MOVIE REVIEW-- GOLDIE AT HER BEST

Dozens of Marian College students and faculty were lucky enough to attend the Indianapolis Premiere of Wild Cats. This Warner Brothers release is rated R and stars Goldie Hawn in her funniest, most daring, action-packed role yet.

Wild Cats is predictable but very funny. Both slapstick humor and one-liners keep the audience laughing and cheering throughout the film. Old jokes are used in fresh new ways, while new jokes expose a tough but funny side of Goldie Hawn that audiences haven't seen before.

She is a girl's track coach who gets the chance to head varsity football at an inner-city Chicago high school. With lots of funky rock 'n' roll and action-packed-action, the film moves quickly as Goldie transforms a hell-raising group of high school flunkies into a powerful football team. As they work from despised last place to the city championship in a season, one can't help drawing parallels with the Bear's Superbowl season. The parallel is intended. Why... there's even a football shuffle during the ending credits.

In conclusion, it appears that Goldie had a terrific time making Wild Cats, and for those who want to share the laughs and action, Wild Cats is highly recommended. But a warning: Those with a weak heart for strong language should be advised that Wild Cats is rated R for a reason. While those with thicker skin should sit up, laugh, and cheer the show!

"I AM THIRD"

"I am Third" was a camp motto that FCA member Brad Kolter shared with other members at the FCA meeting Sunday, February 16. Brad opened the meeting by sharing a few of his experiences at a YMCA camp where he gave his time to 9-10 year olds for a summer. "I am Third" designates God first, others second, and self third. It was a motto that all campers strove to live by. Brad has held on to that motto for himself as well.

Sam was a nine-year old who was very homesick. Brad relayed, and who found God through this motto. The boy wanted to give up but Brad kept encouraging him. By concentrating on God and others, the boy succeeded and remained.

Happiness and good friendships come from focusing on and caring about others. When I'm selfish or angry, Brad said, I ask myself, "Is that the 'I am Third' motto?"

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes will meet again on March 2 at 8:00p.m. in Clare Hall Lounge. The IUPUI group will join them. All are welcome to share.

UPDATE

Sister Margaretta Black, Dean of Academic Affairs, has not reversed her decision regarding the retirement of Sister Vivian Rose. However, while speaking to Sister Vivian last week, Sister Margaretta stated that a final decision has not yet been made.

FROM THE EDITOR--

PERSPECTIVE ON THE FIGHT

People have been placed into categories lately. Black and white, the good, the bad, and the ugly. Words are being thrown as stones and time is being used as a weapon.

There is a fight on Marian's Campus and unfortunately, it is not subordinate to the family that we are as Father Frank Bryan so aptly pointed out to us from the pulpit on Ash Wednesday. We have been sucked into the passionate play of mud-slinging and accusation throwing. Controversy thrives and, like the episode of "Knightstalker", things have grown, confusion is predominant, and we're not getting anywhere.

I have been in the fortunate/unfortunate position to hear both sides. There is a student-initiated response in the planning stages now and I've heard the pros and cons of that also. What is the answer?

Sister Margaretta Black refuses to make a final decision for some weeks. Yet, the student body demands an answer now.

I am reminded of a musical popular in Ohio, in which the tenor now and then sings almost fearfully, "Which force will win, the strong or feeble? Which will prevail?"

Getting back to our family, perhaps the idea of who will prevail is wrong. This is not a case of "you win" and "you lose." The students feel if Sister Vivian Rose is granted an extension, everyone will win, Sister Margaretta included.

Regardless of whose side we're on, we must remember Christ's words: "What good is it if you love your brother? Do not (sinners) do as much? Love your enemies. Do good to those who persecute you." "Enemy" and "Persecute" are strong words, too strong for our family here at Marian. Nevertheless, Jesus' command applies.

The students will continue to keep the issue in the spotlight; they feel they must be heard. If they were to back away now, and let the decision rest, an ideal would be murdered, a right be suppressed.

Let us, however put conditions on our fighting. Let us surround it with honesty and compassion and most of all, a thirst for what is right.

A SILENT, DEFENSELESS MAJORITY

This letter goes out to the entire student body of this school.

My concern over the issue of Sister Vivian Rose's retirement has been overwhelming. I, being a music major, have a very strong compassion and respect for Sister, perhaps more than others. However, anyone who has had Sister for Humanities or other courses, can easily see her dynamic enthusiasm as an educator.

Sister Vivian Rose is not, however, the only educator here who faces retirement at this time. Sister Florence Marie Rose is a very fine mathematics professor, who was not permitted to teach this year. Sister Marie Pierre Buttell, an excellent German professor, also faces retirement, but has not yet been informed directly as I understand.

Sister Vivian Rose is different from the other two only in that she has been informed; she has a strong desire to continue teaching, and has a department faculty who also wish her back.

The reason we have capitalized on V.R. is due to her overwhelming popularity and our hopes that she will be a precedent for present and future faculty members who will be affected by the retirement policy.

It must be made aware to the student body however, that this fight is for much more than V.R. and the retirement issue. We, the students are left unheard, and unrespected on many issues that do concern us.

Those of us who have taken a concern to an administrator here can verify that although they may sit quietly and listen to us they never really hear us.

We all pay over $6,000 a year to attend this school, with costs rising annually, and somewhere along the line the administration has come to consider us a silent defenseless majority.

We now have the opportunity to set a precedent not only for our educators, but also for our right to be heard, respected, and to be a voice in decisions that will affect us all.

This is not for one, not for a select group, but it is for all present and future students of this college.

NAIA PLAYOFFS

Marian's Knights are looking forward to their first NAIA District Playoff game this year on Tuesday evening at 7:30. I personally predict a victory for the Knights with a score of 72-58. Although they won't know who their opponent is until Sunday, Coach Grimes is sure the game will be here. He, along with the team and cheerleaders, requests your attendance and support, and urges you to bring friends and parents. Bring your sisters and brothers. Bring Herb. After a victory on Tuesday, the Knights will be on the road in search of yet other victories, beginning with a Thursday evening away game.

Marian suffered a defeat Wednesday evening with a score of 78-58 against Depauw (who is ranked #2 in the nation). Dave Mahurin contributed 16 points and 4 blocks while Mike McKenzie added 10 to the scoreboard. Another agonizing loss to IUPUI Saturday (66-54) leaves the Knights with a 24-game total of 13-11. Dave Mahurin once again led the Marian scoring drive with a one-game point accumulation of 21 followed by Mike McKenzie's 12 points. Sophomore Dave Back contributed 11 points and was the team's leading rebounder with 9.

The Knights took on Franklin College Wednesday night at home but no information was available at press time.

The Knights also take on Indiana Tech. Saturday at 3:00 in their last game of the regular season. This game is away and I predict a victory with a score of 68-52.

We again request your attendance and enthusiastic support as the Knights play their first NAIA District Playoff game Tuesday at 7:30. See ya there!!
