THE KENNETH ROGERS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Kenneth Rogers Memorial Scholarship Fund was initiated a year ago in memory of the 1970 Marian graduate who died in August of 1971 while attending law school in Atlanta, Ga. Kenny was intensely interested in people. He helped found the Union for Black Identity here, and served as that club's President from '68-'69. He also aided in establishing the Operation UpBeat program on campus, which serves Indianapolis inner-city high school students. Anyone who knew Kenny saw his love for others. He worked for them until he would become physically sick--like at the UpBeat Care-A-Thon, teaching school for 7 hours and MCing the Care-A-Thon for 14 hours.

It takes an amazing person to realize in a long lifetime all the problems and gain all the insights that Kenny saw in a short 23 years. While most of us just talk about Christianity and what it means to give of one's self, Kenny lived it and never exhausted of giving. His sudden death came as a terrible shock and sorrow for those who had known him.

Shortly after his death, a fund was started to give a scholarship to an UpBeat student to attend Marian. The fund must reach $5000 to be released on an annual 5% basis (there is approximately $2800 towards this goal so far).

Last year there was a craft sale, right before Christmas, to help raise money for the scholarship fund. The response of the people in the Marian community was great. We would like to have one again this year but we need people to donate time and energy in making things that can be sold as Christmas gifts. The sale will be held December 10-17 (the week before finals), and we ask you to please lend your talent and support. It is important to start this project early so that it can be well planned and organized. Jan Uhl, also a Marian graduate and director of the fund, has promised to get materials for people to use in making gifts, if desired. I know there is a terrific number of creative and talented people on this campus who could help if they could find a few hours between now and December to do it. If you have any questions, time, ideas--contact me as soon as possible.

The Carbon welcomes criticism and comments by all members of the Marian community, but we can hardly take these comments into consideration if we don't hear them, or only hear them second hand. From the Masses:

Marian Students,

Please stop using the back and side doors of Clare Hall after 7:00 pm. Taking a few extra minutes to walk around to the front door is a small price to pay for security. I used to think the security system was a lot of unnecessary hassle until an incident last year when a man tried to force himself into one of the rooms on the first floor. Living on the first floor myself now, I see how easily this can happen when the back and side doors are mistakenly left open at night.

I think it's a matter of considering the safety of others rather than our own convenience.

Liquor Policy Referendum Soon

APPLAUDS:

The Student Board Committee for the Revision of the Liquor Policy met Wed. night at 7:00 in the Student Board Office.

The Committee is studying the alcoholic policies of other colleges and universities and will recommend to the Student Board this Sun. that a referendum be taken to get the students' views on the matter. The referendum will be taken at the Wed. noon and evening meals for the dorm students and all day Wed. for the day students.

This is a copy of the referendum:

The present policy concerning the use of alcoholic beverages is:

"The educational aim of the College suggests that students have goals and objectives. In achieving these goals and objectives it is necessary to refrain from behavior which is related to or results from the use of alcoholic beverages or narcotics. Therefore, neither drinking, drunkenness, nor possession of alcoholic beverages is permitted on campus. Violation of their policy will subject the student to conduct action which may be in addition to Civil action. Students over the age of 21 must make their own decision regarding the use of alcoholic beverages when away from the campus or student activities. The College does expect that the Civil law and the College policies will be upheld." - Handbook

I would like to see:

No change in the present policy

Use of alcoholic beverages permissible on campus.

If you would like to see alcoholic beverages permissible on campus, please indicate by checking one or more of the following:

At social events(i.e. dances)

In the dormitories

At specifically designated areas on campus (i.e. a pub)

All students should be aware of their obligation to comply with Indiana State laws concerning the use of alcoholic beverages. - E Mc

Conduct Review Board Student Members Needed

The Conduct Review Board has five vacant student positions: one for a senior, one for a junior, one for a sophomore, one at large, and one alternate. Anyone who would be interested in serving on the Board contact any member of the Student Board before this Sunday.

The Board hears the cases of students who want to appeal conduct action for reasons of

1. action taken too severe
  2. due process not followed
  3. student received unjust treatment
  4. significant new evidence is to be introduced
- As a result of a hearing the Board may either
1. sustain the original action
  2. direct the case to be reheard, specifying the reason.

This is the first year of their present form of the Review Board. No experience is required but a desire to get involved.

CALL: 1-800-382-8860

No charge for call.

Nominations for the Freshmen Class offices will be held from Wednesday, Sept. 27, to Monday, Oct. 2. Nominations will be accepted in the Information Office, located in Matian Hall.

The offices include: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Day Student Rep., and Student Board Representative.

All candidates are asked to present a speech on Tuesday, Oct. 3, in the Perc Lounge at 9:30pm.

