- the views of this publication are those of the individual writers and do not necessarily reflect those of Marian College. -

The Sophomore Class has once again brought their organizing capabilities and talent together to bring us the Annual Sweetheart's Dance. This year the theme is "Love is in the Air" and in the words of Sophomore Class President Bob Freese, "We are attemptin to add a touch of elegance to this formal affair by importing the Fritz Turner Band from Southeastern Indiana." The Fritz Turner Orchestra is a small 13 piece ensemble and I can attest to their musical capacities as they have entertained at numerous functions in my "neck of the woods." -Batesville, In.

A talented Marian Sophomore will surprise us with the theme song "Two in Love," the night of the dance. And every lady in attendance will receive a pleasant remembrance of the occasion.

Tickets are still available this Monday in front of the Marian Hall Auditorium. I'm sure you'll enjoy the music, the atmosphere, and your friends at the Sweethearts' Dance, Feb. 16 at 8:00 p.m. in the Allison Mansion.

INTERESTED IN SUMMER OR CAREER LAY MINISTRY?

CORRECTION.....(continued)

Several Marian students have indicated an interest in obtaining information on opprotunities for both summer and long-term work in challenging and fulfilling activities of both volunteer and career nature. Such information can be obtained on Sunday, Feb., 11 at 8:30 p.m. in the Ministry Center when two people involved in these types of work will share informally with "show and tell" about their programs. Maureen Riley, a Marian student and Youth Minister at St. Thomas parish, Indy, will discuss that kind of career. Susan Tatman, teacher at St. Gabriel's Parish in Indianapolis, will discuss her work as a summer volunteer in Appalachia with the under priveledged people there. Everyone is welcomed.

and we hope that they will continue to be "concerned citizens" in the future. Next time we will do a more careful check on the initial information.

U. S. POLICY AND HUMAN RIGHTS

A very illuminating account of what's going on in Korea today was given by Rev. Fr. Jim Sinnott a Maryknoll Missionary, who lived and worked in the Korean Missions for over fifteen years. Yesterday's speech culminated with a very moving film about what the people in Korea, especially the Christians are undergoing beneath the dictatorship nursed and nurtured by a powerful western power.

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING DIFFERENT & INTERESTING?

If so, why not attend the Ecumenical Student Conference "Why and How Do I Stay a Christian?" being held at nearby St. Maur's conference center. This is an opportunity to meet other college students from Indiana who are from different religus backgrounds but share the common Christian tradition. Application forms are available on the Campus Ministry Center bulletin board, chapel board or from Sr. Sue.

From his cllege days on, Fr. Sinnott wanted to be a simple missionary carrying the cross and words of Christ. "Governments come and go, but Christ was then, is now, and will be always" he says. During his stay in Korea, he did whatever he could to help the needy, especially the sick. His successful venture in building a small hospital, hiring a doctor to work and he, himself, with a fore-medical college knowledge, working with the doctor to attend to the bodily sickness of the people speaks highly of his dedication to the simple mission life. "I never wanted to think of the politics going in and around there," he says.

CORRECTION.....

Last week copies were circulated of a petition regarding Madalyn Murray O'Hair's purported efforts to eliminate religous programming on the airways. Individuals who were opposed to her proposal were encouraged to send notice of their disapproval to the Federal Communications Commission. It was brought to our attention by reputable people that the Federal Communications Commission had been contacted and that they have no record of any such efforts by Mrs. O'Hair. The Commission has requested that the petitions of protest not be sent. We therefore suggest that the petition be discarded. It seems that many, many people throughout the country were genuinely distressed by the rumored proposal which, happily, is untrue. We were pleased that many of the Marian community also expressed interest in this cause, (continued on top of next column)

It is only after his arrest in 1974 while he was praying on a lawn and later expelled from Korea, that he began to think of the Politics and Power that does hover around most countries of this nature. When asked whether the Church should enter politics, he felt that "if the people come to us for help, we have to help in whatever way we can. This does not mean taking to guns." He feels the pastors in Korea are determined to go through whatever persecutions to uphold the Cross. "We don't like to go to jail, but we will if we have to" seems to be the height of their zeal. Fr. Sinnott concluded in a very happy note saying, "people aren't sad when they accept it as the will of God and are braving it." We wish Fr. Sinnott many more happy years of good work wherever he goes from here.

FROM THE PLACEMENT OFFICE

The job outlook for 1978-79 grads remains bright, despite forecasts of possible recession and economic pessimism. More companies are sending recruiters to college campuses, resulting in more job offers to students.

