LETTERS TO THE EDITORS

Dear Carbon:

It seems apparent that legality serves no purpose here at Marvin. The answer is and will always be "no." I am referring to Marian's absurd policy that a student cannot live off campus until they are the ripe old age of 22. The cut off date for this is September 30th, and I understand I miss the date by 32 days. This deadline makes it virtually impossible for anyone to keep their sanity by moving off campus.

I followed all the proceedings concerning the form for off campus housing. I worked on the personal essay second semester this year, and it took me three weeks for the five page essay. It took student services two weeks to reject it. Ann Buchanan, our novice resident director, has decided that it is better for me to solve any personal problems I have by staying on campus. As for Dean Brames, he graciously and (as usual) eloquently told me that my personal reasons were insufficient. How he could say this without knowing me is beyond me? When I left His office the first time, I felt like a walking $.

After hearing the hassle one female student was given (this student was referred to by the Dean as a liar and cheat, although he did have the decency not to mention her name), I decided to do things fairly and refile for off campus housing again for next year. Of course, they can't make an exception. In my most recent interview with Dean Brames, he gave me hope for next year (a new thing for student services). He told me that if I was going to summer school, new conditions existed. More money would be coming into the school from me.

This time I had to wait patiently for them to find the application that Dean Brames misplaced, but the answer for me was still "no." I, therefore, decided there must be someone that I can appeal the decision to. Even the government has a system of checks and balances. I made an appointment to see the President on April 21 at 8:00 a.m. Dr. Guzzetta's office called me on the 19th to inform me that there was no need to come in. Dr. G. decided to uphold the Bull's decision. Dean Brames was allowed to present his case, but a student was not.

The whole situation is absurd, especially when a student is nearing the age of 22. All I can say is that Dean Brames and his partner Ann Buchanan can sure dish out the shit. If I move off campus, several things can happen. I could be put on conduct probation. The ultimate weapon is expulsion (excuse me, Dean Brames prefers the word "forced withdrawal"). That's too bad, especially for a senior.

I would like to close with a parallel between Dean Brames and General Custard. As Custard lead his men to their stand and the Indians begin to surround them, Custard very calmly (I might add the word eloquently) said, "But you can't reverse a Custard decision." You know what happened to Custard and his men. What will happen to Marian?

Dear Friends:

The war in Indochina must end. Already the number of people killed, American and Vietnamese, soldiers and civilians, has surpassed Nixon's slow withdrawal and "Vietnamization" program will assure the death of many more. Forty eight per cent of all government expenditures goes to current military expenditures. America's resources are being drained away into the war while needed domestic programs go without funds. Even so, Nixon has stated that as American troops withdraw, military aid to the Saigon government must be increased. The war is destroying the resources of Vietnam. Large areas of formulas have been ruined by chemical defoliants. The tonnage of bombs dropped on Vietnam exceeds that of World War I, World War II, and the Korean War combined. 5,000,000 people have been made refugees by American bombing. The American people are frustrated and disillusioned with a purposeless war. The Vietnamese have a growing sense of desperation over a war which threatens their lives and their livelihood. Vietnamese and Americans must join and demand an end to the war.

There are many levels of activity open to every individual to do their part. First, sign the Peoples Peace Treay and make your own peace with Vietnam. (A signing table can be found in the Perc today). Write your Senators, Congressmen, Nixon, and Agnew and tell them about your opposition to the war. Take part in anti-war activities in the city and around the nation:

April 24: Nonviolent march and rally in Washington D.C. (Contact Marty Kelty or Marigrace Platt for information, if you want to go contact them early today for transportation, info., etc.) Leafletting around Indianapolis, meet at Mayer Chapel at 448 W. Norwood at 11:00 (Contact Ed McCord for transportation, info, etc.)

April 26: Movies in the Library Aud. at 7:00 p.m. "Vietnam and Beyond" - Former CBS correspondent David Schoenbrun attacks Vietnamization as a continuation and extension of the war into Laos and Cambodia and tells how President Nixon can get us out.

"And Time Is Running Out" - presents Peoples Peace Treaty and stresses the urgency of the peace movement here and in Vietnam.

Free, everyone welcome.

May 1 - 5: May actions: beginning with rallies and lobbying ending in non-violent civil disobedience. Choose your own type and extent of non-violent action. Transportation available, contact Ed. McCord.

May 5: Peace fair at Military Park here in Indianapolis. Rally, picnic, music, guerilla theatre, transportation available.

May 25-28: Activities, yet to be planned, around Nato conference here in Indianapolis.

