A Carbon Caution: Danger. living..... 13 OCTOBER 1967

NO JOK(E)

United we stand, divided we fall. Yes, quite a cliché, but quite appropriate in relation to this year's Social Committee Fall Concert. As the Concert now stands "The Happenings" will be at MARIAN, October 31 for a two hour performance beginning at 8:30, with tickets priced at $3.00 for students and $3.50 for, the other people.

Before this above information could be confirmed and before "The Happenings" contract could be signed, a good deal of controversy took place on the Student Board and among the student body. As a result of this controversy some hostilities arose towards the concert. It is true that there will be night classes that night, that there may be a parking problem, that there is a big CYO dance on the Southside, that ..., but it is also true that the Concert is permanently scheduled. It now must be time to put aside our hostilities and to work united for a successful social event.

Again with this social event, as with all social events at M.C., the students will be faced with the ultimate decision of backing this endeavor. Some pressure will be taken off the M.C. students through a well-coordinated, city-wide publicity machine, which will launch into action on Monday, October 16. This machine will include saturation announcements on WIFE, and solicitation of tickets at all area highschools and colleges. Such a social event can greatly aid in spreading the name of MARIAN to the people of the Indianapolis community as well as in bolstering the pride of M.C. students towards their college.

The CARBON staff, or editor, is not naively expecting that all M.C. students will pack M.C.'s Carnegie Hall, for we realize that not all the students are passionately in love with the sounds of the "Happenings". And we also realize that not all students have $3.00. But, please, back the event. Back the concert by talking it up to people who will go, by proudly saying that M.C. can even support such a happening and not by clustering in some sterile Doyle or Clare Hall room, on the night of the concert, and complaining about campus social life.

ACTIVITIES AND ALL THAT

The Art Club, henceforward and forever to be called the Art Club, will meet Oct. 19, at 11:30 in the SAC (m.l.) to hear Mr. Pat Haynes map out the tentative plans concerning the glorious and beautiful interior design of the SAC. Heading the Art Club for the next year, at least for the next week, are Pres. Steve Jones; V. P. Cathy Meyer; Sec-Treas. Mary Sherman; drama representative, Jon Ramsy; literary representative, the entire carbon staff and Carole Fuhrmann; SAC representative, Margaret Mootz; and elected again, faculty advisor, Mr. Sternecker. (Let's hear it for him, y'all!)

Tonite's the night everyone goes charging (dignified, of course) to the Annual M-Club dance at the Southside K of C, to see if Patty Abel, Diane Sgro, Terri Disque, or Cindy Werner (senior, junior, sophomore, and freshman, in that order) is crowned M-Club queen or if some write-in candidate will win out. Sonic Sounds are playing, so get on over where the action is.

Speaking of Action, Agapé II will "happen" at Brown County again next week-end Oct. 20, 21. Unconfirmed reports not yet in from those who happened at Agapé I indicated that a christian experience "without God" in the wilderness was "different", "exhilarating", "enlightening", and other things we won't go into here. Watch for poster in the Perc for more info.

Attention all Business, Accounting, and Economics Majors: Mr. Edwin W. Norries of the Department of State Revenue will be on campus,

THE RAINS CAME BUT THEY PLAYED ON

In spite of a steady rain on MARIAN Stadium intramuralists managed to get in a full schedule of contests.

Defending champ Gash rebounded from last week's opening loss to the faculty by taking the frolic out of the Frosh's afternoon and rolling up a 28-6 victory in the mud.

The Lost Souls recovered from their wanderings long enough to thump the intellectuals-turned-athletes, The Brains? by a 27-6 count.

The Manuahs kept mixing and racked up a 19-0 whitewash over the Gray Power.

The stiffest competition of the day came in the contest which pitted Terrible Tom & Co. against the Big Ten. Speed prevailed over brawn as Richie and the other nine sloshed to a 16-6 victory.

The Intramural Team finally fielded a team and rolled up a 22-0 conquest over the W.C.C.F.'s

After the first two weeks of play Manuah Mixers, the Big Ten, and the Lost Souls are atop the standings with their 2-0 standards. The Gash, T.T. & H.H., the Brains? and Intramural Team are next with their 1-1 slates. Gray Power, W.C.C.F.'s and Frolicking are winless in two starts.

