FROM THE MASSES:

I'm sorry Chris and Ed, I really am sorry for giving you the wrong impression. I thought you could see through my sarcasm as soon as I wrote it. I actually knew the identity of C.W. when I wrote my first editorial. The reason why I chose to use C.W. instead of her name was in connection with my sarcasm. I could have written Chris Wood as easy as C.W., I just chose C.W. (dumb as someone might think it to be).

Actually everyone who knew I was Q.D. laughed (with the exception of one) at the humor in which they both were written along with being sarcastic. It's getting to be like a weekly assignment in writing skills.

Yes, I do enjoy seeing my name in print I guess, who wouldn't. If you wish to print my reply to your replies fine with me, and if you don't wish to print them, fine with me. I think I would be hurt if Chris would say something other than a slamming remark.

So, I will be looking forward to reading this week's Carbon, whether I see my name in print or not. And please try to recognize this as having a little bit of Q.D.'s sarcasm. Okay???

Thank you for your time and trouble. Remember, Chris, there are still a few people who don't know your identity.

Q.D. alias Pat McGraw

P.S. Believe it or not I've been asked if I am going to have a permanent column in the Carbon.

CARBON EDITORS:

I will appreciate your keeping my name out of your paper until such time as you see fit to clean it up.

Sister Mary Rose

Ed and Chris:

Dean Brames would like to see you both as soon as possible. Would you please come in and make an appointment with me. Thank you very much.

Dear Writer (s) of the "Up Yours Award",

We strongly object to the use of the Carbon as a medium for public ridicule directed towards a particular student or students. Shouldn't the staff consider the slander involved? What about the FEELINGS of the person the award is directed towards? Nothing any person does deserve biased criticism as public or the Up Yours Award. Please express your subjective opinions elsewhere. Your laugh is at the expense of others.

Dear Carbon Editor,

I have heard much comment on last week's "Up Yours Award" and have questioned some students in regard to this. The "personnal attack" argument of this award was distinguished from the "Features of the Week" ("those are funny") in that the former is "too true and direct" whereas the latter is "more vague and satirical". I asked if the responsibility of publication was to print that which is "vague" over that which is "too true" and was given a definite "NO" but "it's still different."

I would like to say that the award was only "personnal" in it's relationship to how that person views the responsibilities of her job differently than others do, and she is perfectly free to refute the "Award" in reference to this.

Perhaps there is a distinction between the "Award of the Week" and the other "cutting" articles in the Carbon (activities section, hisses, and feature), but unless someone understands this difference (if it exists), he is merely communicating a conditioned response (it's really too bad if Skinner is right!)

P.A.M.

Mea culpa, mea culpa,
Tua maxima culpa

APOLIGIES TO:

- Pat McGraw (Q.D.)--He really isn't on our staff--We wouldn't have him.
- All the men who objected to having their names listed under "Five Easy Pieces" but who would think it would be great to have the names of five women there instead.
- Steve Hammerle for our adding "Alfred (E. Neumann?) = football" to his list although we don't know what difference it makes. (Aren't you going to apologize to all the other people you offended in the same way in the same article).

Carbon applauds:

- Pat Murphy for downing fifteen bowls of butterscotch pudding.
- Muriel Wasi--Come again! We love ya!
- Wendy Vickers and her accompanist.
- Five easy coney dogs.
- Kevin Kavanagh, Pam Lackner, Dave Balle for general contribution.

Carbon hisses:

- Mr. Murphy for non-recognition of Drum and Bugle.
- Murder in the Psych Lab!! (Becky killing a rat in surgery) Call the ASPCA.
- Tom Ewald for not going to the Beer Blast.
- Ed for...(mum's the word)
- the weather.
- phone bills.

Exemption Request

I request that the Carbon desist from using my name _____, in its issues because:
Check one.

- ☐ I believe I am perfect and above all criticism.
- ☐ I believe my good name should be respected at all times and never be used in a light or jesting manner.

Return this slip to the secret compartment under the statue of St. Francis.