Peace,

Ed McCord

SPORTS

WALT'S WRESTLING WORLD

Last Saturday night, April 17, 1971, saw some really fine action in the sport of Professional Wrestling at the Coliseum. Here are the results of the matches:

Dale "The Muscle" Mann pinned "Fearless" Freddy Rogers in a fast and suspenseful match. Tom "Mr. Indiana" Lynch won the match when his opponent, Kenny Dillinger, was disqualified by the referee when he refused to break an illegal hold before the count of 5. This match saw Lynch have the definite advantage over the slow moving Dillinger until he was caught in the ropes. It was at this time when Dillinger applied a choke hold on Lynch and refused to break.

Calvin "Prince" Pullins defeated Johnny "Killer" Kace in a strange way. While Kace was on the mat, Pullins jumped on him and applied the pin. To get out of it, Kace put his right leg across the bottom rope in the hope of having the advantage of getting out of the pin. However, he was not quick enough and the referee counted 3 for the pin. Kace became very angry but he could do nothing because the match was over.

Angelo "Neckbreaker" Poffo obliterated Mexico's Bad Man, Chico Garcia, by applying his devastating neck paralyzing hold which made Garcia child's play for the pin. Before Poffo left the ring, he entangled Garcia in the ropes and, because of what the referee had said about it, banged the heads of the referee and of Garcia together. He was cheered by the fans for doing this.

In the semi-main event of the evening, the tag team combination of "Golden Boy" Paul Christy and Doctor "Big" Bill Miller overwhelmed the Fabulous Fargo Brothers, Don and John, in the first fall. However, the Fargos were not to be easily stopped and they roared back by slaughtering Christy in the second fall. Because Christy was injured and could not fight in the third fall, the referee declared the Fargos winners of the fall and of the match. Miller flew into a rage and challenged the Fargos to fight him in the ring. At first the Fargos advanced menacingly on Miller, but when they saw the look of hatred in his eyes, they decided to be wise and headed back to the locker rooms, shouting comments to Miller and jeering fans.

In the main event of the evening, Dick the Bruiser defeated the mighty Count Varon von Raschke in the first fall which lasted for 36 minutes and 1 second. As soon as the bell sounded the beginning of the second fall, Bruiser went into action. He attacked the Baron like a tiger. He punched, kicked, jumped, threw him out of the ring, on the floor, on the table, banged the head of, broke a chair on the, and all out killed the mighty Baron but Raschke would not yield to the murderous attack of the Bruiser. In desperation, Raschke attempted to apply his deadly claw hold on Bruiser, but Bruiser broke it. Finally the bell sounded, signalling the end of the fall and of the match, which had gone all the way up to the time limit--one hour. Because the Bruiser had only won one fall and not the required two out of three, Raschke still kept the W.W.A. World Heavyweight Wrestling Champion Belt. This match was unique because the two most deadly enemies in Professional Wrestling had met and that it was a remarkable display of endurance, speed, and motion. I predict that there will be a return bout in the near future.

The next Professional Wrestling card will be on May 1, 1971 and at the Coliseum.

Yours in Wrestling,
Walt

If you want your blood to gush forth like the Nile River at the flooding season, have chills run up and down your spine like taking a cold shower in the Arctic, and test your "anti-fright" power, then get out of your grave and go to Spook Spectaculars on April 23, 1971, at Marian Hall at 10:30 p.m. This gruesome activity is sponsored by the Banshee Booster Club and will only cost you 75¢. On, a word of warning..... please do not come alone or under the influence of alcohol. After the movies have ended and you are walking to wherever you may happen to be going, your imagination may run wild and you may see or meet someone or something that may want to be in your company. This is all right if it is not real, BUT, WHAT IF IT ISN'T? Don't say that I didn't warn you.

LETTERS TO THE EDITORS - 1 more

Dear Editors:

There is a very reliable rumor to the effect that the Problem Committee, which was established by the Faculty Council...or Student Services...or, well, whomever wants the credit, has been dissolved. If in fact this rumor is true I believe that Marian has reached a milestone in student to student, student to faculty and student to administration relationships, because this committee which was set up to review and analyze the difficulties encountered by students found that: 1.) there are no negative vibrations being given off from our community here; 2.) there have been no real problems submitted to them; and 3.) hence, there is nothing for them to do. What I simply want to say is that I think we've reached our peak here in the Marian College community in that this campus which was once torn by racial polarity, faculty dissention, and administrative incompetence has finally matured and grown up. (REALLY??)

REVOLUTION - THE SOLUTION

Revolution
 Revolution
 Is there really a solution?

They're still fighting
 Still not righting
 the wrongs

What will it take
 To make the break
 To get you off your ass
 To use your head and your hands
 To down the man
 And start again

Revolution
 Revolution
 Is there really a solution?

He's got to die
 We've got to try to make it so
 If he persists
 We can't exist
 much longer

It must be now
 Doesn't really matter how
 As long as we succeed
