

CARBON

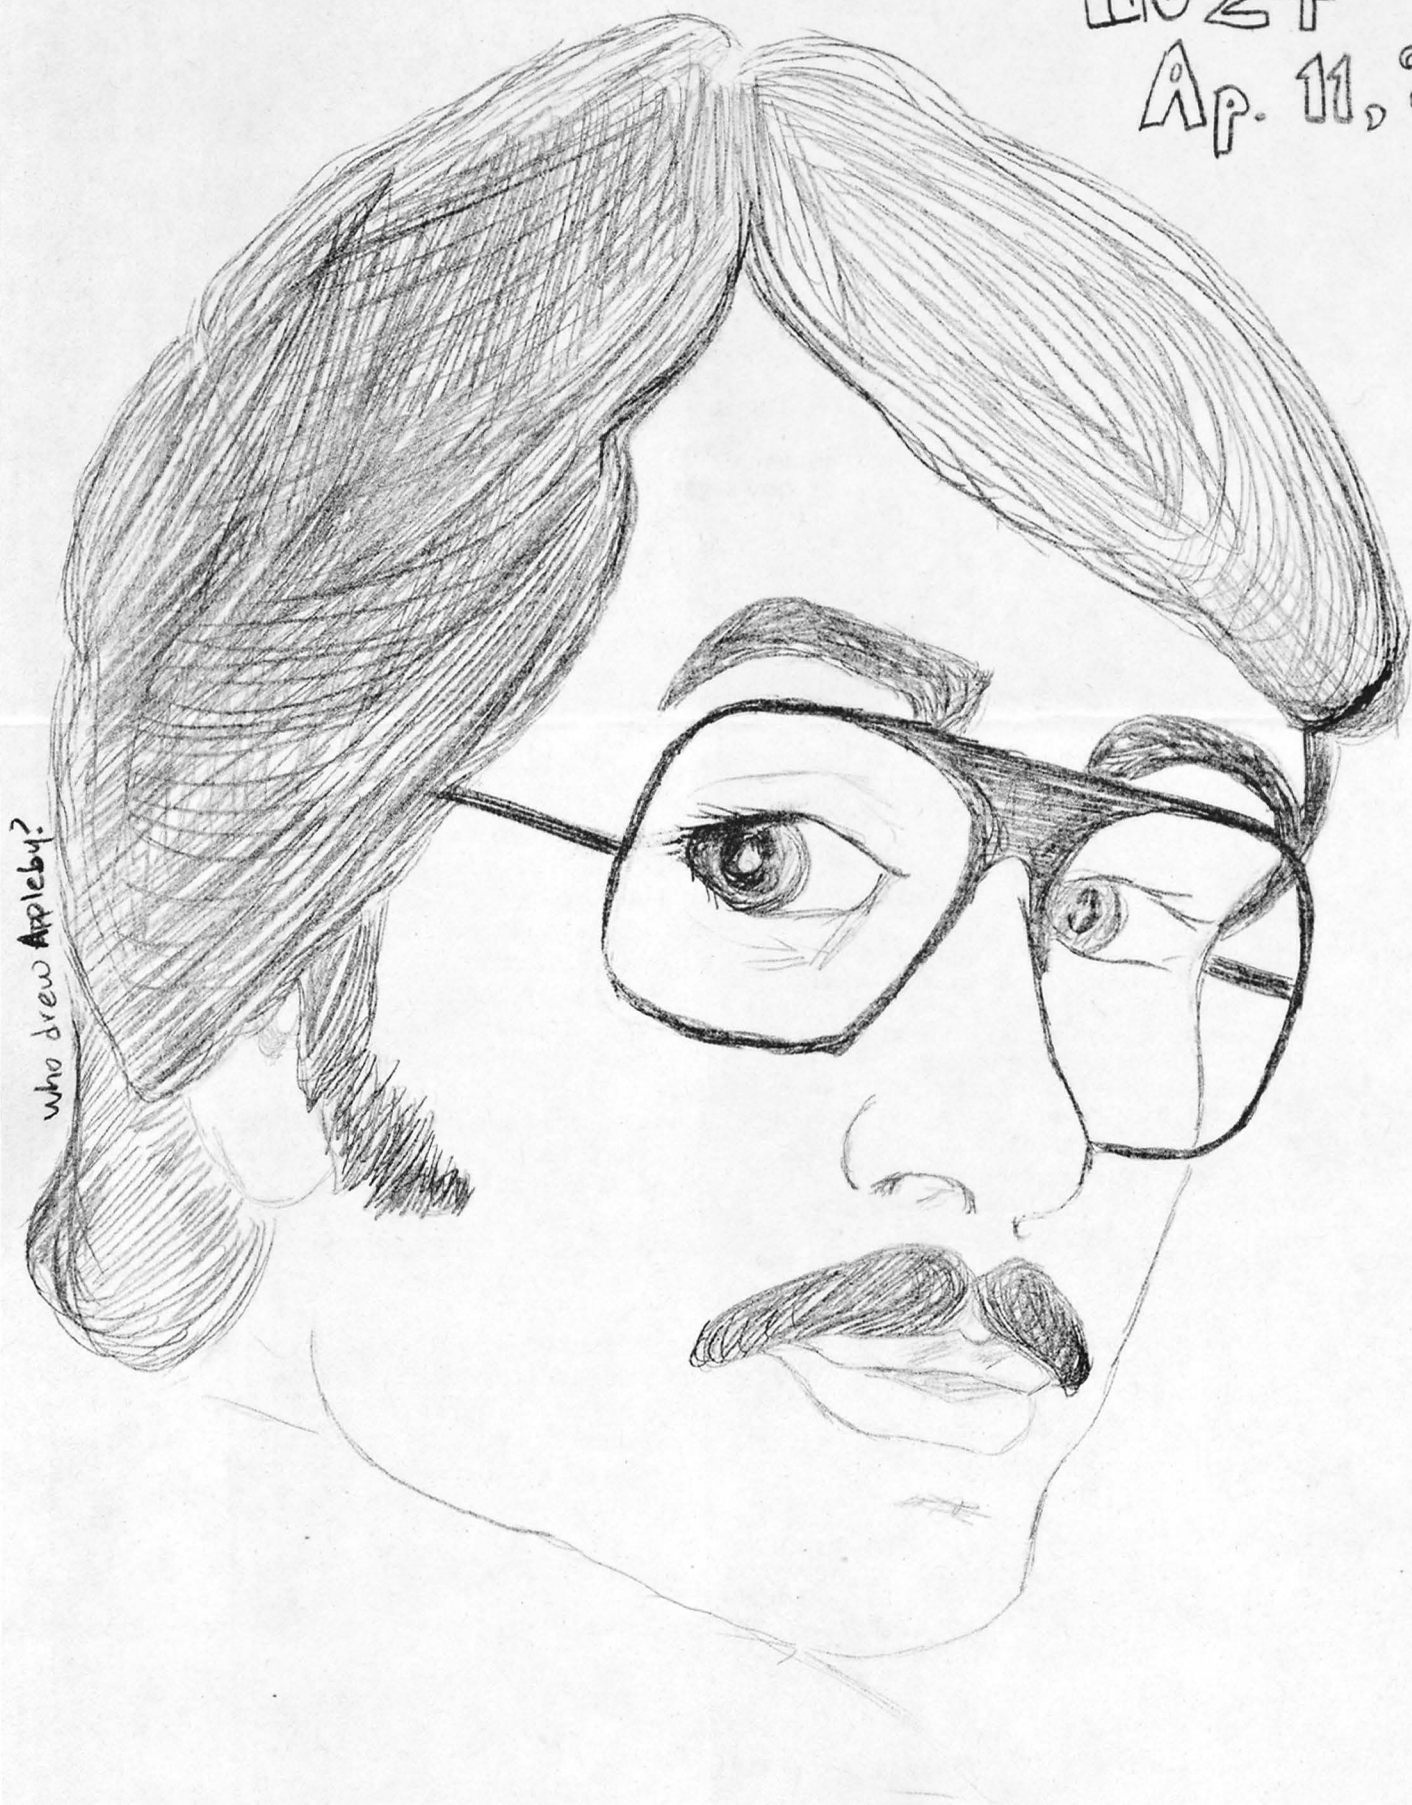

-ated

Who, Drew Appleby?

