THE VIEW FROM HERE

For the green-pasture guys this is the weekend of the Marian College blossoming. The past few years have been filled with cries of "there's never anything to do", and suddenly with the advent of "Spring Weekend", there's something to do. The Lettermen Concert is our first attempt to bring popular entertainment to the campus. This is one of those nights that are forever taking place at other schools.

Much of what follows in the line of social activity will depend on this concert. The establishment of a social committee was an attempt to resolve the problem of campus activity; this years calendar is indeed prolific. The committee also sought to bring worthwhile "name" entertainment to campus. This involves an investment and to a certain extent a gamble. The risk is involved in the student body. A Poor turnout would dictate something less next year. This weekend is the big opportunity for all who complained in the past. The CARBON hopes that all who have cried in the past, know what they want and will be there Friday night.

NOT MUCH THIS WEEK AT M.C. AFTER SPRING WEEKEND CALENDAR(CONT.)

Saturday, April 8:

8:00 Don't forget the final film for Fine Film series: The Bicycle Thief: Vatican declares bike riding in violation of natural law

Sunday, April 9:

MC coed makes good and announces unengagement to a Letterman of the Lettermen

3:00 Indianapolis Symphony, Izler Solomon conducting. John Sweaney and MC Symphony refused to play this weekend, so local group gets a shot at the big time

Monday, April 10:

7:00 Super-Sophs get together and go Beyond the Melting Pot

Tuesday, April 12:

8:00 Blue and Gold Card Party, in the Mixed Lounge. Notice how cleverly planned this event was. The Lounge Lovers are loving elsewhere in the spring. Proceeds go for Bingo Room behind the Chapel

Wednesday, April 12

2:00 Tennis: Rose Poly vs. Knights on the Tennis Courts

7:00 SEA General Meeting

8:00 Ferenc Nagy, former Prime Minister of Hungary presents: Anatomy of a Communist Takeover, Hungary, 1944-47. Strong arm tactics of the Commies

Thursday, April 13

10:00 Press and TV News Conference in the Faculty Lounge. They couldn't clean up the mess from the night before in the Mixed Lounge

12:30 Convocation: Mr. Nagy speaks on Past and Future of Communism in Eastern Europe

SNORTS OF SPORTS

Spring sports are out all over the campus, and it appears that the baseball team won't be blinded by 12 foot tall dandelions this year. Thanks to the quick work of Ajar Garderners plus a pilfered tarpoulin the field is in great shape. So's the team, and the home games this Sat. give us a chance to see our two hard throwing right handers, Bill Scheller and Jack Adams face Rose Poly in a twin bill.

Last Sat. the Knight Nine travelled to Greencastle and lost two close ones to Depauw. However, they were in both games all of the way and shortly will be taking the close ones. Adams was especially effective, but suffered from lack of hitting support. Scheller, just a freshman, hurt his own cause with poor control, but the home crowd plus the experience should make him one of the top chuckers in the school's history. Dapper Duke Hynek, off to a fantastic start, smashed a home run in a losing cause.

This could be the final chance for golf coach, Pat Smith, as his job is on the line. In this win or else season, he can look forward to the return of Lefty Larry Schmalz, a righty. Schmalz is a potential par breaker and should insure another year for the graying coach.

The track men of Larry Bridges have been sparked by solid performances down the line. Roger Lyons, a freshman, is a spectacular sprint man. Dave Walker returns in the middle distances and is a solid performer. Also Larry Turner is back and he runs everything and everywhere.

WHAT'S THE STORY HERE?

This CARBON exclusive provides you, the student, with a clip-along-the dotted-line, billfold-size, schedule of social events for the long-awaited Student Association Spring Weekend. Yes, finally there has come a weekend at M.C. which requires a schedule and not a sigh. Thanks for planning this gala event go to the Student Association, particularly to the Social Committee and the Inter-Club Council.

Many tickets for the Lettermen Concert remain to be sold. The students are asked to urge their friends, yes, and even for the sake of a greater good, their enemies, to partake of this two hour song fest of national talent.

The schedule looks like this:

Friday: 8:00 - The Lettermen in Concert - tickets will be available all day up to the concert.

Saturday: Monsignor Doyle Day - 30 years at Marian

11:30 - picnic at the lake - this will be the afternoon feed for the dormies who wish to attend.

1:00 - Baseball - 2 with Rose Poly - Student Government "extravaganza" between games.

6:30 - ICC Festival

8:00 - Fine Film Series: The Bicycle Thief

8:30 - a mixer - The Five Good Reasons make a noise.

The reception and the success of this first Student Association Spring Weekend will undoubtedly set the scene for future endeavors along this line. So if your not studying, why not drop by for a few events.

BOARD NEWS:

At last Monday's meeting the board made final preparations for the Spring week-end. (For details on week-end see "What's the Story Here")

The board also discussed the upcoming board elections. At present it appears that the elections will be held the last week in April and the first two in May. This however is still tentative.

The board will further discuss the elections at this Monday's meeting. Sue Mailloux will present legislation which would have those who desire to run for office nominated (continued next column) by petition. In past years those desiring to run for office would submit their names to the board which would then make the final nominations.

The board also elected Chuck Welch and Kris Ronzone to be on the convocation committee with Miss Murray and Mr. Moran.

SPRING BRINGS -

- a change in suitcoats for Mr. Kelley
- outdoor classes with the sun hurting your eyes, and the wind blowing your notebook apart.
- John Sweeney yelling, "What's the word?"
- the smell of Canal No. 5 rising from the lake
- girls ironing more than the collar of their blouses
- an increasing number of nature lovers, both human and otherwise
- eating cold hamburgers in the mud by the lake
- freezing out on the sun deck in the hope of catching up with those who went to Florida
- an increase in the sale of binoculars
- convertible riding, and a ready-made alibi for a girl's disheveled hair.

TO THE EDITOR AND FRIENDS:

Last night a friend of mine got the measles or something like that, and he was full of little spots on his body. The next day he got worse. Somebody brought some food so that he would eat. He was sick for almost 24 hours and no doctor came to see him. Three months ago somebody got the flu, and a doctor prescribed some medicine by telephone.

I come from what you call an underdeveloped country, where you are obliged to have some shots before going to college, and for less than two dollars, the school will provide two check-ups a year.

I am afraid of getting sick so far from home and my parents love! Imagine if I got sick and could not afford a good doctor!

I have heard the school is going to invest $12,000 in a telephone communications system for $30 a year per resident. This money could be used for a full time doctor or nurse. I hope this is also the view of many other students on campus.

Thank you,
