HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO "ANNIE" & "WINKIE"!! — CARBON

We the people of Marian College on this day of November 11, 1977, do hereby declare a new era of spirit from the liberation of apathy. The commencement of this era will take place Sunday, November 13, 1977. In order to declare a more perfect week, we order everyone to PARTICIPATE in activities. A mandate is issued for ALL people to attend the following events. Sunday, the action is "kicked off" with the battle of the pigskin as I E T A T H I meets head on with LAGNAF on the field of battle behind the convent at 1:00 p.m. As forces regroup to form their battle plans, the royal court will convene and crown a queen from amongst their members. The next great battle will occur at 3 o'clock in the Clare Hall gymnasium when the veteran Knights do battle with the junior Knights in round-ball competition. With the setting sun, comes an end in the competitive action in time to relax and let loose at the Freshman sponsored 50's dance at 8:00 p.m. in the Intramural dance hall. To display the glory of ALL Knights, Monday is decreed as dress-up day, and everyone will do that - dress up. In typical knightly fashion, all will gather in the Peine Arena at 9:30 p.m. to be entertained by minstrels, troubadours, comedians, and Chuck Philpot for the Gong Show. Imaginations will be tested Tuesday as crazy hats and socks will be in vogue for the day. On this day, crowds shall assemble on the Clare Hall Circle at high noon to raise voices in support of those challenging young patriots of their class riding in the Little 500. The day will culminate in splendid beauty as we assemble in the Third Annual Miss Marvin U. School loyalty will be displayed by all clad in Marian's school colors of gold & blue on Wednesday. Pre-battle preparation will involve the formation of ALL individuals in Clare gymnasium at 7 sharp as spirits are aroused and voices raised in a pep session. This session will support the Varsity Knights as they uphold the honor of the school when they battle and conquer Marion. This spirit will reign not only outside but also inside and thus, on Thursday, clothes will be worn inside-out. Thursday evening, the new generation Knights will show what can't be learned in books as they take on our illustrious educators in the battle of the brawn. Again, the imaginations will be allowed to run free on Friday when all fads of dress are broken and a new one evoked. This new style will include conglomerations of stripes, plaids, polka-dots, flowers, etc. which will be the in vogue of the day. Friday at 8:00 p.m. in the Marian Auditorium, you will be able to sit back and relax as you are entertained by local talent from the Marian College community at the Annual Variety Show. A climax will be reached at 2:00 Sunday in Ritter High School's gymnasium when again voices will be raised in support of the fighting Varsity Knights as they battle with Oakland City. At half-time, music will fill the hearts of the people as our own haughty Drum & Bugle Corps will once again provide an outstanding performance. As evening falls, Shiloh Spirit will "light up your life" as both alumni and students gather at LaScalla's to enjoy an evening filled with wine, dance and song. As ordered by God, Sunday will be a day of rest and recuperation for all highlighted by the Variety Show again at 8:00 p.m. in Marian's Auditorium.

God created the world in seven days, but the seven days of Homecoming Week created by man took much toil, labor, headaches, thought, and preparation throughout the past year. This is YOUR Homecoming Week and your cooperation and success is needed to make it a success. This attitude of enthusiasm and participation shall not end here but shall be carried out henceforth through the years.

TO THE MARIAN COLLEGE COMMUNITY:

This Saturday and Sunday is Parent's Weekend and a wide variety of activities are planned for both students and parents. Art talent from local area high schools will be on display all day Saturday and Sunday in the library. Golden Knights will provide campus tours from 12:30-2:30 Saturday afternoon and tours of Allison Mansion from 2-4 on Sunday. Any students wanting to, may participate in the parent-student volleyball games from 1-3 p.m. Saturday in the Clare Hall gym. At three o'clock the Home Ec Club is sponsoring a style show in the Library auditorium. A special dinner is planned Saturday night followed by Mass. From 8-11 p.m. the band Nite Shift will be playing in Allison Mansion. The four musicians band is a night club band and should provide a wide variety of music. Casual but nice dress is suitable for the dance. Sunday the football game begins at one o'clock — not two — as the letter to the parent's states. The letters were sent before the game time was changed. If your parents are coming, you may want to inform them of this change. An alumni-J.V. basketball game is scheduled for 3:00 p.m. in the Clare Hall gym. All students are invited to attend any activities. Thanks.