VOL 44

NO 24

Ap. 11, '80

The views of this publication are those of the individual writer and do not necessarily reflect Drew Appleby's B'day, or those of Marian College

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Fri., April 11 3:00 Women's Softball
vs. St. Francis, here

Sat. April 12 1:00 Men's Baseball vs
De Pauw, here

Sun., April 13 Men's Baseball vs.
IU Southeast, there

Tues., April 15 1:00 Men's Baseball
vs. IUPIU, here

Wed., April 16 12:00 noon Chamber Singers Performance,
Allison Mansion

3:30 Women's Softball
vs. Earlham, here

Thur., April 17 1:00 Men's Baseball
vs. Franklin, here

SYNOPSIS: DREW APPLEBY; THE EARLY YEARS

The story of Dr. Drew Appleby, Marian "golden boy and all around nice guy, is one of a young boy's struggle to emancipate himself, a prisoner of his environment. Born in Joliett, Appleby was raised on the riverfront with a view of the smeltery from the family's bay window. Fortunately, his parents realized young Drew's potential to exceed the proletarian way of life he would have assimilated into if not for their assistance. As Appleby describes it:

"A flower to grow
reaching beyond its own soil,
the world before him."

Braving and bearing the barbaric world about him, Appleby rose above and beyond it through books. Says he:

"It was the books that taught me enough as a child to better myself."

His interest in psychology started sooner than some, sorting through psychology books while still seven. Rats he rescued from the riverfront alleys and gutters were soon rapidly running around in mazes, readily retrieving little red balls and reacting reasonably well when receiving stimulation. The most memorable moment of his childhood was when his family gave him his first Skinner Box. He remembers fondly,

"It was Christmas morn
White snow, bright package with bow
Inside, a Skinner Box."

Adolescence (dreadful days, dared not remembered by most), were days dear to young Drew whose desire to become worldly and well-rounded drove him to hitchhike dutifully on Saturdays to the downtown Chicago library. But the experience was enlightening for a budding psychologist. As he explains:

"People going all places, coming from all places and
All with a story."

Has it happened as he had hoped? Has psychology succeeded in satisfying his sometimes suppressed search for superior mental processes? Has his potential peaked as planned by his parents? Can he humbly say he has only heaven left to conquer? Comments Appleby modestly:

"Of course."

Imagine the universe
beautiful, just and perfect, Then be sure of one thing:
the 'Is' has imagined it quite a bit better than you have.

Husions by Richard Bach -2-

ON CUTTING CLASSES

Most of us have been stricken down at one time or another by that empty, listless despair which assaults us at the approach of a certain class (or a certain day of classes) which we would rather not attend for deeply held reasons of our own. Generally, these reasons cannot be expressed in words. That just goes to show how deeply held they really are. They border on the profound. They knock on the door of the timelessly Abstruse. They are the unspoken and unspeakable commandments of the religion of lethargy. To most of us, they are those grand and fine moments when we assert ourselves in an effort to reach the heights of inconspicuousness.

But how often these attempts fall into shambles around our feet. No sooner have we made up our minds to skip a class, than who walks into the room but Herr Professor himself. The shame and guilt of our training probably shows. We heroically hide it by showing up for class in despite of our inclinations. And what makes it even more obvious is that we actively participate in a class in which we are usually as noisy as a lump of moss. We give ourselves away in the crazed hope that we are not giving ourselves away. What we don't realize at the moment is the bad precedent we are setting. But even the dullest of us become aware of this. Thus the necessity for skipping this class the next time, less we become relied on for knowledge. Time heals all things, even an instructor's misconstrued hope.

