Ten to Enter Graduate Schools

Graduate study next fall is in the current plans of a number of seniors.

Jerry Williams has been awarded a teaching assistantship valued at $2,000 to the University of Illinois, where he will specialize in Analytical Chemistry.

The University of Detroit has granted Phan Thien Chau a 2-year teaching fellowship covering full tuition fees of $1600 a year to study International Politics and Economics.

Jim Babcock was awarded a 3-year National Defense Graduate Fellowship, ranging from $2,000 to $2,400 a year for study in French at Vanderbilt University. He also won the Alliance Francaise medal for outstanding proficiency in French.

Two dietitians, Doris Urban and Joanne Lintzenich, will serve internships at the Indiana University Medical Center and St. Louis University, respectively, as part of their graduate professional training.

At I. U. Mary Ehringer will study social work; Isabel Harnish, library science; and Tony Benedict and Rudy Jansen, law.

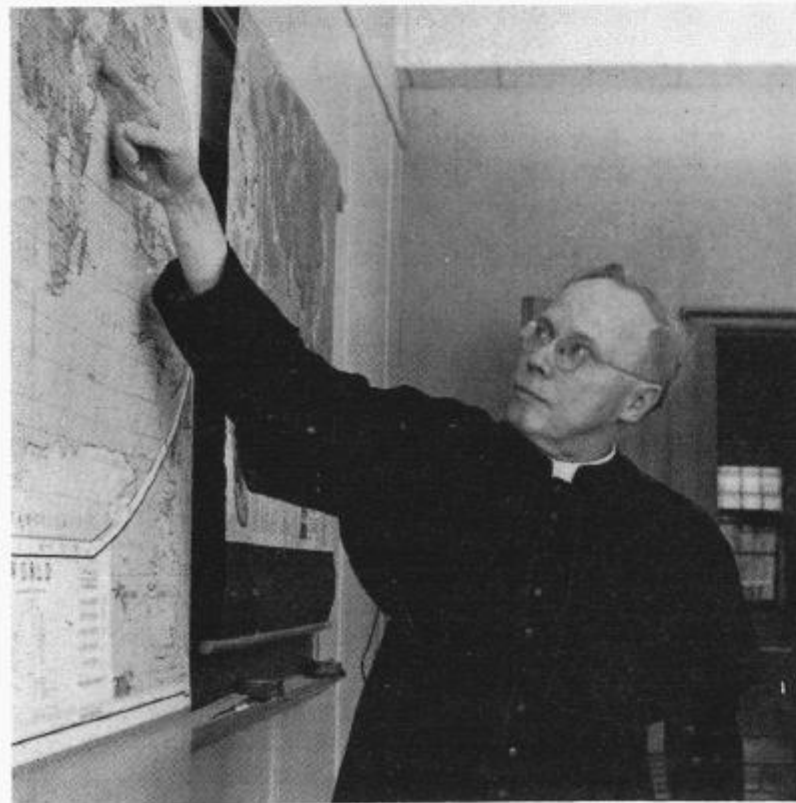

Tom Mehaffey plans graduate study in psychology.

Red Cross Cites Twenty Workers

Twenty students were recognized for volunteer services to the Indianapolis Chapter of the American Red Cross at the organization's first annual Awards Dinner for College Student Volunteers, May 19.

Receiving pins for one hundred hours of volunteer work were Suzie Lakin and Reed Schafer. Fifty to one-hundred hour certificates were presented to Maribeth Schubert, Judy Hoff, Barbara Van Deman, Annette Prestel, Val Siedlinski, and Stephen Long.

Also recognized were Mary Ann St. Clair, Claire Schirmer, Julie Weber, Mary Ann Staton, Mary Gaynor, Judy Harritt, Paula Black, Carol Cleary, Pam Jones, Ruth Depweg, Mary Ellen Stead, and Marilyn Weinbrecht.

Monsignor Doyle locates ancient cultural sites for his anthropology students.

Dr. Walsh Addresses Grads; Fr. Head Gives Baccalaureate

Commencement exercises will take place at 3 p.m., Sunday, June 4, in the auditorium. The Most Reverend Paul C. Schulte, D.D., Archbishop of Indianapolis and Chancellor of Marian College, will confer the degrees.

Presenting the seniors will be the Very Reverend Francis J. Reine, S.T.D., president.