The slate for October 15:

- 12:00 The Big Ten vs. Intramural Team
- 1:00 W.C.C.F.'s vs. the Brains?
- 2:00 Terrible Tom & H.H. vs. Gray Power
- 3:00 Gash vs. Manuah Mixers
- 4:00 Lost Souls vs. Frolickin' Frosh

In Dorm League play Bob Clement's Basement men romped to a 33-0 decision over Tom Gannon and his 2 North mates. The sophomores of 2 Middle wiped out Tom Zackowicz's frosh 1 North team 21-0, even without captain George Nix. The 1 East "All Stars" of Jim Graf succumbed to the 2 East sophomores and John Wiles by a whopping 33-0 count.

A very strong Taylor University squad dominated the Earlham Invitational C.C. meet at Richmond Tuesday with MARIAN finishing last in the final team tabulations. MARIAN, running without the services of number one runner Jeff McQueen because of illness, was paced by Mike Mealy's 26:15 and Frank Della-Penna's 26:42. The Knights entertain University of Louisville in their first home meet of the season this Tuesday.

AT LAST ... A STAFF

After a long and torturous search the CARBON has finally come up with a Pulitzer Prize winning staff which includes: sports writer Brett (belch) Willoughby, Board reporter Sue (tell it like it is) Mailloux, Not that It Matters, But... John Lynch, truth seeker Denny Kucer, Around Naptowners Grace Struck and Kevin Rogers, feature writer, and just feature, "Chicago" Dan Lempa, activity seeker Janie Goebel, cartoonist Bill Malezan and last and least, number four typist, Nancy Schwab.

In a gesture of intra-campus friendliness, the editor would personally like to thank the men at Chabanel House at Xavier U. for putting up with a MARIAN border this summer, yours truly. Thanks to Fred, Frank, Mike, Joe and all, but not Pete, who still owes me $2.00. jo'k

BOARD REPORTS

"Whereas, it is in the interests of the entire college community that rules, which no longer have applicable reason for existence, be minimized, thereby maximizing community harmony" and "Whereas, this proposed change would in no way conflict with the aim of MARIAN College"

The change passed by the Student Board last night 10-0-1 resolved that "the regulation in 1967-68 Student Handbook concerning dress be amended to read as follows: cleanliness, neatness, and the ordinary standards of good taste will be expected of all MARIAN students. Formal wear is expected in Marian Hall on class days, chapels, Music Building and Auditoriums. (Jeans, levis, T-shirts, women's slacks, sweat shirts, bermuda shorts etc., are types of casual dress considered inappropriate in these areas). More formal attire, such as tie and coat for men and correspondingly appropriate dress for women, is expected on Sundays in the Dining Hall. Dress for activities such as swimming, sunbathing etc., is permitted only within the confines of the pool, or for resident students in the areas set out in Hall regulations; and that the appropriate dress in the library, daily; dining, daily (except on Sundays and on occasions of announced dress-up dinners): and Marian Hall on non-class days be left to the discretion of the individual students.

This legislation is long overdue and besides this seems a more than reasonable request by the students. The president and the vice-president are now working on carrying out the mandate. Wednesday nights meeting also:

- 1) officially pronounced the M.C. Pages as a campus club.
- 2) showed that Rick Entrikin has the possibilities of being a publicity whiz-kid - The Happenings have to be a success.
- 3) Initial work in renovation of committees took place, including the areas of academic affairs, traffic violations, convocations, lounges, constitutional revisions, student welfare, and discipline. If any student is interested in working in these areas contact a Board member soon. (One suggestion might be that the area of orientation requires a committee.)

Highlights for next Wednesday at 6:15 in the SAC Lounge include: Santa Claus, smoking and perhaps "pure social norms".

- The CARBON Hisses

Chem Prof: What can you tell me about nitrates?
Stu: Well-er-they're a lot cheaper than day rates.

Q. Why must the student be 23 years old or older in order to choose his own off-campus housing?

A. In order for MARIAN College to operate effectively, it must maintain the dormitories at full or near full capacity. If the student was allowed to choose his own housing upon reaching 21, the administration feels there might result a drainage of on-campus residents. The college would, therefore, suffer a financial loss.

Q. Is there any truth to the rumor that new security men will be added to the campus cop corps?

A. Yes, another man is now being sought. This will reduce the amount of hours the present two-man force must now put in in order to protect students from all kinds of evil stuff.

Q. Why aren't the needed repairs in the dorms taken care of more quickly?

A. The administration is unable to answer this question; they, too, would like an answer. It would seem that broken window latches, jammed doors, faulty heater controls, burned out lights, and the like would be the first concern of our janitorial staff. Apparently they've moved on to bigger and better things, somewhere.