To some professors around here, cutting classes is something akin to premeditated murder. Though they can't hang you, that doesn't mean you won't be convicted. Even good, reasonable excuses are no help. Why, there have been times when I felt such an overwhelming need for a solid, varnished two-by-four of an excuse that I've made one up. Imagine that. After all, cars only break down once in a while and grandmothers can only die twice at the most. An acquaintance of mine became so enraptured at the idea of funeral festivities that every single living person he knew (except me, of course) entered the roles of deceased during his freshman year. This young life so overcome with tragedy, declared higher education a waste of time and did not return the next year. I have been more fortunate. Only forty-two of my closest relatives and dearest friends have passed on during my stint here.

I maintain that once in a while it is a necessity of the utmost importance to skip a class. Even so often you have to wash your tennis shoes or make the bed - and these things take time. You have to find this article where you can, and the undeniable fact is that large chunks of it are lying around the classrooms. Of course, cutting sometimes has the paradoxical effect of making you realize that the chances are pretty good that you really did miss something, but then again, this appears to be a singularly uncommon exception to the rule. It's never happened to anyone I know, anyway.

Nathaniel Pynchem

LITERATURE FOR THE ILLITERATE

The loneliness of an empty mailbox is something I desire not.

No letters, no mail,
not one little word.

Oh, well- I can't read anyway.

Signed,

Johnny

TO RATHER REMAIN...

Boycott the Carbon!? Boycott the Carbon, you say, Mr. R. R. Anonymous? What are you -- illiterate, or just plain stupid? My God, man, don't you see what you've done? You've exposed yourself to the college community as the unthinking, irresponsible child you are. Your anonymity cannot remain intact forever. We can spot the chinks in your armor. Just the fact that you're illiterate points to the likelihood that you're a phys-ed major. If not, your moronic impulses make it probable that you're in business. Which ever it is, it's obvious you're not in touch with the real world.

We here at college thrive on this illusion of intellectual stimulation and growth, and for such a fool as you to come out and start whining and moaning about the "Applauds and hisses" not being present in your precious Carbon, well, it makes me-for one-want to do a delicate dissection of your brain with a steam-shovel. If you have one, of course. Observation leads me to suspect that it might be a little hard to find in the first place.

Where do you get off anyway? Who told you that most of the students around here pick up the Carbon just so they can give themselves a cheap orgasmic thrill by seeing their name or some secret message in an endless list of other equally useless and mysteriously meaningless names and messages. Some of us have more important things to do than to constantly slip ridiculously small scraps of paper under the door of the Carbon office late at night, testifying of our latest love or of something else of general widespread interest.

Sure this is a student newspaper. This has been obvious to us for a long time, but since you seem to be a late bloomer, I won't get on you for that slip. However, this is a STUDENT CONTRIBUTION, in contrast to those inane piles of insipid garbage you seem to relish for your own digestion. Personally, I think the Carbon has only reached its height once or twice this year - and each time there were no Applauds, hisses or Confidentials. Just between you and me, confidentially, you understand, I applaud your contribution of last week, but I hiss its purpose.

Vindictively,
Nicholas Pendance

What Beast beest the Beastly Demon
That sayest we must proclaim
Our name
Upon all our written Rhetoric
In such a way that we remain
Open, helpless, thrilling game
For savage students euphoric
To maim
And joyfully commit atrocities
Upon our gentle bodicies

Its name is Poett,
Wouldn't you know it?
So why can I not then Sign this

Rapturously,
Alex Swifden

Average is as close to the bottom as to the top. -3-

A REPLY TO NATHANIEL PYNCHER'S ARTICLE ON STUDENT APATHY:

Here's what I have to say about your almighty accusations about Marian College's student apathy! Here's what I have to say about your inability to answer your own questions! Here's what I have to say about the mood you're in... WHO CARES?!

NA-NANA-NANANA

The Dutch Master

ATTENTION ALL PROSPECTIVE PROM-GOERS!

Due to circumstances beyond our control, the location of the prom has been changed. Instead of holding it at the downtown Hilton as originally planned, the prom will be held at the Columbia Club on the Circle. The date and time remain the same; April 19 from 9pm to 1am, and the band will be 'Promise'. Tickets can be purchased picked up Friday (today) in the caf at lunch and all next week in front of Marian Hall Auditorium. Cost is $7.50 per couple for juniors. Seniors are admitted free. Thanks for your cooperation.