A CAMPUS REVIEW 77 ...

Campus Review 77 will climax homecoming week at Marian College. The fast paced musical review is being produced by the theatre department and will be performed for the public Friday and Sunday, November 18 & 20 as its second major production of the 77-78 season.

Contemporary production numbers using music from "Star Wars" and "Rocky" highlight a variety of musical acts. "The Not Ready for Anytime Players", a group of 20 students and faculty members under the direction of Associate Professor of Theatre, Donald Johnson, will present a number of satirical sketches playing on scenes from campus life.

In one sketch, "MacBeth A La Mode", Dennis Kelly, Professor of Philosophy, stars as MacBeth in a satire set to the music of Gilbert and Sullivan.

Other comedy scenes feature faculty members William Woodman, Dean of Student Services; Dr. Mary Haugh, Professor of Sociology; James Goebel, Assistant professor of English; Sister Olga Wittekind, O.S.F., and Dr. Drew Appleby, Assistant Professors of Psychology; and Sister Francesca Thompson, O.S.F., Associate Professor of Theatre and Speech.

COLLEGE WORK—STUDY INFORMATION

Students and Faculty should be aware of the following information relative to the College Work—Study program.

- 1.Supervisors have been provided with monthly lists indicating the number of hours remaining for a student to work to earn his/her first semester Work—Study Award. Any hours not worked first semester will be lost. They cannot be made up second semester! Students should, therefore, check with their supervisors as to their remaining number of hours.
2. Students will be paid at a higher hourly rate beginning second semester. This is the result of the new minimum wage which will take effect on January 1, 1978. Since the amount a student may earn second semester will be unchanged, the number of hours a student will be required to work to earn his/her College Work—Study award for the second semester will be reduced.

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Financial Aids Office.

SEE PETER REPORTS....

Good buddy, this is yer pal, See Bee Peter talkin' atcher and. Oh well, this is See Peter with the latest in the wonderful world of glamour. And, speaking of glamour, who's that cute closet superhero with the effeminate costume, huh? He'll be at the Variety Show. Shakespeare is now revolving in his grave like an old 78 of "Traviata" (hear that, you Brodie fans?) The Variety Show is going to be different from past years. There's going to be some talent on stage. Y'all be sure to come. I'm sure you know the dates (Nov. 18th and 20th.)

Bette and I were conferring on our pet project: tackiness. (Doctor, it isn't our fault, we come from broken hames.) I say that sheep and pigeons are not tacky, and Bette says they are. Her husband, the polar bear, did not comment. He had his mouth full of Margo at the time. Luckily, we got most of her before she was digested, though her nose will never be the same. We're off to the plastic surgeon's. Bye y'all.

SUSAN C' REPEATS

For those of you who read the See Peter reports column, perhaps some explaining is necessary. For those of you who know See Peter, even more explaining is needed. It is traditional for all weiters to be frustrated and see Peter is no exception. Out of the kindness of their understanding hearts, the DTP have allowed Pete to act (not function) just "act" as theatre critic and good will ambassador to lower Slobotky. These reports he writes concerning theatre productions should be taken with a grain of salt and a large ax. No critic (or human being for that matter) should have the power to influence the public's desire to attend or not attend a theatre production. Pete DOES boost the attendance, not by his reports, but by calling role and awarding stars. SO, as you read his reports, please remember that See Peter is a fictional person much like the tooth fairy, the golden pump, or J.S. Bach; to be believed in ONLY if Santa Claus has proven to be a disappointment. Just humor his articles, enjoy them, heed them, but do not try to understand them. Thanks.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN!

In general, the women's intramural volleyball season has been run better this year than in recent years, and that is to be commended. However, the tournament play which began Wednesday night may have left something to be desired. This letter is not meant to be a bitching session, but rather an attempt to voice what we feel are some valid comments. Perhaps they will serve to improve the system in the future, if no recompense can be made at this point.

To begin with, our match was at least 20 minutes late in starting, due to the fact that the teams playing before us needed a third game to finish their match and thus went over the time allotted per match. (Perhaps more time per match is needed.) Our team won the toss and chose first serve. After we lost the first game, the opposing side began service of the second game. This second game was won by us - an unexpected victory, to say the least!

