As you can see the activity list still seems to be somewhat limited due to..., however I am sure that after this period of rest and relaxation, and now that spring has arrived much more in the social lines will be "budding" up. So much so that from here on in your calendar for events will be so full that expert scheduling will be a must till the end of May if you want to develop socially as well as intellectually, which by the way, is the aim of this College. Do yourself and the college a big favor - get involved. If what you want isn't offered in the wide scope of activities - initiate it - (cont. p.3)

LETTER TO THE EDITORS:

Dear Students:

The Indiana legislature now in session is considering a bill enacted by Congress and other state legislatures to reduce the penalty for possession of marijuana from a felony to a misdemeanor.

The only way of influencing this decision is to write a personal letter to an Indiana Congressman expressing your views. If you wish to write, hand-written letters are most effective. Below are some points you may wish to include if you support this move:

1. The U.S. Congress, in legislating for the District of Columbia, saw fit to lower the penalty fine from a felony to a misdemeanor.
2. Several states have recognized that the penalty is not proportionate to the offense and have followed the example of Congress.
3. Documents from the government printing office have stated that marijuana is not really in the same classification as other narcotics.
4. Although the fact that a law is violated often does not legalize it, 70% of today's youth who have tried marijuana are guilty of a crime listed in the same category as a murder.
5. Marijuana in this state is readily available; the pusher isn't as prevalent here. However, for those concerned about stopping the pusher, the previous changes in laws have not protected the pusher, just the individual possessor.

You may want to incorporate part or all of the above as reasons or add one of your own.

Letters may be addressed to the following congressman:

Lt. Gov., President of the Senate, Richard E. Folz

President Pro-Tem., Allen B. Bloom (R)

Majority Caucus Chairman, Leslie Duvall (R)

Minority Caucus Chairman, William C. Christy (D)

Majority Floor Leader, Richard A. Boehning (R)

Speaker of the House, Otis R. Bowen

Majority Caucus Chairman, Hermit O. Burrous (R)

The address for these Congressmen is:

301 State House

Indianapolis, Indiana 46204

ON THE NATURE OF DEAN BRAMES:

I believe that the Marian College Community owes Col. Roy Pille an "apology" and owes itself a severe scolding. We should apologize to Mr. Pille for our making campus situations so difficult last year that he resigned and we should scold ourselves for rejoicing when this jive Dean Brames took over Student Services!

It seems that the nature of this "jive" is founded on a philosophy which presupposes that growth and progress will upset the stagnant quality of HIS campus. And this is a correct presumption for there is nothing that is needed more here than for us to be upset by growth and progress. By his recent proclamation forbidding "outside agitation", Dean Brames has finally manifested what many of us have thought for seven months -- he is the second most negative and dangerous (Dr. Guzzetta is first) object confronting this community!! -- R. SPORTS

Last Saturday night, March 27, 1971, saw some real action in the sport of Professional Wrestling at the Indianapolis Coliseum. Here are the results of the matches:

"Pretty Boy" Bobby Heenan defeated "Fearless" Freddy Rogers in a fast moving and skillful match. Tommy "Mr. Indiana" Lynch annihilated Rodeo Jones. Angelo "Neckbreaker" Poffo defeated Nicoli Volkoff "The Hated Russian" in a fairly rough battle. Doctor "Big" Bill Miller easily defeated Pancho (Chico) Garcia by merely sitting on top of him.

Plus the first main event of the evening. Ernie "The Cat" Ladd pulverized County Baron von Raschke and easily won the first fall. However, the mighty Baron roared back into the second fall by pinning Ladd. Finally, in the third fall, Raschke emerged victorious because "Pretty Boy" Bobby Heenan, sitting at ringside, grabbed a chair and struck Ladd in right thigh and in the right knee while he was outside of the ring. Because Heenan had attacked his weakest parts, Ladd was unable to get back inside the ring before the referee counted to twenty. This maneuver enabled Raschke to retain the W.W.A. World Heavyweight Wrestling Championship Belt.