AROUND NAPTOWN

Okay, people and M.C. students, here's the inside scoop on Indy happenings:

Clowes will be hosting several musical specials. Heading the roster is the Harkness Ballet of New York with performances on October 20, 21, 26 and 28 at 8:30 p.m. Tickets range from $2.00 to $10.00. On Oct. 18, Mantovani will direct his orchestra starting at 8:30. Modern is the keyword for this show with admission prices from $2.50 to $5.50. George Shearing will head a pop concert on Oct. 27 at 9:00 p.m. with the same price scale as the Mantovani show. And, don't forget, the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra with violinist Stanley Weimer tonite at 8:45. Remember, M.C. students pay only $1 a head, and in most cases this means $1 a person.

For those who dig dances, Le Scene at 1116 Prospect St. is open Friday and Sat. from 7:30 p.m.-11:00 p.m. Tonite "The Pictorian Skillfuls" will play. Admission ranges from $1.25 - $2.50 depending on the band. For info call 636-9718.

Noting the popular reception of the "Third World" coffeehouse recently, add another "happy haven" to the scene. "The Glass Darkly" is open every Friday from 9 p.m. - ??? in Butler University's Newman Center basement. Admission is non-existent and the coffee is free. Come as you are (if you dare).

FIVE STAR SPECTACULAR is not what you'd call this week's movies, but there is some interesting viewing nonetheless. Enter Laughing is now at the Lafayette Road Drive-In at 7:00 p.m. At the Meridian Drive-In, The Long Duel will provide the action if you hate your date. For those of you who think it's too cold for a drive in (are you kiddin'?!?) the Nora Theatre, 1300 E. 86th St., will have A Rough Night at Jericho with gun-fire starting at 7:30 and 9:30.

Coming up at the Ransburg Auditorium at Indiana Central College will be the comedy play Jezebel's Husband. It will run from Nov. 1 thru Nov. 4. And if you get there at 9:00, it will be too late because the play starts at 8:30 (p.m., that is).

For you old camp counselors, who want to see what arts and crafts are really like, grab somebody with a car and take a trip out to the Sheraton Hotel in French Lick Springs. Besides a wild display of Mom Nature's fall plumage, you'll be treated to crafts produced by some of Indiana's most talented potters, painters, weavers, sculptors, wood carvers, and enamel and glass workers. Saturday thru Monday are the days or else all that will be there is Mom.

Also, for you who dig this art jive, the Talbot Gallery, 115 E. 21st St., will open the 1967-68 season with Conroy Hudlow's presentation of prints, drawings, and paintings, along with one piece sculptures.

Since last week's tea was such a groovy social blow-out, popular demand pleaded with Mrs. Cletus Peabody for a come-back. But the old girl is totally done in socially for the year, so the gang is meeting in Henrietta Snurd's backyard for impromptu leaf collecting. Again, this is not an advisable activity for those with weak hearts. See you there, swingers.

MISS TIERRA DEL FUEGO CONTEST

The CARBON banner holds high its lantern of beauty to take part in that eternal, mundane search for the just right bod. And the staff has finally deduced that the most beautiful women in the world come from that South, South American resort isle, Tierra del Fuego (and if you don't believe the staff, just ask any Tierra del Fuegan male).

Here's how the contest will work. All Tierra del Fuegan females are eligible and must send in the following: two birth certificates authorized by the village chieftan, one full profile, silhouette snapshot taken against the cliffs of the Straits of Magellan and verified proof of virginity (a must in any American contest). Enter as many times as you like. All Entries must be postmarked no later than midnite October 12, 1967.

VACATION . . . IN . . .
INDIANA

LEAVE MARIAN ALONENOT THAT IT MATTER MUCH, BUT....

So you say MARIAN leaves much to be desired. There's nothing to do. Disgustingly boring, isn't it? As an overall excuse you say MARIAN is not what you are looking for in a college. And after hearing that, after four weeks of school, approximately half-a-dozen freshman dormies have expressed desires to leave at semester and that at least double that amount at the end of the year, definitely shows some resentment is breeding.

To criticize MARIAN is not hard. The regulations, administration, the maintenance department, the limited number of majors offered, the academic worth of some courses, and of course, a Marianites social life - if that's what you would even call it - all are lacking certain qualities.