The Junior Class Officers

CONGRATULATIONS...

to the new Sophomore Class Officers. They are:

President - Brenda Burkhart
Vice President - Janie Bube
Treasurer - Angie Sheridan
Secretary - Jim Miller
Student Board Rep. - Bonnie Cully

Thanks goes to the Freshman Class Officers and all those who helped to make this year's Freshman Class the best ever!

TO THE WOMEN OF CLARE HALL

Looking for a good time on Saturday the 19th of April? Would you like to go to the Prom with a real charm, great dancer, big spender, fun drinker, and one of the most handsome guys on campus?

I would like to go to the Prom, the only problem is I have no date!

Submit a complete resume, recent photo, and three references to the Carbon Office today, no later than 3:30.

Interviews will be held this Saturday, initial tryout will be held on Sunday. The winner will be notified by mail on Monday. For further info and appointment time, call: 353, Thorn Borg, or 383, Carbon Office.

Ill-gotten treasures profit nothing, but virtue saves from death. The Lord permits not the just to hunger, but the craving of the wicked he thwarts. The slack hand impoverishes, but the hand of the dilligent enriches. Blessings for the head of the just, but a rod for the back of the fool.

Proverbs 10: 2-6

PROJECT EASTER BUNNY

This thank you note could get very sentimental! I'm remembering the eight days before Easter when yearbook staffers and their friends (and families) played "Easter Bunny and Bunny Helpers", making many children very happy.

Our goal was to make money for our ailing yearbook account by helping Tiffany Studios get "kiddie pictures" with the Easter Bunny. We realized that goal and, in the meanwhile, shared new insights, fresh experiences and a lot of joy.

So, thank you Easter bunnies and helpers and Tiffany Studio. Your spirit and generosity are remarkable.

Sister Mary de Paul Schweitzer
Yearbook Advisor

THANK YOU

On behalf of Tiffany Photography Studio I wish to sincerely thank the Marian students who assisted me in the Easter Bunny Promotion at Lafayette Square. The project was very successful and could not have been accomplished without your enthusiasm, sacrifice, and hard work. It was a well coordinated team effort. I was extremely proud of all those I worked with and confidently know that we all benefited from the experience.

Again, my profound appreciation and perhaps our paths will cross again.

Gary Yohler

RETREAT - VOCATIONS CENTER

The Vocations Center is sponsoring a retreat for single men and women between the ages of 20-30. The retreat will begin at 7:00 p.m. on Friday April 18th and conclude at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 19th. The theme of the retreat is Speak, Lord, I'm Listening. Those attending need to bring only personal items and bedding sheets and blanket or sleeping bag. Cost of the retreat is ten dollars. Pre-registration and initial deposit are required. Participants are asked to send name, age, address phone number, and check or money order for 5 dollars to the Vocations Center, 520 Stevens St., Indpls. IN 46203. The phone number of the Center is 1-317-636-4478. Registration closes Wednesday, April 16th. Flyers available on chapel and campus ministry bulletin boards.

BOOSTER CLUB NOTES:

Congratulations to the New Functional Board Members!

On Tuesday, April 15th at 11:30 a.m. in the back dining room on the west side of the cafe, there will be an open meeting concerning Field Day. So all interested students and faculty please attend.

Bobbie

OPINION

The residence and meal contract sheets were punctually slid into our mail boxes once again. As expected and is always the case, the administration was reluctantly forced to raise the fees Year in and year out we end up paying more, but to whose benefit? We sow the dough but not generally reap the "heap" of benefits. The service is the same; certainly it's good to "maintain" "standards" but standard maintenance is what we are looking for - both in the caf and in the dorms. The beginning of this academic year saw some improvements in residence halls, but it lacked momentum and enthusiasm. The situation in the caf was disappointing. The mail service at Clare is very dependable, but Doyle needs organization. The security system both in and around campus, especially during short breaks, need to be strengthened instead of being preoccupied issuing parking tickets.