Columbia Professor Speaks

Daniel C. Walsh, Ph. D., professor of philosophy at Graduate School, Columbia University, since 1935, will deliver the commencement address. At present, he is visiting professor of philosophy at the Abbey of Gethsemane, Trappist, Ky.

A 1930 graduate of the University of Toronto, he was the Cardinal Mercier gold medalist of the year.

Dr. Walsh is the director of graduate research in Medieval Philosophy at Columbia and also a member of the Joint Committee on Graduate Instruction in Religion and Philosophy.

He holds memberships in the Catholic Philosophical Association, American Philosophical Association and is a contributor to the Journal of Philosophy, Commonweal, and Review of Religion.

Predominantly from Indianapolis, the seniors also represent twelve other cities in Indiana, five in Illinois, two in New York, and one in each of Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, and Pennsylvania. Two foreign students, from Nicaragua and Vietnam, are the first male graduates of the college from Latin America and the Far East.

Bachelor of arts degree candidates include 54 lay students in 15 areas.

Accounting: Donald Ash, Robert Ayres, Louis Firsich, William Kelsey; art: Raymond Day, Patricia Gropp, Mrs. Betty Lou Peterson; business administration: Pauline Boll, John Cronin, William Daley, Joseph Eckman, Robert Harmening, Rudy Jansen, Marie Meister, Carol Welchans, Patrick Henn; economics: Benjamin Gutierrez, Phan Thien Chau, Joseph Sullivan.

Candidates for the bachelor of science degree are—in biology: Suzanne Shumate; in chemistry: Patrick Cunningham, Shirley Martin, Michael O'Connor, Francis J. Williams.

Degrees will also be conferred on 13 Sisters of St. Francis, Oldenburg.

Baccalaureate Precedes

Father Bernard Head, M.A., M.S., S.T.L., will deliver the baccalaureate address Saturday evening, June 3, in the college Chapel of Mary Immaculate.

Currently an instructor at Bishop Bruté Latin School, Indianapolis, he has also served as assistant pastor at Holy Trinity Parish and instructor at Ladywood School.

Ordained in 1953, Father Head studied at St. Meinrad Seminary and Catholic University of America.

Following benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, a reception will honor the graduates and their parents.

Dr. Walsh

Student Board Listing Complete

New Student Association Board members for 1961-62 were introduced at a Field Day assembly, May 24.

Executive officers are: president, Charlie Robinson; vice-president, Judy Williams; secretary, Mary Kay Doyle; and treasurer, Jerry Zore. Representing groups are: Dee Metzner, publications; and Mary Otten, Clare Hall residents. Kitty Tung is religious affairs representative, and Pat Mowry, NFCCS.

Class presidents completing the Board include Ron Borman, senior; Fritz Feltman, junior; and Harry Metzger, Jr., sophomore. A freshman president will join the board in the fall.

Evansville Coed Reigns May 14

Sue Farny, senior and English major from Evansville, was crowned Campus Queen in ceremonies preceding the coronation musicale, May 14. She was escorted by Mike O'Connor.

Attendants from the senior class included Mary Ehringer, Jeffersonville, Shirley Bill, South Bend, Karen Forszt, Gary, and Marie Meister, Indianapolis. They were escorted by Phan Thien Chau, Bill Daley, Mike Sifferlen, and Bill Kelsey, respectively.

Rounding Out the Court

Junior princesses Ann Stegman, Peru, and June Barrett, Neoga, Ill., chose Jim White and Tom Mehaffey as escorts.

Mary Ellen Benedetto and Mary Lee Lauck, both of Indianapolis, sophomore princesses, were escorted by John Nonte and Dick Battles.

Freshman princesses Jeanne Babcock and Jo Ann Lauck, of Indianapolis, selected Gene Harris, Jr., and Nick McGill as escorts.

Coronation Musicale

The Bel Canto, Mellotones, Men's Glee Club, and featured soloists provided a selection of classical works for the Queen and her court.

Summer Session Begins June 12

A total of 26 courses will be offered in the 1961 summer sessions beginning June 12.

Lower division courses of the regular session June 12-July 15, include: Intermediate French, World Geography, Pictorial Composition, Logic, World Literature, Basic Mathematics, Introductory Accounting, Crafts, and Drawing and Composition.

