The views in this publication are those of the individual writer and do not necessarily reflect those of Marian College.

Recent developments would seem to indicate that Marian College is "blessed" with a few real anal cavaties. It appears there is a rash of incidents occurring in which people are running into someone else's car and neglecting to acknowledge the fact that they have done so. These people surely constitute the lowest forms of life on the planet.

I know of at least four victims of such incidents (including myself) within the past few days, none of whom are particularly happy. How is it that people can damage another person's property and feel no obligation to rectify the problem their own carelessness and stupidity created? I guess some people are just real S.O.B.'s.

There is really no point in harping on this subject since these people are probably too ignorant to see the error of their ways. Should their identities be discovered, however, the males should be castrated and the females should have their heads rectally ingested into their systems if that isn't where it is already.

Guest Editorial

As you all know, we have begun a new era with the coming of a new President. This man, Jim Carter, promises unemployment decrease, tax reduction, and wants to know the people.

The idea of tax reduction has no bearing on this article. However, unemployment and Carter's chance to know the people is related to the article.

Recently over Christmas vacation, I observed some Southern Indiana people who love to square dance. So, I thought, if Jimmy wants to know the people why not have a square dance at the Pentagon. At the pentagon the President could be safe from assassins. Therefore, in his own homeground he could know and meet the people.

Also at this dance he could charge $1.00 admission. This $10,000.00 could then be used to supply funds for his government works program. In essence, the people would support themselves while having a good time.

For example, many cities are known for specific events that occur. Las Vegas, therefore, could be used for a gambling convention in which the gamblers could use 10% of their winnings to support what I call CCC programs. Again the people could donate $1.00 for tickets plus a chance to meet Mr. Carter.

Another example, at Indy during 500 season, $1.00 could be collected for the CCC programs, again the idea of people supporting people is evident.

To conclude, I want to say that if this idea seems good to you, then let me know and I will write up a petition, get signatures and send it to Mr. Carter.

THE STUD & THE MARE: A PARABLE

There once lived a Stud and a Mare who were very much in love. They lived and loved in blissful harmony till one day the Mare approached the Stud and said: "Our relationship is much too physical. There must be more to love than simply the physical act of making love. From now on, let's no longer make love." "Alright," replied the Stud, "I understand your feelings. But kissing is much too physical. There must be more to love than that. From now on, let's no longer kiss."

Well, the Mare was very happy that the Stud respected her enough to honor her wishes, and in response to his statement said, "oh, I do so agree with you. But touching is much too physical, and there must be more to love than that. From now on, lets no longer touch."

The Stud had listened very intently to the Mare and replied, "Seeing you is far too physical for me, and there must be more to love than that. From now on, let's no longer see each other."

So the Mare and the Stud went there separate ways never to see each other again. But they loved one another forever.

Cruex Corner

After six complete games, barring a bye, Omar's Tentmakers seems to be the strongest team, showing their prowess by an unblemished record (7-0). In second place, with 12 more games to go IAT led by B. Holzhausen is another contender that will be hard to beat. Both Omar's and IAT seem to be looking for the title game.

Contention for the 3 and 4 spots is highly competitive. Wazuri and Wild Cherry are battling for these spots and a chance to get into the playoffs. Both have a 3-2 record.

Despite the poorer showings of the other 5 teams, each team is still close enough to overtake Wazuri or Wild Cherry.

Debris, after many forfeits, and many thousands of beers or other dubious materials, have decided to drop out of the league. So every team will be given a win by forfeit. Because of their departure from the league. There will be a captains meeting Tuesday, Jan. 25 at 8:30 in room 217. It is important, so please attend.

Game of the Week: Jan. 23 IAT v. Wazuri
Standings as of Jan. 16:

Omar's Tentmakers	6-0
IAT	5-1
Wazuri	3-2
Wild Cherry	3-2
Bad Joses	2-3
Geritol Generation	2-3
Greasy Fingers	2-3
Mordacious Marbles	2-4