It is efficiency that the students are looking for. When an organization wraps the increase of costs in a blanket of inflation, it certainly should not forget to put the extra money charged to good use - to the benefit of the payer.

I would also like to mention the surprise we had at the caf when most of the students decided to spend the Easter weekend at their homes. They were lucky, but those who stayed behind were requested to pay for their meals. This in my opinion is not fair. Hope the administration will look into this matter responsively and responsibly.

Thank you,
NEEL

VICTORY

Thank the powers that be that they were able to quash those bloodthirsty insurgents, the Free Radicals. Such a threat as they posed to the college community has seldom been seen since the rabid riots of the late '60's. And the masterful way in which it was done! The old "divide and conquer" maxim. It just goes to show the power the proper authorities wield. Why, if you weren't aware that there was indeed a conspiracy afoot just a few short weeks ago, then there's no way you could be expected to know that that same ugly uprising has been strangled in its tracks.

A number of people have attempted to congratulate me on my foresight and courage to sound the alarms. This embarrasses me and I here publicly disclaim any undeserved credit. I just did what had to be done. Unfortunately, however, after the appearance of my appeal, my car's motor was entirely dismantled and placed in the driver's seat with a note attached to the disembodied carburetor stating that the same process could be applied to the human body. I believe someone is trying to frighten me. It won't work. My bodyguards have assured me that the German shepherds are loyal.

Dredly Nothrop, Esq.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

A pair of 5lb. weights and a pair of 10lb. weights have been taken from the weight room. Would whoever has them or knows where they are please bring them back? They are needed.

Thank you

U4**

SPORT SHORTS

KNIGHTLY NEWS

So far this spring, Lynn Marrell's baseball team has gotten wet. They are undefeated in five games played. They were rained out this past Tuesday at Huntington, and are hoping to get their game in tomorrow against DePauw.

The leading hitters (and their percentages) for the season so far are: Fred Shipley(.667), Kurt Guldner(.429), Tom Finchum(.375), Frank Rosado(.333), and Tim Berringer(.313). The Knights have outscored their opponents 34-12. Pitching this year is looking well with veterans Tim Berringer, Otto McGee, Mark Bateman and Paul Dodson. Coach Marrel is also looking into the future with Freshman pitchers Chris Brady, Tom Egan and Jim Osterling. The team has three pitchers with perfect ERAs (Berringer, Bateman and Osterling). The team ERA is an excellent 1.32. The team has also turned three double plays with one of the better double play combinations seen here at school in a while, with Shipley or Moorman at shortstop, Guldner at second and Bob (punky) Greer at first.

The Knights are looking forward to a successful season (if it ever stops raining). Don't forget the double-header tomorrow against DePauw starting at 1:00. Good Luck Knights!!

Little Tree

ALL STUDENTS!!!

Committee members are needed for next year. The committees with vacant positions are:

1. Academic Affairs — 2 students
2. Athletic Committee — 1 male, 1 female
3. Campus Ministry — 4 students
4. Faculty & Staff Affairs — 2 students
5. Financial Affairs — 1 student
6. Library Committee — 2 students (one of which must work in the library - work study)
7. Non-West — 2 students
8. Student Affairs — 3 students (1 of which must be a day student)
9. Teacher Education — 2 students
10. Judicial Panel — 1 sophomore, 1 junior, and 1 senior
11. Conduct Appeals - 1 soph., 1 jun. and 1 senior
12. Traffic Appeals — 2 students
13. Election Chairman
14. Social Planning Committee — 2 students from each class

Anyone wishing to be on one or more committees please fill out the form below by April 25th and return it to one of your officers: Bob Freese, Dale Wernke, Connie Ryan, or Mary Holste. If you have any questions, feel free to ask us. We will try to put a description of each committee on the bulletin board next to our office.