Upper division courses are: Shakespeare, Westward Movement, Child Psychology, Methods in Social Studies, Philosophy of Education, Painting—Water Color, French Composition and Conversation, U. S. in 20th Century, Arithmetic in the Elementary School, and Educational Measurements.

A shorter session, July 17-Aug. 1, will offer five courses: Intermediate French, History of French Civilization, Constitutional History of the U. S., Art Appreciation, and Principles of Teaching.

Classes for both sessions meet daily, Monday through Saturday.

Registration will be June 1-10 for the regular session and July 10-14 for the short session.

Many-Sided Msgr. Doyle Marks Ruby Anniversary

Rt. Rev. Monsignor John J. Doyle, chaplain, observed the ruby anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood May 16. Solemn High Mass, in the presence of Archbishop Schulte, was offered by him in the college chapel. That evening, he was guest of honor at a dinner attended by seminary classmates, special priest friends, and associates.

Ordination May 17

Ordained at St. Meinrad Seminary, May 17, 1921, Monsignor first served as assistant pastor at St. Augustine parish, Jeffersonville, and St. Therese, Indianapolis. Graduate study at the Catholic University of America culminated in the doctorate of philosophy in 1933.

Monsignor Doyle came to Marian in 1937 after four years as chaplain and professor at St. Mary-of-the-Woods.

In 1945 he was named Papal Chamberlain with the title of "Very Reverend Monsignor" and was elevated to the rank of Domestic Prelate with the title of "Right Reverend" in 1954.

Years at Marian Active

Monsignor's 24 years at Marian as chaplain, head of the philosophy department, professor, chairman and member of numerous administrative and faculty committees have been crowded with invaluable service. Chairman of the Honors Program, director and statistician of the college testing program, founding member of the campus chapter of Delta Epsilon Sigma—these are representative.

Yet there has been time to fill concurrently four major archdiocesan offices: Officialis, judge of the matrimonial court; chairman of the Board of Education; Synodal Examiner; and Consultant.

Learned society memberships, eight at one time, indicate his practical concern for scholarships and its promotion. He has been president, vice-president, and treasurer of the Indiana Philosophical Association and division chairman of the American Catholic Philosophical Association.

Books, Articles Published

His published writings include: the doctoral thesis, Education in Recent Constitutions and Concordats; "Catholic Education and Its Relation to the State" in Essays on Catholic Education in the U. S.; and Survey of Philosophy, 2 v.; and a series of articles in The New Scholasticism, Modern Schoolman, The Torch, and Interracial Review.

Civic organizations of which Monsignor has served as director are the Indiana Mental Health Association and the Indianapolis Family Service Association.

Evening School Lists Courses For Fall Term

Evening classes, to include regular credit courses and adult education lecture series, will be inaugurated this fall.

Classes, to begin the week of Sept. 24, will meet once a week on Tuesday or Thursday evening at 6:45. Deadline for application is Sept. 15; registration Sept. 21-22 and the morning of Sept. 23.

Courses to be offered include: Sacred Liturgy, Sacred Scripture—Gospels, Comparative Religions, Social Encyclicals, General Ethics, Introduction to Philosophy, General Psychology, English Composition, Survey of English Literature, and Public Speaking.

Education courses are: Principles of Elementary Teaching, Child Psychology, and Teaching of Reading.

Elementary and Advanced Spanish and Elementary Russian comprise the foreign language offerings.

Also scheduled are: Russian History, American Government, Marketing, Accounting, Principles of Mathematics, College Algebra, and Calculus.

Concurrent with the evening classes will be a series of non-credit adult education classes. Two offerings of one-hour lectures will be given each Tuesday and Thursday. Topics and lecturers will be announced later.

Dinner Toasts Scholars

Dinner recognizing first and second year students of the Honor Seminar was held May 17 in the college dining room. Twenty-nine sophomores, juniors, and seniors were honored.

The Very Reverend Francis J. Reine offered congratulations to the group.

According to Sister Mary Karen, chairman of the Honors Program, this is the first time that such recognition has been given to the outstanding scholars.

Ray Day

Exhibitor Stresses Different Media In Display of Art

by Ray Day as told to Mary Fran Beckmeyer

Since time began, man has had need for expression. The Egyptians expressed themselves in sculpture and painting, the Greeks in architecture, and down the ages the primary means of expression has been art.

Marian's curriculum lends itself beautifully to art expression through the development of imagination and technique. Currently, and through June 4, the college presents "An Exhibition of Art" by Ray Day.