Before beginning the third game, we were told by Coach Evenbeck that this deciding game would be limited to 10 minutes. After an attempt to discover why the time limit was imposed, we were told by another official that the Coach needed to get home. Being of the belief that tournament games should not be time limited, several of our team members approached the Coach with this thought and were told only that the game would be limited to 10 minutes.

The opposing team also began service of the third game, and we lost, 15-4, in less than 10 minutes. You may say this shows that the time limit had no effect on the game's outcome. We would say it did, and that there were further questionable occurrences in the match.

First of all, the teams before us obviously took longer than the allotted time such that our games were delayed, yet they were not required to play under time limits. For some reason, we were not granted the same privilege, because we were scheduled later. This would seem to show a difference in treatment. There was another match scheduled after ours, on the other court, which was not timed. As stated before, it is our conviction that tournament games should not be subject to time limits, or if they are, all games should be timed for all teams, and prior notification of such a practice should be given. The morale of our team was affected by knowing the deciding game was limited, and produced anxiety above the level which proves helpful to performance.

The rules that team captains were given stated that 2 minutes were to be allotted between games. Our roster was turned in to the ref in that time, and the cause for the greater delay between games that was experienced was not known to us. However, if time was at a premium, then one wonders why it was wasted.

To get to the point of the third game itself, more discrepancies between the 1977 Intramural Rules and actual occurrences are found. It was said above that the opposing team started the service for the third game. The rules, however, state that, "For all subsequent games of that match, the team which received first in the previous game will serve first in the following game." You will notice that we served the first game, while they served both the second and the third. This is clearly inconsistent with the above stated rule. Although in varsity games a toss is used to determine the service of a third game, no such new tournament rules to that effect were given to the captains before tournament play.

Still another rule states that "When a third game is played, teams are to change sides when one team has scored 8 points or when 5 minutes of running time have elapsed, whichever occurs first." There was no change of sides in this third game and we were not notified of the elapsed 5-minute period of play.

No complaint should be made without simultaneous suggestion for improvement. Granted, intramural sports are played for enjoyment, yet some competitive spirit is healthy for the game, and the desire for a fair chance to win or lose, as the case may be, seems only natural. In this instance, it seems that a rematch or replay of the game in question might be appropriate. However, if this is not possible without creating a spirit of antagonism in the intramural system, we would rather forego compensation to prevent any feelings of animosity. We can only suggest that in future tournament play, more care is taken to insure equal treatment of all competitors. Again, the season has been generally good and the organizers are to be thanked for that.

Sincerely,
G.B.U. Bums

ATTENTION RON SCHMOLL & THE M. C. MASSES

The last few weeks have seen several complaints regarding the "maintenance" of Clare Hall, not the least of which have been the unsightliness of the snack kitchen, the lack of hot shower water, and the problem of roaches in the rooms. Last Thursday and Friday (11/3 & 11/4), an attempt was made to rid the dorm of roaches by spraying the rooms. Signs were posted to that effect and instructed that everyone move all furniture to the center of the room at least one foot from the baseboards. On Thursday, when the spraying was to be done, there developed a problem with the equipment and spraying was stopped that day to be resumed on Friday. Many girls left their furniture in disarray in anticipation of the Friday spraying. The furniture was moved back Friday afternoon on the assumption that the rooms had been sprayed, and on this writer's assurance that the rooms on 3-west had been sprayed.

On Monday morning, at 9:30, with no warning from anyone, the rooms on 3-west were sprayed for bugs. My roommate was roused out of bed and the rooms along the hall were sprayed with the furniture against the walls! The maintenance man assured me that he would just spray "around the furniture".

The implications of that statement could be one of two things: (1) Either the furniture was moved around unnecessarily (and at great inconvenience!) OR (2) that the rooms on 3-west were not adequately or properly sprayed.

In either case, the spraying episode (fiasco?) was an example of poor communication and complete lack of regard for the student and her comfort in the dorm.

Must Clare Hall maintenance be reminded that we are paying to live in the dorm? ? And shouldn't we expect a lot more efficient handling of maintenance requests and above all, much more consideration than has been evident in the past.