Committee

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Name

Class Rank (next year)

TENNIS TEAM RESULTS

Wabash (0-9)

Singles

Bob Freese (0,6)(1,6)
Bob Meyer (0,6)(0,6)
Chris Tuell (1,6)(1,6)
Nick Fohl (3,6)(0,6)
Mike Back (4,6)(3,6)
Roger Dahl (3,6)(1,6)

Doubles

B.Meyer/Fohl (2,6)(0,6)
Back/Dall (4,6)(6,3)(2,6)
Tuell/R.Meyer (1,6)(1,6)

Indiana Central

Singles

Mike Back (0,6)(6,1)(2,6)
Nick Fohl (3,6)(1,6)
Roger Dall (1,6)(3,6)
Bob Freese (1,6)(2,6)
Bob Meyer (0,6)(6,3)(7,6)
Karen Hall (3,6)(2,6)

Doubles

Back/Dall (4,0)
Fohl/Meyer (6,10)
Freese/Meyer (2,6)(2,6)

Rose-Hulman

Singles

Mike Back (4,6)(1,6)
Bob Meyer (1,6)(0,6)
Roger Dall (1,6)(1,6)
Chris Tuell (2,6)(4,6)
Ron Meyer (1,6)(0,6)
Dennis Hargis (0,6)(0,6)

Doubles

Back/Dall (1,6)(1,6)
Meyer/Tuell (1,6)(0,6)
R.Meyer/Hargis (0,6)(1,6)

INTRAMURAL VOLLEYBALL

The co-ed volleyball season is well underway. The twelve teams that comprise the two leagues represent approximately 140 students. The teams have already seen four sessions of league play. The next two confrontations, Monday the 14th and Wednesday the 16th represent a limited inter-league play.

League Tournament will be played on April 21st, 23rd, and 28th. Leading the Blue League thus far is Lagnaf and Mac's Gang each credited with 4 wins, in the Green League, B-B's is edging over J's with a 5-4 win margin.

For all the thrill one can conjure up on a week-night, come watch the excitement of these dynamic teams in action. Games are scheduled for 7,8, and 9 p.m. in the Clare Hall Gym.

STUDENTS AT MARIAN COLLEGE NEED YOU...

to volunteer to serve dinner at the 1980 Student Recognition Dinner. You can support your fellow students, and enjoy a great meal, too.

For those of you who participated and enjoyed it last year, and for those of you who would like to do it this year, here are the details:

It's a sit down dinner in the caf, honoring students at Marian for their accomplishments. We would need for you to serve this, starting at 5:30 on Sunday APRIL 27, until about 7:45.

You, too, will be provided with dinner. Dress is semi-formal- suits for guys, and dresses, skirts, or nice pants for girls.

If interested in helping us, please contact

Ann Hammond ex. 446

Sr. Stella ex. 266

Sr. Margaret Horney ex. 263

APPLAUDS APPLAUDS APPLAUDS

MY ROOMIE IN 323
"WRECKSANDENTS"
DARRYL'S BREAKFAST BUFFET
NEW COLLEGE COUNCIL CHAIRPERSON
DIANE STIER'S IPA PAPER
GOSSIP ON THE DANCE FLOOR
SLOW DANCING, CUTE GIRLS, AND 25¢ BEER
JOHNSON'S BABY CORN STARCH
BLUE ROOM
DR. WATSON
POP THAT CRITTER
DON'T FLY HIM ACROSS THE ROOM
NASHVILLE
SLOW DANCES AT NASHVILLE
MB'S DINNER
CAMPING OUT
WHAT'S MINE IS YOURS AND WHAT'S YOURS IS MINE
2 DOWN 8 TO GO
THE ARRIVAL OF SPRING
NO CLASSES ON FRIDAY THIS SEMESTER
A DATE TO PROM!!!!!!
PYROMANIAC GAYLE KING
THE ATTEMPT TO BURN THE COLLEGE (ALMOST)
ROBERTA, MEG, AND DIANA, AND POETT TOO
JOANNA ELMORE
SHEILA NAYLOR
TERESA BADER AND HER AUTISTIC HABITS
GROSS MOTOR SKILLS
MRS. JOHNSTONE
CIGARETTES...SALEM LIGHTS AND VANTAGE LIGHTS
JOANNA'S QUITTING SMOKING
DENNIS HANLEYS "HIGH"
TWO HUMANITY TESTS TO GO
THREE WEEKS LEFT OF SCHOOL
THREE SEMESTERS LEFT TIL I GRADUATE
PROM PROM PROM PROM AND PROM AGAIN
COLUMBIA CLUB
GREG SMITH THE JUNIOR CLASS PRESIDENT
CARE PACKAGES FROM HOME
AN UNCLE FOR THE FIRST TIME
6MORE MONTHS TIL I'M 21, AT LEAST ITS NOT A YR.
THANKS "BIG D"
DOCTOR APPLEBY'S BIRTHDAY, HOW MANY IS IT?
LISA NOT GETTING THE ANNEX
BEING THE ONLY MALE IN CLARE HALL AFTER 12:00
LOVING MY BODY ENOUGH!!!!!!!!!!
RUST NEVER SLEEPS, THE 12:00MOVIE
NEIL YOUNG