Pioneering Still

Ray is the second male art major to receive a degree from Marian. "There are many media in which to express imagination," says Ray, and he has capitalized on as many as possible.

Featured primarily in the exhibit is the "Crucifixion," Ray's thesis, which is a modernized impression in oil of the Crucified Christ on a walnut panel. He recently sold the work to Mr. John Hannesian, Jr., of the American University Field Staff.

"Wood is a natural beauty which I have used frequently," commented Ray. On exhibition is a clock which the art major carved completely from wood. The face is of mahogany with walnut and maple inlay while the hands are maple covered with 24 carat gold leaf.

"Surface, too, is important when painting in oil." Experimenting with oil on an unusual surface texture, Ray has on display "The Cathedral." Common burlap replaces the canvas and the frame is also covered with the coarse cloth.

Photographs Prominent

Because of a three-year term as Marian photography editor, Ray will include 20 photographs ranging from the dramatic action of "Antigone" to the natural beauty of the campus. Lettering and pastels round out the art exhibition.

In his four years at Marian, Ray has been active in the Players, serving a year as president, Bel Canto, and Schola. For three years, he has handled stage lighting. His most recent honor was admittance into Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Instructors Spend Vacation On Opposite Sides of Desk

Summer study will take some faculty members to far away places, others not so far.

Farthest traveler, Sister Mary Carol, head of the history department, will be at Sophia University, Tokyo, a Jesuit institution, studying Japanese and Oriental culture. Tours to centers of historic and cultural interest will permit first-hand contact with the country and its people.

Grant for this seven-week session was awarded by the Project for Extending the Study of Foreign Areas in Indiana Undergraduate Education, a three-year activity assisted by the Ford Foundation. Sister Mary Carol is a member of the State Advisory Committee.

Defends Thesis

At the University of Ottawa, Father Joseph Dooley, of the history department, will be defending his thesis for the Doctorate in Political Science.

A National Defense Education Act Fellowship for graduate study at Indiana University in the area of "uncommonly taught modern foreign language" has been awarded to Father Charles Frazee, also of the history department. His study of modern Greek and Byzantine history will continue through next year.

Sister Mary Rose, head of the chemistry department, as the recipient of a National Science Foundation grant for Research Participation for College Teachers, will spend ten weeks at the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C. She will be experimenting with "The Addition of Hydrogen to Olefins in the Gas Phase."

Completes Master in French

Also at the Catholic University, theology instructor, Father Patrick Smith, will be working to complete his master's degree with French as a major.

Radiation biology will be the subject of eight weeks study by Sister Marie Bernard, head of the biology department. She has received a National Science Foundation grant to the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

For an equal period, Sister Marina, of the physics department, will be concentrating on selected topics in advanced physics at Missouri University, Columbia.

Sister Clarence Marie, librarian, will be on the staff of Rosary College, River Forest, Ill., in the graduate school of library science; Miss Mary Haugh, of the sociology department, will teach in the Evening Division of Butler University.

Sister Marie Pierre, of the German and English departments, recipient of an eight-weeks grant from the Far East Institute, will study Chinese literature at the University of Iowa.

Through campus drives, the academic procession winds its way to escort Sue Farny, campus queen, to her chair of honor.

1961-62 Student Board officers: Charlie Robinson, president; Judy Williams, vice-president; Mary Kay Doyle, secretary; Jerry Zore, treasurer.

H. S. Seniors Merit Awards

Scholarships have been awarded to forty members of the 1961-62 freshman class.

Seventeen are honor scholarships merited by recognition of outstanding achievement either in competitive, scholarship tests on a state-wide or national basis or as certified by respective high schools.

Indianapolis Awards

Indianapolis honor recipients are: Beverly Abel, Our Lady of Grace; Kathleen McCarthy, St. Mary's Academy; Lois Le Feber, Sececina; and Rita McNellis, St. Agnes. James Hughes, Cathedral, Mary Speth and Larry Zimmerman, Sacred Heart, hold full tuition scholarships. Marianne Stout, Sececina, won a partial scholarship.

Parish recipients include Sharon Blunk and Roberta Wisdom, St. Mary's Academy; Sharon Bowron, Betty Bogeman, and Ellen Michl, Sececina; Carol Thuer and Joseph Richter, Sacred Heart.