Voting will be held in front of the Marian Hall Auditorium Friday, Oct. 6, from 9:20-5:00. Results will be posted and new officers will be notified.

CLASS PRESIDENT--

The office of President of the Freshman class is the highest office open to the members of the class of '76. The person who is elected to this office will not only lead the freshmen in all official activities but will also be responsible for class meetings, class functions, and knowing the needs and wants of the freshmen under him. This person must possess a leadership quality and a personality able to deal with the members of his class as well as the faculty, administration and staff. Other duties include a willingness to work and striving for class achievement. Good luck to all participants.

Tom Sluss

CLASS VICE -PRESIDENT--

Probably the most difficult job to describe is that of a vice-president. Although no specific duties are set aside for this position, the responsibility of any class office is present. The main objective for any vice-president should lie in the fact that he should try as much as possible to coordinate the plans and activities of the other officers and those of the class. An integral part of the vice-presidency, as with all other class offices, is sharing the responsibility, initiating action, coordinating activities, and helping the class work in unity.

Ingrid Augspols

CLASS TREASURER--

Being the class treasurer is the most demanding of all the offices. One must be able to work with figures and have a love for money. Along with being an accountant, the treasurer must also have the knack of being a great promoter. Unless you have these qualities, the school will not benefit from your services.

CLASS SECRETARY--

As secretary of your class, your position would involve several duties. The secretary is responsible for the correspondence and publicity of all class activities, and is also responsible for reserving calendar dates and filling out the necessary forms to put on an activity. Together the secretary and the other class officers form the groundwork for class activities but it should be understood that unless they have class backing, they cannot function successfully.

Margie Bauer

STUDENT BOARD REPRESENTATIVE--

The Student Board is the main governing body of the students, comparable to the Student Council in high school. As a class or organizational representative to the board, one becomes aware of the "goings-on" on campus. Members work on policies and vote on proposals. For example, one of the policies the board is considering concerns drinking on campus. Last year the open visitation policy was obtained.

Representatives enable their class to have a voice in over all campus life. The class decides its stand on issues and this is given to the board by the class representative. In other words, through its representative the freshman class would take an active part in the student community by participating in the association.

Mary Hafeli

DAY STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE--

The responsibilities of the Day Student Representative are to convey the interests and feelings of the day students in class endeavors and to promote day student participation and concern in campus issues and events.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY and Right: VOTE

There are more than 660,000 first time voters in a presidential election in Indiana this year. More than 300,000 of these will be casting a ballot for the first time in any election.

The first and primary responsibility of the voter is registering-making sure one is eligible to cast his or her ballot for the candidate he or she feels is most qualified for that office.

A voter can only change the political system through voting. He must register before he can cast his ballot. It is the responsibility of every eligible citizen to make sure he or she can vote in this fall's important election.

- Gordon St. Angelo

Registration:

You're eligible to register if you are a citizen of the US and at least 18 yrs. of age. Following the Supreme Courts decision on state residence requirements, the Indiana Attorney General gave his opinion concerning the enforceable residence requirements in Indiana on May 12, 1972. The 6 month state residence requirement is invalid, but citizen must reside continuously in the township for 60 days and in the ward or precinct for 30 days immediately preceding the election to be eligible to vote in a state or local election. There is no such requirements on the national levels.

If you're 17 yrs. old you may register to vote at any time provided you will be 18 by election day.

Your registration is permanent in Indiana, but you must register again if you move from from one county to another in the state, precinct to precinct in the county. This may be done by mail. And you must file a statement if you change your name.

When to Registration:

You may register up to and including the 29th day before a general election which is the 9th of October.

Where to Registration:

New registrations, re-registrations, transfers, and change of names can be made before a deputy registration officer at the county clerks office, at your home if a deputy should appear, or at any other location so long that it is authorized by the county clerk or state, county, or precinct election board.

When to Vote:

General elections are held the first Tues. after the first Mon. in Nov., which in this year it is Nov. 7.

Where to Vote:

You cast your vote at your precinct polling place. Locations will be announce in your newspaper. If you are uncertain as to the location in some manner or another contact the county clerk's office, or headquarter of either party.

Absentee Voting:

If you are expecting to be absent from the county in which you are registered on election day, you have a period of 17 days before election day until the Sat. immediately before the election to vote, in person, at the county clerk's office or any substation they so designate.

Absentee Voting by Mail:

Absentee voting by mail is provide for for among other students and spouse attending a school, college, or university outside the county in which they are registered. Consult with your county clerk's office or local (at your county) party headquarters for the exact procedures in obtaining an absentee ballot for mailing.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL

The usual capacity crowd was on hand for the opening of the 1972 Intramural Football Season. The first game saw Hobbit's Heroes ambush the Lone Rangers. As it turned out, the Rangers were ready as Ken Aust scored four times, three of them coming on passes from the old veteran, Ken Tyrrell. The Heroes played erratically, yet Joe Martin and a group of untried freshmen showed flashes of aggressiveness. For now, it's back to Middle Earth for the Hobbits. The final score: 54-0 in favor of the Lone Rangers.