INPIRG:

InPIRG

GRIPNI spelled backwards is InPIRG. First think of InPIRG, then the founder of Nader's Raiders who is of course the famed Ralph Nader. When you think of Ralph Nader think of a person getting involved. When you think of a person getting involved think of yourself. NOW stop thinking about it and do get involved. I'm glad those of you who already signed up are asking when (and those who haven't but would like to) is the next meeting of InPIRG. Tuesday November 16th at 7:00 P.M. in the SAC Auditorium. Come one come all and bring a friend, or someone who isn't a friend.

InPIRG---Again!!!!!!

BONUS BONUS BONUS BONUS

For a limited time only at Marian College of Indianapolis on Monday 15th Tuesday 16th and Wednesday 17th of November 1971, you will be able to purchase (at a very low price) mouth watering baked goods far from the kitchens of Sara Lee. All that needs to be done is to follow your nose to one of the many locations, as the PERC or Clare Hall or even Doyle Hall.

As an added extra bonus above the above mentioned bonus you may receive free of charge information concerning the famous InPIRG. The proceeds will be going to InPIRG.... There will be a meeting Tuesday at 7:00 P.M. in the SAC Auditorium.

Remember...InPIRG spells nothing backwards

"Our goal is a union of the poor, dedicated to World Peace and serving the needs of all men who suffer." Chavez

The grape strike, begun in 1965 when growers refused to negotiate with their workers on union representation, has pointed out to the American public many problems in the situation of the migrant farm worker. Since 1965, the United Farm Workers Organization has accomplished much for the American people (pesticide control with the DDT issue) and the California grape pickers (better wages and working conditions, health control, and educational opportunities).

This strike is not over yet, for some of the growers still refuse to negotiate with the grape pickers. UFWOC needs your support if these injustices are to be eliminated. The farm worker still suffers from a cycle of poverty and disease in which he is trapped!!! You can help break this vicious cycle by insisting on Union label grapes in neighborhood stores. "You wouldn't have a starving farm-worker in your yard, so why have scab grapes in your neighborhood!" (UFWOC Journal, Sept. '71) If you are concerned about this situation, contact Pam Murry, ext. 534, to find out what you can do to help.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL IN BRIEFS:

War, minus Randy Stahley, was a mere shadow of itself in losing to the Wild Bunch last Sunday 34-0. Since my buddy Ken did such a fine job in his summary in the PHOENIX, I won't even begin to match his brilliant play by play account. The season closes, for all practical purposes, on Sunday with the Bunch meeting the Vice Lords. We've stuck with the Bunch too long to desert them now, but we're not placing any bets. Our only concern is that Commissioner "Slime Rozelle" can contain whistle-happy Pat Murphy.

BASKETBALL:

The local hardcourt netters begin action on Saturday as they meet St. Francis, there, wherever there is. The Knights will regain some quality height this year as Rich "Faggot" Ebinger makes his comeback. We predict an opening victory and an impressive season for Coach Schilling in his initial effort. But then Marian is about due for a winner..... in any form....

BEER-BLAST:

Everyone played a hard game and came out smiling, except Jay Farrell. According to Mike Pacheco, the wet dance floor was the only thing to be complained of, but then what did he expect spending half the night there. The reason for the success can be explained by the fact that everyone was high for this one. This has to rank as Marian's number one participation sport.

SALARIES REJECTED:

At the Student Board Meeting last Sunday night the motion to include payment of officers and editors to this year's budget was rejected by all but one member of the Board. This was done after discussion and presentation of the referendum in which approximately 2/3 of those who took part were opposed to salaries.

The Board also passed the Psychology Club Constitution and tabled a motion for $15 for it to sponsor a movie called "Bedlam". The Board passed a motion to sponsor the taking of a teacher-course evaluation.

The Student Services Representative moved that: "Because many members of the Marian Community consider the Carbon too crude and vulgar, I move that the Student Board allocate $1000 to the Carbon editors and staff for a trip to London to get some culture, which will ultimately benefit the whole Marian community." It was seconded and tabled for a week. Father Dooley, Student Board advisor suggested buying a good dictionary as a less expensive way of solving the problem.