Loretta Martin Scholarship

Awarded for the first time is the Loretta Martin Music scholarship to Rose Snyder, St. Agnes Academy.

Out-of-town students meriting honor scholarships are: Mary Jo Walke, Immaculate Conception Academy, Oldenburg; Carol Weil, Reitz Memorial, Evansville; Susan Stephens, Rex Mundi, Evansville; Ann Marie Miller, Central Catholic, Fort Wayne; Peter Method, Bennett, Marion; and Judith Hein, Crown Point.

14 Awards to Non-Hoosiers

Out-of-state honor holders are: Judith Farmer, Madisonville, Ky.; Cheryl Huff, St. Catherine, Ky.; Susan Ritter, Middletown, O.; Mary Jo Boyle and Judith Tishaus, Cincinnati, O.; Mary Elizabeth Doll, St. Bernard, O.

After the coronation, Queen Karen Forszt entertains her Prom court: Bev Eckstein, Shirley Martin, Shirley Bill, and Sue Farny.

Poor Fielding and Hitting Thwart Pitching Efforts

by Bill Kelsey

Hopes for a successful season on the diamond were dimmed by the scholastic ineligibility of promising freshmen recruits and dealt a severe blow by injuries to key players. These misfortunes plus lack of key hitting and fielding turned a promising season into a tragedy.

Rudy Jansen and Jerry Williams did a commendable job on the mound but their efforts were thwarted by their teammates' weak glove and stick work.

Trio of Set-backs

After winning a double header from Rose Poly, the Knights were on the short end of three encounters, losing a tight one to Hanover 2-1, Anderson 8-2, and Indiana Central, 7-3.

Marian then surprised everyone but themselves by humiliating a cocky Xavier nine by the score of 7-1 in the Indianapolis tourney. The Knights then lost another close one to Indiana Central in the tourney final, 4-3. Central had advanced to the finals by nipping Butler, 7-6.

Coach Fields' boys then journeyed to Richmond for a game under the lights.

They lost themselves in the darkness, however, with both hitters and fielders having trouble picking up the ball in the lights in losing, 7-1. After losing two to St. Joe's at Rensselaer, despite strong hitting from Mike Werner, they returned to Earlham and split a doubleheader, losing the first game, 9-2, and winning the second, 5-1. Again Mike Werner led the attack with a tremendous 345 ft. home run and Jerry Williams chipped in with some timely blows.

Tony Benedict broke out of a slump and banged out two hits against mighty Purdue but the Knights lead was short lived as the Boilermakers went on to pour it on, 11-3.

At this time the players would like to commend coach Walt Fields for the fine work he has done with the lack of material provided. We hope that at some date in the near future he will be given a chance to show his coaching ability with the aid of a number of high quality athletes.

I May Be Wrong, but...

Jim Schott Sports Editor

Awards, awards, awards! The grade schools and high schools of today give bigger athletic awards than some major colleges and even some professional organizations. As a result of this fact, the following statements have been made: the athletes of today are spoiled; the extreme recognition of grade school and high school athletes tends to take away the true purpose of sports; grade school and high school athletes are being professionalized.

Today, the majority of athletes believe recognition should be given to grade school and high school athletes; however, this recognition should be limited. Below are listed various opinions of Marian athletes on the subject.

Mr. Walter Fields: "In grade schools some recognition should be given for participating in athletics. However, this recognition should be held to a minimum. Big banquets and awards should be reserved for high school and college."

Tony Benedict: "High school and college athletic banquets and awards are good, if not extreme. Some recognition should be given to grade school athletes—however, not extreme awards. A thank you is sufficient."

Bob Ayres: "Grade school, high school, and college—awards and banquets for all."

Bill Daley: "Banquets and awards for grade school, high school, and college are all right provided they are not overdone."

Ron Bornman: "I'm for athletic banquets and awards in colleges and universities; however, not too extreme—for example, a local speaker is sufficient. High school banquets and awards should be held at a minimum. Perish the thought of grade school banquets and awards."

At Marian College there is an athletic banquet with food, speeches, and awards held annually. All athletes have agreed that this banquet is acceptable and that there is nothing too extreme. Junior Bill Byers stated, "I think athletic banquets are fine, especially when I get an award." As a further hint he said, "Free food really attracts me; nevertheless I would appreciate more of it."