TUESDAY AND THURSDAY NITE CLASSES WITH TAMMY McC.
CLASSES THAT KEEP ME LAUGHING CAUSE OF THE
T STUPID QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED
THE CARBON WHAT A GREAT PUBLICATION
BEING ABLE TO WATCH MY WEIGHT SUNNY DAYS TO PLAY TENNIS IN BEING SHORT-DEDICATED TO KIM LESAGE
BREAKUPS AND BEING SINGLE
BEING CLASSIFIED AS A CHARMER
THE NEW CLASS OFFICERS FOR THE 1980-81 YEAR
CHARLIE BEAR OR C-BEAR
PACO'S EDUARDO IS A REAL WEIRDO
POETTS GERARD
MEGAN'S THORN
ENGAGEMENTS IN FIFTEEN YEARS, RIGHT MEG?

MORE CONFIDENTIALS

Gayle King- Better luck next time in blowing up the school.
Gayle King- Does a bunson burner and alcohol mix?
Joanna Elmore- Where in the world is Crawfordsville?
Joanna- has Gayle burned up the room yet?

hisses hisses hisses hisses getting kicked around at nashville a-holes and 3 piece suits spit up gossip off the dance floor not getting in at nashville shy people

dipits
rain, rain, and still more rain riding back with a big pain lisa mailloux
the caf's food
muffler clamps
not being 21 for another six months living to far away to go to florida for the weeken losing the tan that i had during spring break hisses that i can't mention getting older and looking it grey hair before i'm even 21!!!
kim and dan not returning next year not finding out if i got r.a. til the last minute being single while the rest of the school is engaged@ graduating and leaving all my friends behind more work than their could be more work and no more time to do it too much to do in to little time punk rock
no classes on friday's but having to get up at 7:00 to do homework, and doing homework al' day long!!!!!!!!!!
no more buzzes
when the buzzes are gone
i miss roommate, she's gone to chicago burt telling me i have no culture teachers telling me i aint got no gooder english no time to practice piano late nighters humanity test on thursday and any other day
bob freese
the weather getting colder going on a diet and gaining 15 pounds people who can eat and eat and not gain a lb.
not being on a volleyball team when everyone knew that i wanted to be on one.
no time to be in the one acts

CONFIDENTIALS CONFIDENTIALS

Lynn- Thank God for short necks, huh?
Becky- Glad you finally agreed that it's lunch!!
Becky- "It was such a horrible accident"
M.R.- Leave your F.M.S. at home
I Love YOU, kinda (perhaps)
Mike Collins-Are your eyes blue or brown?
Tammy McC.- The Lords Prayer was plagiarizes
by Luke.
Did you tell Aunt Ruby
Tammy and Rhonda- How do you spell Q, or is it cue or que?
Phil- who couldn't get in Wednesday night?
Denise- was the poker game worth losing your kids to?
Teresa and Julie- Where were you after 10:00 on Thursday night and thanks to who?
Teresa- was it worth signing out for?
Tammy- did you get a good cry Thursday night?
Chris Noel- who's your favorite person in your Religion class?
Bob Freese- Are we on the same level now?
Paul Butcher- sorry!

-6- Mrs Spelina - Thanks for putting out the Carbons last week - Meg + Roberta