Plus the second main event of the evening. Yukon Moose Cholak and Wilbur Snyder overran the Fabulous Kangaroos - Al Costello and Don Kent in the first fall. However, the Kangaroos regrouped all their forces and counter-attacked with such fierce determination that they obliterated Cholak and Snyder to win the second fall. As the wrestlers were getting ready for the third and decisive fall, Doctor "Big" Bill Miller approached the ring announcer and asked permission to make an announcement. Permission was granted. Miller got into the ring and issued a challenge to Count Baron von Raschke for the belt. There was a mixed reaction of cheers and jeers from the fans. Miller acted surprised and tried to shake hands with all of the wrestlers in the ring but they all refused and the Kangaroos tried to chase him out of the ring. As Miller was leaving the ring, "Crybaby" George Cannon, the manager of the Kanagaros, approached Miller with the intention of chasing him with his boomerang. To the chagrin of Cannon and to the amazement of the fans, Miller advanced on Cannon, grabbed the boomerang, and began to hit Cannon with his own weapon. Cannon was so shocked that all he could do was call for help. Don Kent tried to help him but he was driven back by Miller. Suddenly the bell rang, signalling the start of the third round. Snyder attacked Costello and had him trapped in one corner while Cholak battled Kent. Cholak picked up Kent, smashed him to the mat with a tremendous body slam, and while Kent lay on the mat stunned Cholak jumped right on top of him, practically flattening him. The referee counted three and declared Cholak winner of the pin. He then presented Cholak and Snyder the belts and declared them the winners of the fall and the match. Meanwhile, Miller was still battling Cannon. When he saw the referee present the belts to Cholak and Snyder, he gave Cannon one final punch and ran out of the ring and back to the locker rooms. When Cannon finally recovered his senses and saw who had won the match, he jumped right over the top rope, practically breaking his neck while doing so, and ran over to the announcer. He grabbed the microphone and yelled, "Wait a minute. What the hell is going on? Wait a minute." However, his frantic cries were soon drowned out by the cheers of the fans as they applauded the new W.W.A. World Heavyweight Wrestling Tag-Team Champions, Yukon Moose Cholak and Wilbur Snyder.

MILES GLORIOSUS or WHAT EVERY SOLDIER KNOWS

Everybody knows that every institution has its weak points...even the army. Such a weak point is Major Bullshot Gorgeous of the Roman legions. What a man! True blue, yellow bellied and red necked. Colorful, huhn? And FUNNEEEEEEE/? Well that remains to be seen. In fact it remains to be seen tonight, tomorrow and tomorrow. So creep in your petty pace over to the cinder block hall of the theatrical wonders where something can happen and usually does.

P.S. This play contains a number of dirty words and which, taken out of context, will undoubtedly provide some with an enjoyable evening of perspiration and heavy breathing.

by the way:

It would seem that a more proper function (if any functions to it pertain) of Student Services would be in the area of controlling the drug situation recently made manifest here at Marian College. The vision of gun-toting junkies parading through Doyle Hall while Student Services is up-tight over people coming together to talk about Peace just doesn't make it.

NINE MONTHS LATER...

"Rosemary's Baby is finally crawling out of the S.S. womb. A guardian angel (or Satan's servant) has apparently descended/ascended and inspired Student Services to allow Marian College to pursue an educational process.

The controversial film will be shown this Tuesday evening at 8:00 in the Marian Hall Auditorium. Student Services has dictated that the film must not be advertised off-campus and that only Marian people will be admitted. ID cards must be shown at the door.

While we can certainly appreciate the magnanimity of this move, the question arises as in what way this policy will affect future campus activities. A most important issue here is the role that Marian College is playing in regard to service to the community. Are the educational opportunities of Marian College to be closed to the Indianapolis community?

Realistically speaking, the College cannot expect to maintain a sizable off-campus audience for any of its programs if a double standard exists in admittance requirements. If someone is refused admission to "Rosemary's Baby", they are not likely to return to this campus to watch any other film, view a play, or attend a lecture series.

In this way, the College is doing an obvious disservice to the community. And, of course, the College is turning away potential supporting revenue that is badly needed for the programs.

Whether it be a People's Peace Treaty Conference or a film, the arguments for closing student sponsored events to non-campus people are all absurd. We can only conclude that if these people from the "real world" can find out there is a Marian College, and then proceed to find their way out here, surely they have the intelligence and intestinal fortitude to handle anything they may here encounter.
