"Sugar"

The musical-comedy "Sugar" will appear on stage this Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. That's February 24th, 25th, and the 26th. The play is scheduled to commence promptly at 8:00 p.m. in the Marian Hall auditorium.

"Sugar" is the Broadway production from the film "Some Like It Hot" which starred Marilyn Monroe, Jack Lemmon, and Tony Curtis. The hilarious musical-comedy is about two guys that dress up as women in an attempt to get a job in an all-girl band. The story ends up in a strange love affair. The play is chalked full of comedy from beginning to end. Some of the cast include Kelly Gallagher as Sugar, Sean Johnson as Joe, Drew Benson as Jerry, Martinlow Spaulding as Mr. Bienstock, Lisa Fritz as Red, and Susan Stanich as Sue. The play is under the direction of David Edgecomb and Sara Reid.

It is well worth your time to come on over and enjoy a super fun-filled evening of laughter right here at your very own Marian College! As an added attraction, there will be a complete dessert buffet in the cafe this Friday evening during supper. See you there!!!!!!!!!!

KNIGHTS IN ACTION

by MO & POO

men

The J.V. team took a defeat this past Wed. night, 68-81 against Franklin College.

In the Varsity game, the Knights held the lead the whole first half (32-26). They started out with an aggressive second half. The game then ran neck-and-neck. At 1:27, the score was tied and the tension was building, time-out was called. They came out of the huddle and the pressure was on. Marian went ahead by two and got shut down at the free throw line. Another time-out was called, Marian. Out of the time-out, the Grizzlies were at the line and Marian calls yet another time-out. Marian came back to make two by Chris Craney and were down by one point with twelve seconds to go. Marian fouls and Grizzlies go to the line and take the lead by three. Marian takes it down the court and it's history. 64-61. On a brighter note the Varsity beat Indiana Tech. in Fort Wayne on Saturday.

The men's next game will be Saturday at I.U.P.U. Fort Wayne.

women

On the Lady Knight's Court, their eight game winning streak took a lull in the action when they took a defeat against Taylor, 63-72. However the women were not down long for they came back to beat I.U.P.U.I. on Mon., 71-62.

This upswing continued into Wed. as the women conquered De Pauw 77-49, by a total team effort.

Friday night the Lady Knights finish out their season against Goshen here, at 7:30. Come cheer the women on to victory.

MARTIAN GET PHYSICAL

by Jac & Mac

This week in Men's Basketball, FBI stayed on top with a 6-1 record. Sorry fans, but we weren't able to get down to watch any of the games this past week (we were busy being studious), so there isn't a play of the week or a game of the week, but we do have the standings.

Cruel Bondage is close behind FBI with a 6-2 record, the Good Ole Boys, the Rejects, and Fu-Bar are next with 5-2 records. THI is next with a 3-4 record followed by Johnson with a 2-6 record. Staff and Furman have 2-5 records. Taps has an 0-7 record and Cosmo has a 1-1 record. (ed. note-We hope that all of the sweating and hard play is paying off for all of you guys, you're doing a great job!)

In Women's Volleyball this week the Lite Spikers and Senioritis are at the top of their leagues with 4-0 records. They're being closely followed by the Kool-Aid Kids and their 3-1 record. Spiked Punch and the Dufers are at 2-2. The PYT's record is 2-1, followed by the MCFU's and their 1-3 record. The WCC's are next at 1-2 and then come the TPer's and the Fumble Fingers with records of 0-4 and 0-2 respectively.

The game of the week was between the TPer's and the Kool-Aid Kids. The Kool-Aid Kids won that game, but not without their problems. A couple of their players received bodily abuse as well as extreme embarrassment, but these factors brought out the best in them and they emerged victorious. ## THE LIGHTER SIDE

By Jackie Bagosy

A few days ago I decided to venture into the realms of my past. My little stroll down memory lane led me to the cafeteria, where I had spent some of the "best" of my dorm days.

It was not a search for the good home-cooking "like ARA used to make," or even a deep commitment to coagulated cottage cheese that made me return to those days of yesteryear (or yestersemester, as the case may be!) Oh no, it was much more! It was a search for immediate relief from the hunger pangs that had proved so embarrassing only moments before, while in class.

As I entered the place, where so many lunch hours had been spent discussing who had done what to whom, I noticed that things were pretty much the same.

But hark; what to my most wondering of ears should appear?! The very newest innovation in the Clare Hall dining experience, that's what! Yes, it was music for my listening pleasure!

Almost at once, I found myself breaking into a cold sweat. Visions of X-rays and fourteen inch needles danced in my head as I listened to the Ray Conniff singers latest rendition of "I Think I Love You"

By the time my friends arrived at the table, I was deeply enthralled in a Carpenter's medley. As we sat there enjoying the fine cuisine, we found ourselves competing in a rather heated game of Name That Tune. I have to tell you, the competition was fierce!

Looking over my shoulder, I rationalized. Maybe the students taking geriatrics were doing a practicum. I felt like I was at MCL on Jack Benny night!

After pondering the reason behind the muzak in the cafeteria, I came to a very astute conclusion. Have you ever heard the old adage "music calms the savage beast?" What better way to stop those funsters who find game in food fights? What better way to put a damper on the weekly meeting of the John "Blutarsky" Belushi fan club than to inject tranquilizing melodies into those raging post-adolescent hormones?!

However, my theory was short lived. The following day, I re-entered the hallowed hall of memories in hopes of getting together another rousing edition of Name That Tune. Yet, my hopes were soon drenched - literally, by a showdown of water pistols at the OK CAFE. Oh well, I guess some things never change!