Also receiving scholarships are Susan Bocknik, Louisville, Ky.; Lynne Schulte, Rochester, N. Y.; and Dorothea Lanzefame, Chicago, Ill. Martin Stricker, Toledo, O., received a grant.

Foreign recipients include Floviana Joseph, Tanganyika; Makiko Kakumota, Japan; and Jane Ying, Hong Kong.

Newspaper Work Lures Journalists

Out of 200 applicants from 32 Indiana colleges, 100 student journalists were recommended for newspaper positions in recent screening by the Indiana Newspaper Personnel Committee.

Marianites recommended for summer newspaper work were: Mary Fran Beckmeyer, George Schmutte, Mary Margaret Turk, and Marie Jochim, all Phoenix staff members; and Joe Kempf, Fioretti and Carbon editor. Jack Cronin and Jim Schott, editor and sports editor, respectively, of the Phoenix, were recommended to Indiana editors for permanent positions.

Two of the group accepted positions for the summer. Joe Kempf will work for The Indianapolis News and Mary Fran Beckmeyer for the Decatur (Ind.) Daily Democrat.

Linkmen, Netmen Complete Season

It was an unusual season for Marian's golf and tennis teams. While the golfers compiled a 10-1 record, losses and wins respectively, the netters racked up a 1-8 mark.

Linkmen Lou Firsich, Karl Kernel, George Schmutte, Mike Noone, and Tom Ross completed a heavy road schedule, including nine matches on foreign soil. Firsich, the only varsity returnee, had the lowest rounds including a 78 against Anderson at inundated Coffin.

Vince Henn, Bill Daley, Tom Me-haffey, Joe Kempf, and Geza Horvath were the leading netters. Only the first three had previous varsity experience.

Both teams' unimpressive records, however, fail to reflect the individual time and effort put forth in an attempt to match colleges that emphasize athletics rather than a rugged curriculum.

Upcoming Summer Days Beckon Marianites to Work and Travel

by Diane Bomkamp

According to a recent survey, Marian students will combine travel, study, and work in various proportions this summer.

Some out-of-staters, such as Nancy Kathman, Carol Katis, and Maureen Laughlin, will return to Indiana, June 30, for the Jazz Festival in Evansville.

Travel Sites

Florida, California, and New York share the popularity poll of vacation sites with 13 other states and Puerto Rico, Mexico, Jamaica, Canada, and Germany.

Summer occupations range from assorted lab work to camp counseling.

Unusual jobs will be held by: Mary Goebel, advisor on how to clean rugs; Betty Hartman, blueberry picker; Nancy Kathman, soap packer; Dodie Kohn and Kathleen Sullivan, mission workers in Arizona.

Carolyn Schelle will be an alfalfa-stem sorter and counter in a soil-and-pasture lab at Purdue University; Rosemary Sikorski, bridal consultant; Judy Straub, stencil cutter for a tombstone manufacturing company; and Ann Wikander, chemical lab work.

Nurses Foresee Brief Respite

Nurses will continue training at St. Vincent's except for a two-week vacation.

But all will not be work. Roger McIntosh will attend the National Rollerskating championship in Michigan.

Jack Cronin In and About MARIAN . . .

Well, it's all over but the shouting (or crying, as the case may be). With the end of another school year here, one wonders what the statistics are on the number of term papers and book reviews turned in during the 24-hour period preceding final exams.

This also marks the end of four long, hard years of ballgames, dances, parties, socials, clubs, patronizing the "Pere," and a bit of studying for some of us. After having listened to many theories on how to better our world, we now get the chance to go forth and put them into practice. (What if they don't work?)

Those of us who are leaving the hallowed halls of Marian for the last time take away many fond memories, but the deepest thought that we share in common at this auspicious occasion is that we are finally graduating.

This, of course, is my au revoir as editor and columnist for the Phoenix. I kid you not, it has been hard work, but at the same time I have had a ball, masquerading as a journalist of sorts. If I have brought even a little joy into the lives of our readers, then I will be satisfied—satisfied if one of them would come around and offer me a job, that is.

The Old Philosopher says, "The whole world is watching us—while we watch TV."

Something Old, Something New . . .

Mary (Buttons) Ehringer chides me for neglecting to publicize the "10:30 A.M. Wednesday Hiking Association." (Sorry, Mary, but we didn't know there were that many people on campus who walked!)

