon—like one in which he used to take joy—he shed a tear.

And when his life was quenched at the end of a rope—the very sun in the sky shed a tear for a world that had learned how to laugh—but not how to care.

Registration consists of filing a credentials packet, resume and college transcripts with the Placement Office. In addition to interviewing on campus registrants will receive the weekly job listings bulletin starting in February.

Organizations recruiting on campus during the month of January include:

Burroughs Corporation	Jan. 25th	All Majors
Social Security Adm.	Jan. 31st	Business, Math and Accounting Majors

A CALL FOR HELP

Several students in the English Language Program are in need of a person who could donate one hour a week to have a conversation with a foreign student so as to improve the use of English. If you are interested, please put your name and times available on the desk in the Ministry Center. Thank you.

SUMMER JOBS! SUMMER JOBS! SUMMER JOBS!

Students interested in working this summer are urged to stop by the Placement Office, Room 108 Marian Hall. Numerous summer employment opportunities have been listed through the Office by employers. Types of positions include jobs with the federal government, summer camps (counselors, cooks, nurses, specialists, etc.), jobs with the City of Indianapolis, entertainment openings (singers, dancers, etc.) and opportunities to travel abroad.

Applications and information are available in the Placement Office. Hurry, as some positions have deadlines for application.

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY:

Until further notice, I.D. Cards must be shown at every Meal in the Caf.

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

On Thursday, February 8, Ms. Michele Goodrich will be on campus to interview students for summer camp positions at CYO Camps Rancho Framasa and Christina. Counselors as specialists (waterfront, nursing, etc.) are needed to staff these camps located in Brown County. Interviews are open to all students, freshman through senior. Interested students should stop by the Placement and Career Advising office and pick up an application form. Interviews will be by appointment only. These appointments can be scheduled through the Placement Office. All students wishing to interview must sign-up by Tuesday, February 6th.

ABSTRACTS FROM THE MINUTES OF THE STUDENT AFFAIRS COMMITTEE MEETING: DEC. 7, 1978

- The proposal for interhall visitation during vacation periods has not yet been completed. It should be available in January.
- Maintenance personnel in Doyle Hall are now under the direct supervision of the Residence Hall Director.
- Mr. Wayne Brewer, a representative of ARA, offered the following comments to the Food Service Committee:
 - 1) At this time there is not a qualified baker on the food service staff. It is hoped that the former baker will return next fall.
 - 2) The current menus served on campus are reviewed by several college personnel.
 - 3) The managers are in the dining room at meal time and complaints should be reported to them when they occur.
 - 4) At certain times menus are changed for everyone.
 - 5) In a 21 day cycle they try not to serve any item more than twice.
 - 6) He will investigate the suggestion of reallocating money spent on decorations for special events to direct food costs.
- Dr. Lord is the College's physician.

Hello Keith Chavis!
Hello niner!
Are Bears catholic?
What happened to your hand Phil?

Three youngmen graduated together from seminary and were ordained in the Catholic church. They were Father O'Flaherty, Father Ryan, and Father Secola. Years later, it was Monsignor O'Flaherty, Monsignor Ryan, and Father Secola. Father Secola was upset but didn't say anything. After another ten years, it was Bishop O'Flaherty, Bishop Ryan and still Father Secola. Fifteen years later it became Cardinal O'Flaherty, Cardinal Ryan, but still Father Secola. Father Secola couldn't stand it any longer. He went to the head cardinal and complained. "I graduated with those two men, worked hard all my life, and never got a promotion. I think I have a right to know why." The cardinal replied, Remember that the Catholic, after you have become a cardinal and the top job opens in Rome, anything could happen. We don't think it would be right for Catholics all over the world to refer to you as Pope Secola." — Readers Digest