According to a report released by the College Placement Council, recruiting will be up about 25 percent over last year. Similiar studies by Endicott and Michigan State report the same trends. Endicott reports that employers will hire 18 percent more bachelor's graduates and 11 percent more master's graduates.

Areas of greatest demand appear to be in the fields of engineering, business, marketing, economics, accounting, and computer specialists. Job opportunities in government and education will continue to decline.

Starting salaries for '79 graduates are expected to rise by 4 to 9 percent overall. Largest salary increases are being offered in the high-demand fields of engineering, chemistry, computer science and business. The Eddicott Report figures show the following average monthly salaries for 1979 bachelor's students (compared with 1978 averages):
Engineering - $1524 ($1431) . . . Chemistry - $1318 ($1253) . . . Computer Science - $1286 ($1200) . . . Math/Statistics - $1250 ($1156)
Accounting - $1229 ($1166) . . . Business Administration - $1122 ($1043) . . . Sales and Marketing - $1091 ($1035) . . . Economics and Finance - $1089 ($1034) . . . Liberal Arts - $1062 ($996) . . . Other Fields - $1213 ($1130).

TO THE MASSES:

I am again reporting to you from the lovely slopes of Nortern Greenland, enjoying the ice and snow festival. But there is an important point I,d like to make. The yearbook has been on sale now for a week and sales have been dwindling. But after a few sessions with my thinking cap I realized what the problem is: Apathy. The same apathy that let the yearbook falter in the past. Now there are a few good people who are trying to make something out of nothing. And the student body isn,t even backing them! If you have already bought your Marian '79 don,t bother with these gripes and skip to the last paragraph of this article. If not, read on....

The Marian '79 is for real! It's a good, quality book. The supplement is but a small portion of what is to come. The Supplement is filled with what we knew of the past. But The Marian '79 is now! And the staff is living it!! Many hard working hours have been put into it - photography, literary and layout designs. These students have put in a lot of time for YOU so that YOU could have a year-book.

By the way I was strolling down Indiana Ave. and asked a few people what they thought of the Marian '79. Wilt Chamberlin said he found it to be high quality reading material. Ken Elmendorf said you;d have to be a dummy not to get one. Ray Charles said that as far as he could see there was nothing wrong with spending $10 for one. Tarzan went bananas over it; Jane went Tarzan over it. Jack Benny said that even he would spend $10 for it. With those reviews of the Marian'79, I'd suggest you run over to Marian Hall right now to order one for yourself. If you're near the Math Office Sr. Carol Slinger will take your order and if you are sick just call me, Joe Horan, Ext. 341 and leave a message. Well, I've got to get goingnow, I have a helicopter waiting to take me to the Greater Iceland Tiddley Winks Open Tournament. If you need a ride, just leave your weight and head size at the Information Office.

Yours truly,
Ghengas Khan

A NEW BEGINNING

It is already Februarym and once again we students are caught up in a new rush of classes, meetings, sports and work. Over the holidays we'd forgotten the meaning of the word "hectic", but as we lean farther into the semester, it becomes easier and easier to get bogged down.

If you feel the need to pick yourself up, calm doen and take a nice long look at your life, we'd like to invite you to join us in a New Beginning-a weekend retreat on campus March 2-4. This weekend won't promise to give you all the answers, but it will give you the opportunity to look within yourself, to see how God works in our lives and in the lives of others at Marian. If you have any questions call Sr. Rosemary, Eileen Herbertz or K.Klaiber.

GYM SHORTS

BASEBALL NEWS:

The snow is still on the ground, but despite that, the Baseball Team has started practice. That's right, with subzero weather outside the Baseball team has been inside the intramural gym practicing. Today, will mark the end of the third week of practice, The Team has 13 returning letterman, along with 6 first year players to round out the roster. Last year the team posted a 17-7 record, & this years' team hopes to improve on that record. The team will continue its practice indoors until their much awaited trip to Florida in the Spring. The Baseball Team is currently involved with the selling of raffle tickets, the drawing will be held Sat., Feb. 10 at half-time of the basketball game. First place is a 19" TV, second- a stereo with speakers, turntable, AM/FM reciever, and an eight track; third-$90 of albums from Karma Record Stores. Chances sell for $1 each. The Baseball team is also selling tickets to the Indiana Pacers game. The Pacers will play the Golden State Warriors on March 2. The tickets are on sale now, and the price is $5 for regular $6 seats. Contact Coach Morrell Ext. 258 or any baseball player for either chances or tickets.