I had an ideal. Whoops
Excuse me,
I mean an idea ( I sit corrected )
At the Waffle House
After about 25 cups of coffee
From the almighty bottemless pot.
( for only 31 cents at that )
But everytime
I tried to put it to words on my coffee-stained napkin
My pen absolutely refused to function.
I think It had too much to drink.
Oh well — no biggie
Happens to the best of us
( Right A. Green Springs Chumley? )
“ Yeah ” (actual reply )
I didn't feel a bit sorry for it though
It was it's own damn fault
( A genuine derelict )
Actually I was feeling
Sorry mostly for myself
Just as I was on the verge
Of becoming an inspired writer
I was foiled by an intoxicated pen
How utterly disgusting.

Oh, by the way —
Did I ever tell you about
My zebra farm in Australia?
Things were going along rather smooth
Until every single one
Of the poor, unfortunate beasts
Passed on to another world.
Don't really know
If it was from excessive alcoholism
Or an overdose of brussel sprouts.
But it sure was a bite in the ass
OUCH!!
And some folks think THEY have it rough.

I won't even go in the part
About my brown-eyed woman
Leaving me for a blue-eyed man
Or:
My blue-eyed woman leaving me
For a brown-eyed man
Or:
My green-eyed woman leaving me
For a green-eyed woman
( Did I say that? )
Women just puzzle me to no end sometimes Wonder if there's any Albino sweethearts running loose?
Sometimes I just get this awesome
Case of the SADZIES ( I have a patent on it )
Whenever I think about it all
Cry
Sob
Choke
( If you'll excuse me for just a minute )
WEEP lament
Okay, I think I'm through now.

So, Dear CARBON readers
The next time
You get those bullfrog blues
Of a bad case of MOLLYGRUBS ( another patent )
Ask yourself a few questions
Such as:
Did your best friend ever
Deliberately hide an entire loaf
Of zukini bread
Just because they knew
It was one of your favorite yummys?
Or:
Did anyone ever try
To feed you a cheese and cricket omelette
When they know
You can't STAND cheese?
( It's happened to me )
But overall, Life's not really
All that bad
Right??
“Right” (another actual reply )

Bullshit to that!
Incidentally, if anyone
Is offended by my minor profanities
I'm not sorry at all.
Welllllll (obviously drawn out to signify wishy-washyism)
Maybe I am just a WEE bit
Ashamed of myself
( I'm sorry Holden, but you know how private schools affect you )

CHUCKLE
CHUCKLE
Buffaw even
So, now that I've spilt my guts to you
Or is that Spilled my guts?
Help Sister Rosemary
I must've mist that lesson
Anyway, now that I've
Laid my tails of woe on the line,
Would someone hand me a Weidemann
Hooray Hooray
Or possibly an Inky Pinky
Chew Chew

THE END

The CHICAGO TRIBUNE, The LAWRENCEBURG PRESS,
etc...,etc... Thank you. Luv to all.

DEAR ABBY,

Where have I failed? I feel I'm a reasonably attractive female, 19 years of age, fairly intelligent and with few major hang-ups — excepting a well-based fear of large cockroaches.
Yet here it is, another Friday night and here I sit alone in my room. What is the PROBLEM ??? Why is it that the make members of Marian College seem to be allergic to me ? And oddly enough, it is not only me. Other girls seem to be afflicted with the same problem. Our Friday night sewing circles seem to be growing by leaps and bounds. My distress mounts as I see by the calendar that homecoming is just one short week away. Is it too much to hope for a complete change of attitude in our masculine counterpart ?

I'll admit that dances, movies, etc. don't come cheap, but life is short and I enjoy long walks, bicycle rides and watching T.V., too.

I'm not asking for miracles — just a few laughs, a couple of good times. SO... men of Marian sit up and take note. The college female is not dead, she's just ALONE IN HER ROOM!

ALONE IN HER ROOM

JUST A NOTE.....

Phrasing this passage will be difficult
It concerns a tune I heard
The melody remains in my mind
I can even feel the beat
Or is that my heart ?
Call it accidental, I do
I expected a tenor
But never figured a bass
U used to enjoy solos
Now I love duets
Two's company but three's a triad
(Let's save the fifth for celebrations)
I am usually off key
I wish I could measure up
But dissonance gives music life
Or gives life music ?
Your melody lacks just the final chord
I hope we can resolve it
The suspension is killing me.