Thanks to all our readers and friends (and/or enemies) and goodbye, to . . . Sr. Gertrude Marie, our moderator . . . the Phoenix staff (especially my two ever-faithfuls, Mary Fran Beckmeyer and George Schmutte) . . . jovial Fr. Frazee, who took a lot of ribbing from us this year (good luck, Father, we'll miss you) . . . Dean of Men, Fr. Courtney, (we'll be watching for his forthcoming book "1001 Excuses I Have Heard for Cutting Assembly Programs") . . . those B.M.O.C. (Big Men On Campus) Ron Cialdella and Mike Sifferlen . . . those ex B.M.O.C.'s, Larry Krepps and Larry Bowman . . . Karen Forszt (who managed to get her picture in all but two editions this year. Has she a publicity agent!)

Also, to . . . our man in Dana, Ind., Bill Jenks . . . the Vets Club and their abortive attempts at revolution . . . the Players and their excellent talent this year . . . the cutest Student Board President ever, Bev Eckstein . . . my fellow Board members (didn't we have a time this year) . . . Chau Phan, who really isn't a radical.

Finally, to . . . the administration and faculty . . . Steve Koppi and his all-girl entourage and the "Pere" . . . Tom Gordon and his fight against communism . . . Msgr. Doyle and his "Square of Opposition" . . . and to all of you whom we were unable to mention. It is not because we forgot you—it's just that we just couldn't spell your names!

Congratulations to . . .

Ron Cialdella and wife on the birth of their son Matthew Ronald, Apr. 20.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fox (Rosemary Acker, ex'60)—a second girl, Monica Sue, Apr. 12.

Msgr. Doyle; Fr. Frazee, Sr. Mary Carol, Sr. Mary Rose, Sr. Marie Bernard; all the fellowship winners, sports award winners; the freshman Phoenix staff; the new Student Board, class officers, club officers; all the Queens; and Ed Murphy.

Sudden Thought . . .

I have my degree—now what do I do?

Thanks — for a Job Well Done

Fr. Courtney

Marian wishes Father Courtney success in his new capacity as pastor and we know that with his boundless energy St. Luke parish will prosper. To fall back on a cliché, St. Luke's gain will be our loss.

With the appointment of Father Paul Courtney, Dean of Men at Marian College, as pastor of the newly-created St. Luke parish, Indianapolis, Marian witnesses the passing of an era.

Father Courtney, the first Dean of Men, was assigned here at the time the college was made co-educational in 1954. Being "first" in any new administrative position is a job in itself, and Father Courtney not only handled this in an excellent manner but at the same time taught psychology, was chaplain at the Indiana Boys School, Plainfield, and the Girls' School in Clermont, and served as associate editor of the Criterion, the archdiocesan newspaper, a post which he will retain.

The position of Dean of Men, having been "broken in" by Father Courtney, now becomes a matter-of-fact (though not an unbecoming) position. Thus the passing of an era—one of newness, of trial, of experimentation.

College — What Students Make It

It came as a great shock to us to see an answer to last month's editorial "Plea for Collegiate Perspective" as the lead editorial in the May 5th issue of the Carbon. We regard it as a shock because it is a rare occasion that we receive any response to our editorials. Not that they are so exceptional or particularly controversial, but they are intended to make some people think. Think enough to have and express an opinion, rightly or wrongly. We feel that one of the best ways of doing this is by writing a letter to the editor.

Carbon editor Joe Kempf both pleased and disappointed us. He pleased us in that he did have an opinion and he expressed that opinion. But at the same time, we feel that he could have done a better service by having his opinion published in the Phoenix. This would have given our readers the knowledge that we do get some response and it also would have been read by more people due to our greater circulation.

Joe expresses the thought that "a college is what the students are." The students make the spirit of the school. They decide how high the college will rank scholastically; how well it will be thought of; and even make a winning team in sports.

If people come to college acting, thinking, and studying like high school students, writes Joe, then obviously college will be no more than high school for them. To this may we add that if college instructors also treat these people as high school students, then there results a vicious circle.

How to treat such people is, of course, a problem in itself. But we feel that by continuing the emphasis on 'toughening' up the curriculum and entrance requirements (as advocated by the administration), many of the people now in college who have yet to reach college-age maturity will be forced to drop out.

Joe maintains that the student will accomplish only as much as he wants to, and that no one can force him to learn. Very true, but if that person refuses to learn—while in college—then it is the responsibility of the school to show him the door leading out.