Well you are exactly right! So stand up and be heard. Voice your opinion. Take an active interest, by investigating the problems and offering your solutions. With over 25 extra-curricular activities, participation in one of them, if not at least an active interest in your class, will help the image and promotion of MARIAN College. Sure, we might not have it so good, and it makes one wish he was born about 10 years later, but that pride of working to better this school, just can't be beat. This is the era of change at MARIAN - why not get with it or get out!

So all I propose is for each of you to seriously evaluate the activities and join one. They have as much to offer and gain from your participation as you do. Then see how you feel about MARIAN, and if anyone would like to throw rocks at the CARBON windows, it's located on the southeast, third floor of the Student Union Building (S.U.B.)

Monday, October 16, in the Student Personnel Office (SAO).

Don't forget to bring your parents to the fun and games on October 22. Featured activities will include a real live Bernie Lunch, a superb excellent and beautiful concert by the Drum and Bugle Corps, the great and wonderful faculty reception in the music building and anything else the Spirit moves the Student Board to Dream up.

If you have the time and the courage... A bus will leave Christian Theological Seminary at approximately 7:30 p.m., Oct 20 and return there around 10:00 a.m., Oct 22. The cost of the bus will be between $20 and $25. Funds will be raised at MARIAN To sponsor interested M.C. students who cannot raise the money themselves. A peace movement is being formed on Campus. Watch for further details.

Keep them cards and letters comin', folks, about how you like (of course) the new Perc and library hours. Somebody up there likes to change the hours to confuse us so here's the re-re-revised schedules: Library: Mon-Sat 8:15-5:00, Mon-Thurs 6:30-9:30, Sun 12:30-5:00, 6:30-9:30. And to get us confused even more, the Perc has new hours too: Perc: Mon-Fri 8:00-4:15, Mon-Wed 7-10:30, Tues-Thurs 6-10:30, Fri, Sat, Sun (optional) 7-10:30, Sat. and Sun. afternoon 1:00-4:00. For those interested (aren't we all?) "Optional", when used in reference to the Perc hours, means that these hours are optional. Check Webster's dictionary for other meanings.

WILL THE CARBON EVER COME OUT WITH FIVE PAGES?

It sometimes appears as if it were the grace of God alone that prevents man from becoming overwhelmed by the trials and tribulations of the everyday world. What with the pressures of the Viet Nam war, the war on poverty, the inner city racial war, and Lady Bird's war on highway billboards; it will be a truly perseverant mankind that survives the nuclear age. But now a new threat to happiness and a peaceful existence has entered the scene. Armed with freshly sharpened hat pins and viciously raised eyebrows the Indiana Daughters of the American Revolution have flooded the contemporary battlefield ready to give honor to their noble ancestry.

Recently The Indianapolis News published an editorial commending the Hoosier D.A.R. for having gone on record at their convention for a "firmer policy toward America's relentless foreign enemies". Between sedate munching on cookies and dainty sipping of positively non-alcoholic punch, the "girls" found time to endorse the truth of General Douglas MacArthur's famous statement: "There is no substitute for victory". The group urged the Johnson administration to stay the course in Viet Nam until "the Communists are routed and the freedom of the South Vietnamese is secured".

Not content with mere victory in Viet Nam the D. A. R. called attention to "The efforts of the Castro regime to subvert neighboring countries and urged the U.S. Government to contain and eventually eliminate this threat to the security of America's southern flank".

Our enlightened evening newspaper was so moved by the group's appeal to the warmongering instincts of the American public that it labeled it a "dedicated and determined defender of America's heritage and freedom".

It appears however, that the Indiana D.A.R.'s sisters in Washington, D. C. are a bit more selective in regard to exactly to whose freedom they defend. Several months ago, skinny, friendless Joan Baez found herself locked out of D.A.R. owned Constitution Hall in that city where she was scheduled to give a performance because she had the audacity to exercise her freedom of speech in regard to the Viet Nam war. Not that it matters much, but it seems a little consistency would be in order.

Oh, for the day when Hoosier women packed Persimmon preserves and swept the outhouse floor! The entire image of American womanhood is being undermined by this seditious group of do-gooders. Perhaps the only consolation we mild-mannered peace-lovers can find when next confronted with a wildly fanatic member of D.A.R., brandishing hat-pin with one hand and leaning on a cane with the other will be found in the gently, if not quite completely appropriate words of Marv Dow Brine:

"She's somebody's mother, boys, you know,
For all she's aged and poor and slow."

J. L.