Last Sunday the JEWS bombed the BAD JOSES and gained a spot in the play-offs. Bobby Meyers threw for numerous touchdowns and ran some more as they went on to defeat the JOSES 56-14. The JOSES had the same trouble all year (attitudes, manpower, hustle etc...). The RAIDERS ended their season with a forfeit loss to the GODS. (No big surprise) In the battle of the undefeated, I AETA THI led LAGNAF to their first defeat of the season. THI scored first with a Zapp to Zidron pass to make it 8-0. LAGNAF came back and became the first team to score upon THI and tied at 8-0. Lagnaf had a brief moment of happiness when they went ahead 18-16. This was only brief as Zapp began to connect. Few minutes into the second half and LAGNAF was behind 20. THI's rush shut off KISSEYFACE (Smutty, Mastro, Simmons). Jim Fohl and Ron Juan each scored for LAGNAF but this was far from enough! THI solved LAGNAF's defense and went on to annihilate LAGNAF 54-16. Starling had a safety so there was some defense present but only in spurts, THI, by winning, played the fourth play-off team which was the JEWS. THI was tied at 8-8 but that was to be the last time. After that bomb of Meyers to Meyers to tie it, THI took control. THI behind some fine catches by Berringer and Zidron and Cochran, THI retaliated after the tie and went on to win 58-8. This win sends THI to the Championship Sunday. LAGNAF and the GODS battled last night to see who will play THI in the championship. At or should we say that, was a battle alright, but LAGNAF proved to be superior. KISSYFACE to Wildman was too much and LAGNAF's defense was superior in the second half as they won 24-14. Playing under a snowstorm seemed to help LAGNAF and neutralize Mr. Doherty's throwing arm. LAGNAF moves on to play I AETA THI in the "Intramural Bowl" Sunday at 1:00. Here's how they are matched up: Zapp-Kissyface, Kinnaman-Zidron, Wildman-Berringer, Brochin-Simmons, Smutty-Greenlee, Fox-Cochran, Mill-Mastro, Jim Fohl-Carson, Nick Fohl-Boone, Starling-Doolan, Tree-McLann. You match'em up! Wildman's wonderful pick! On a day like Thursday (snow blizzard) LAGNAF will upset THI. Zapp's arm neutralized, Zidron's moves slowed, THI's physicalness retarded. Game is close, LAGNAF wins 16-8. 2) On a normal condition day (cold) THI wins by 20. Final score 32-12. The Championship starts at 1:00 p.m.. Hope to see you there!!!! This starts Homecoming week so let's begin with a huge success and a big crowd. Girls, (Women-ed.) come observe these Men (boys-ok, we'll compromise males! -ed.) of the campus!!!!!! Congratulations to all the other teams who participated. You tried!! Bye...

WOMEN'S IM VOLLEYBALL ...

The 1st round of the single elimination Wednesday night: The games started with Frank's Furters (a favorite for the tourney along with Ronda's Rowdy) getting a scare from the Bitchin' Babes but pulling the match out 15-1, 12-15, and 16-14. J. Aust and M.B. Simmermeyer led the first game with 6 points each, K. Redelman had 6 the second, and Tina Miller had 7 the 3rd game, all for the winners. The Babes had balanced scoring, but Dorothy had 6 in the final game. Frank's also went on to defeat the Little Indians 15-9 & 15-6; C. Monahon had 9 points in game 1, as did T. Miller in game 2. C. Rikke scored a total of 12 points for the Indians.

The Big O's made it to the semi-finals by rolling over the Piranhas 15-6 & 15-5. No. 8 had 8 points for the O's in game 1. Ronda's Rowdy's also had to play all 3 games before finally downing Brennan's Bums 15-8, 13-15, & 15-4. Sr. M. Jean had 8 points and B. Brothers had 6. In the final match Hank's Hardware had little trouble putting away Crazy 8, 15-4 & 15-2. No. 14 (I don't have any names) stole the show with 11 points and 6 points.

Monday's semi-finals shape up this way: Big O's vs. Frank's Furter's 7:20 Game 1.
Hank's Hardware vs. Ronda's Rowdy's 7:20 Game 2
Winner of game 1 vs. Winner game 2 8:15

JUST A REMINDER .....

The Carbon will be sponsoring the survey for the interest or lack of interest in producing a 1978 MARIAN. This is scheduled for Wednesday of next week in the Caf and in the Perc. However, we need people to help with the survey. If you are interested in working in any capacity please contact Sue Sommer at ext. 559 or Pam Wetula at Ext. 533. Thanks.