The second game saw the once-upon-a-time Gods of Hellfire forfeit to War. This kept the scouts in question as to the game plans of these teams in the coming weeks.

The third game pitted the New Intramural Football Team against the Elders. It was Joe Kusnitz, who showed that a long-haired weirdo can play a good football game, providing the incentive for the NIMFT. He threw for one touchdown and ran 75 yards for another. The final score for NIMFT came on a Martin to Jerry Kretschman (another long-haired weirdo) pass. The Elders will have little time to go over the game film in order to bolster their sagging offense. The final score was 19-0 in favor of the NIMFT.

In the fourth game, the defending champion Vice Lords handled the Mother Truckers with relative ease. This game showed us that age has not slowed "Stubby" Jay Farrell as he scored two of the Vice Lords touchdowns. The other scores came on an "Easy" Ed Jerin interception and a 50 yard pass play from Pat Zapp to Paul Gerth. The Truckers lone score came on a run by Dan Walker. Final score: 26-7 in favor of the Vice Lords.

Tomorrow's Schedule:

- 12:30 Vice Lords vs. Hobbit's Heroes
- 1:30 Elders vs. Gods
- 2:30 War vs. Mother Truckers
- 3:30 Lone Rangers vs. NIMFT

So sports fan, this is the old lefthander rounding third and heading for home.

INTRAMURAL VOLLEYBALL

Avid sports fans will be delighted to hear that once again the Marian Maidens have returned and have taken it upon themselves to display their fantastic skill and athletic expertise in women's intramural volleyball. This season, the women's athletic gossip will be reported by "Wap". It's not that Hamm's afraid of the female subject in sports, it's just that he feels that he would be a failure in reporting matches objectively with the subjects bombarding him with all angles.

Eighteen teams will vie for playoff action and their chance to be called "best"--in that sport at least. Among the several returning teams, the one to watch will be Wazuri--last year's winners who have the power to knock out all contenders for that crown. Possible threats to their championship are two senior teams--The Blue Yarn and 8Pac Plus One for the Road. Both have the skill and the talent if they can establish some consistency pattern during their games. 8 Pac (a revived Raggedy Ann) has a majority of old teammates who came in second last season to Wazuri. Marsh-mellows Gagan's Gangsters and the Volumptuous Vollies could also prove to be tough as the season wears on.

The first week of play developed without any surprising upsets. Monday night, Wazuri demolished Red Hot Mammias and went on Wednesday to defeat an inexperienced but tough frosh team--3 M Company. 8 Pac Plus One for the Road tallied right behind the defending champs as they were victorious over two frosh teams--Flischel's Farm Outs and East Wing. No one knows whether it was Nancy Miller's bounce or Nancy Perkin's height which finally laid their opponents low.

Blue Yarn's secret weapon--Julie Kistner--came through to pace wins over Volley of the Dolls and Bruno's Raiders. Rumor has it that Denise and Company were expecting a victory over the Blue Yarn but the Yarn just tied those Raiders up (sick pun--boo). Bruno's Raiders had been victorious on Monday night as they defeated L&M. Now that's a peculiar team--seems that two members of the group don't quite match the physical qualification required for this intramural sport (How about that Mauer and Leugers?) Of course, if you pay your Clare Hall dues like all the other residents, maybe WAA will overlook this small technicality.

The sophomore team, not to be underestimated, is the Volumptuous Vollies who are undefeated after two outings. (At press time, there was an indication that L&M gave Vollies the victory Wednesday night as a birthday present to Joyce Gulling.)

The fifth team, who also claims a 2-0 record, is the Marsh-mellows, under the fearless leadership of Karen Marsh. They first defeated East Wing and then went on to slide by Squatty and Friends despite definite audience favoritism in the second match. Squatty and Friends had previously beaten the Indiana Bombers.

Gagan's Gangsters trounced the Main Ingredient and Volley of the Dolls to slip into the elite undefeated group. Other victories for the week include the Indiana Bombers defeating the Red Hot Mammias; Brand X over Flischel's Farm Outs; 3M Company "snatched" the Snatches (the fabulous 2 East team of Clare Hall under the direction of TA). The Main Ingredient wound up Wednesday night's action by barely edging out the undermanned Snatch team (sorry gang).

So as the first week of women's sports activities comes to an end, this is the old "Wap" rounding the thirteenth and hopefully heading for home.