We agree with Joe that a college is more than a physical reality and in transferring the above into our situation, "Marian is all that its students want and expect it to be."

Publications Report Staff Changes

The staff of the Marian Phoenix is happy to announce the appointment of Mary Fran Beckmeyer, Decatur, Ind., as editor-in-chief for the coming year. Mary Fran becomes the 25th editor of the Phoenix and replaces Jack Cronin, Indianapolis, editor for the past year, who graduates this June.

An English major, she has been active on the newspaper for three years, serving as associate editor this past year. At the recent convention of the Indiana Collegiate Press Association, she was elected first vice-president for 1961-62. Mary Fran also participates in the Honors Program and is a member of the Home Ec Club. She will be writing features for the Decatur Daily Democrat during the coming summer.

Jack, an Army veteran, entered Marian College as a transfer student in 1958. He served as a contributor to the newspaper during his first year here, and was later appointed feature editor for 1959-60. He was editor-in-chief of the Phoenix and Publications Representative on the board of the Student Association during the past year. He also ends his third year as an officer in the Marian College Veterans Club this month.

Date for release of the 1960-61 Marian has been set for late summer. The size of the yearbook this year has been increased from 8½" x 11" to 9" x 12", with an expected increase in the number of pages also.

Editor of the Marian is senior Shirley Bill. Assisting her are Mary Ehringer and Dee Metzner. Other staff members are Marie Mastruserio, art; Marie Krebs, layout; Bill Daley, business; and Ray Day, photography.

Dee Metzner has been chosen editor of the Marian for 1961-62, and Tom Tarpey and Harry Fekkes will be the business managers.

The forthcoming record issue of the Fioretti, college anthology, for 1960-61 will feature a commemoration of the Civil War Centennial. Planned for 1961-62 Fioretti are alumni and student issues, including a 25th anniversary issue.

Assisting Joe Kempf, editor, on the Fioretti this year have been Jerry Zore, Dodie Kohne, Marilyn Weinbrecht, Cynthia Stokes, and John Chapman. Maribeth Schubert has been named editor for the alumni issue.

New Carbon editor positions await Student Board decision. To Joe Kempt and Jan Janeschki go the credit for the past year's weekly news sheet.

Community Services, Sports Fill Lives Of Persevering Grads

by Mary Margaret Turk

"Seventeen years, four babies, and five summer schools later . . ." Mrs. Martha V. Parker, a history major, returned to Marian College to earn her college degree. She first came to Marian in September '41 as a resident. At that time Marian's enrollment was approximately 65 students. Alverna Hall and the former Clare Hall served as living quarters and classes were held in the present library building.

In the summer of '42, Mrs. Parker participated in an accelerated program which was stressed by the state of Indiana to "step up" education during the war.

Asks Location of Strategic Point

Mrs. Parker also recalls asking Sister Mary Carol where Pearl Harbor was.

The following summer she was married in California to Adrian Parker who was then serving in the Army Air Corps. On July 7, 1944, a baby girl arrived who later became the first namesake of Marian College.

As a devoted mother of four, Mrs. Parker has served as a Cub Scout den mother, Girl Scout troop leader, and as a member of the Cathedral Mother's Club and the Guardian Angel Guild in addition to an active membership in the American Legion Auxiliary.

On her return Mrs. Parker was impressed with the male enrollment. She feels that "a couple hundred more men will add to the cultural balance at Marian."

A deserving representative of Marian's athletic department is letterman Rudy Jansen. A business major and economics minor, Rudy plans to enter Indiana University Law School after graduation this June.

A Fort Wayne native, Rudy came to Marian as a sophomore from the IU Extension in his home town.

Mrs. Parker

R. Jansen

Active in Sporting Capacities

During his three years at Marian, he has earned major letters in baseball and basketball, and currently is vice-president of the M-Club and sports editor of the Marian. An active member in the S.A.M. Club, he also has served as class treasurer the past two years.

"Marian's potential is really tremendous and it has grown so much in the three years I have been here. Someday Marian will be highly recognized athletically as well as scholastically. I only hope Marian is permitted to realize its potential."

Sympathy

Faculty and students extend their deepest sympathy to Sister M. Dolorita, yearbook adviser and art instructor, on the death of her mother. Prayers will continue to be offered.