FREDDIE SAYS.....

The Intramural Basketball program is now 3 weeks old and about to come to an abrupt end before you know it. So far, the tenacious Trailblazers are tearing up both leagues without a loss credited to them. They're the most solid ballclub that goes ten men deep, including such names as Bungy, Doc, Big D, Freddie, (that's me), Emron, etc... In second place is the Keg which is led by Hood and Everode. Their only two losses in the night league were by the Blazers. In third place is the Bad Joses who have yet to play a complete game with their five starters present. Look for them to be tough if they ever get it together. Next in line, are the "Nads", who have a lot of "go" in them. They are blessed with some old-time stars as Punky Hildebrand, Freddie (the second), Rocket Ronnie, Batman etc.. Having almost identical records are the Itties and Beer, who are capable of winning anytime, but seem to lose everytime. In the cellar are the Bruins who are a bunch of fighting freshmen who always seem to foul more than anyone else but never think they do. (right Fish?) As for the future games, look for Keg to get beat two more times before its over and the Joses to make their move when they finally come to play ball. Itties and Beer are aching for an upset and just might catch the Joses off guard again. The Blazers have had three close ones, but I don't seriously think they can be upset with a full 10 man roster. As for the Bruins, I guess there's always next year or next or next!!! Here are the standings for the night league best to my knowledge.

- 1. Trailblazers 7-0
2. I Tappa Keg 5-2
3. Bad Joses 3-4
4. Go-Nads 2-5
5. T & B 2-5
6. Bruins 1-6

† If these aren't accurate, at least they're pretty close!!!

(Edit. note--- After typing this, I thought I should remind everyone that editorials may be written concerning sports news as well any other articles published.)

MINUTES OF THE FOOD SERVICE COMMITTEE

Members of the Food Servcie Committee are: Pam Wetula, Laura Maxwell, Geri Stewart, Pam Brown, Nancy Smith, Bob Gels, Pat Back, and Mark Collier.

Members present were: Pam, Laura, Geri, Nancy, pam, and Bob. Bob Baugh represented the Cafeteria Management.

Synopsis of last week's meeting:

- 1. As there have been many complaints, we discussed a breakfast survey to determine the types of cereals to be offered. The voting forms will be available at the checker's table in the near future.
2. Although we decided the quality and contents of the salad bar were very good, we felt that it should be moved. At this point we were unable to decide where to put it.
3. We looked over a three week menu and suggested some changes. Those changes were immediately made.
4. We then discussed specific changes in the food, and those changes have been made. They were: a different brand of salad dressing on the salad bar, no more spam in the scrabbled eggs, and adding plain cheese to the pizza selection.

This week's minutes:

- 1. the first and most important point on the agenda was moving the salad bar. We felt that it obstructs traffic and many people would like to see the hot food line before deciding on salad. It was therefore decided that (pending approval of Col. Wagner) the salad bar would be placed in its original position.
2. In the near future, there will be signs on the hot food line in front of the meats and vegetables to avoid confusion.
3. We are trying to figure aut the cause of the sour milk.
4. In order to get a sack lunch, it is now necessary to sign up with peggy in the ARA office by Thursday of the preceeding week.
5. The possibility of a hamburger-hot dog night is being discussed. On that night, cotton candy, malts and popcorn would also be served. We intend to rotate this and roast beef night every week for those who have night classes.
6. We discussed better advertising for the various special dinners in the future. It was agreed that the advertising in the past has not been adequate.
7. Bob told us that Thursday would be Chinese New Year Night in the caf, complete with decorations.
8. We are trying to think of more monotony breakers fir future meals. Next week we intend to discuss this further.
9. Bob is checking into the possibility of serving juice and cereal besides regular food for Saturday lunch for those who sleep late on Saturdays.
10. Our last order of business was to change the meeting time to monday at Noon.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:25.

RE-DEDICATION TO THE ELEVATOR

On the ninth day of February, 1979, in the year of our Ram, we the residents of Clare Hall rededicate our elevator to one person who truly represents and appreciates elevators.

This person weighs the maximum capacity load that our elevator can carry. The person is well-known for his respect of elevators. And this person is also known for his great love of elevators for we know he will have hours of enjoyment using our elevator (let's hope he is always carrying a book or has something to do.) This elevator is dedicated to Dennis Hanly who loves elevators so much.
