HAVE A TREMENDOUS VACATION!!!!

2:12 December 14, 1984

I've been having a lot of trouble sleeping lately. Every night, it's the same story. I shut my eyes and pray for just one night of undisturbed slumber. However, my nocturnal bliss is cut short by a re-occurring nightmare. In the dream, I stroll nonchalantly into a Marian Hall classroom only to be greeted by the same professor I've been avoiding for nine weeks straight. (ok-so I forgot 27 classes. No big deal--right?) The teacher smiles at me with a gleam in his eye not unlike a spider waiting for the fly. As his teeth grow into fanglike structures, he sweetly purrs, "Glad you could join us for class today, Miss Bagosy. Your exam for this class is to completely re-write War and Peace. You have 90 minutes. The blue books are on my desk." Suddenly, I awake bathed in a pool of perspiration. How I hate those blue books!! (Why does it always seem like I'm inevitably seated next to the individual who can fill a dozen blue books in reply to "Who discovered America?")

Actually, the mere mention of finals week sends me reeling in self-condemnation? How could I be so stupid as to blow off class so many times? (Because Happy Hour held more excitement, somehow, than Piaget.) How could I have been so incredibly irresponsible? (Because responsibility is one of those nasty words that begin with "r", like reality and reliability, that I've never been totally comfortable incorporating into my vocabulary.)

I want to know who came up with the term "finals" anyway? I mean "finals"-it's so definite, so permanent! But then again, I guess it is the only chance some of us have to redeem ourselves. I love those people, not unlike myself, who plan a "strategy", like failing (intentionally of course) every test and quiz throughout the semester then come back and miss not a single question on the final! To me, that shows the true meaning of the old college try!!

Oh well, it'll all be over soon (hopefully!). But until then, I'll be passing time doing Somnux and Stress Tabs!!

Did I really forget to go to 27 classes?

At Marian--

A Success !

Last Saturday, December 8th, culminated the forth and final night of this year's "Christmas At Marian"--deemed a hugh success by all!!

Much credit is due Kitty O'Donnel and Beth Taylor who worked diligently with the students in preparation for this year's performances. Also, many thanks go to Bill Thompson and his crew who were responsible for getting the meal together.

These past two weekends, the Chamber Singers and Chorale under the direction of Kitty O'Donnel as well as various members of the theatre department under the direction of Beth Taylor performed in a madrigal setting in the Allison Mansion. Those attending the performance were also treated to a delicious madrigal style dinner including the famous hot wassail and roasted chestnuts.

All who attended this year's madrigals have said this year's "Christmas At Marian" has been by far the best ever held at Marian. This is very apparent as "Christmas At Marian" was extended to four nights. Incidentally, the entire four nights were a sell out early in the school year.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
from everyone on the Carbon Staff.

If ya broke your leg on the stairs in Clare--Who ya gonna call?

Probably no one, because you could not get a line out anyway (especially after 11:00 pm). The student body has (count them) 13 telephone lines to the real world. Every person is in a race with approximately 41 other people to get 1 line out (since there are 534 students on campus). How many times have you dialed-88-only to find a busy signal or no sound at all. It can sometimes take 10 to 15 minutes to get an outside line. What if there was an extreme emergency, or what if you needed to talk to someone about an important matter. You could always go to the payphone (if you thought of it and if they are working), but why should you have to.

It should not be that hard to add a couple of hundred outside lines. This is just one thing to make life here at Marian a little more pleasant and less frustrating!

The views of this column do not necessarily reflect those of the Carbon or Marian College Administration. They will only be printed with the name of the author.

Hello Sports Fans! Boy, Marian's Basketball teams are really pulling in the trophies this season. Last weekend our Lady Knights brought home a tournament win and trophy from IUPUI. The Knights defeated St. Mary's of Notre Dame on Friday and pulled out a 63-62 victory over IUPUI for the championship.

Jennice Chaney played an excellent game against St. Mary's. She was high scorer with 14 and pulled down 8 rebounds. Julie Wilhoit and Janis Blome also contributed 10 points each.

In Marian's match up against IUPUI, Julie Wilhoit turned in a super performance. She scored a season high 18 points and grabbed 10 rebounds to lead the Knights to victory. Liz Gilmore contributed 10 points and Janis Blome added 9.

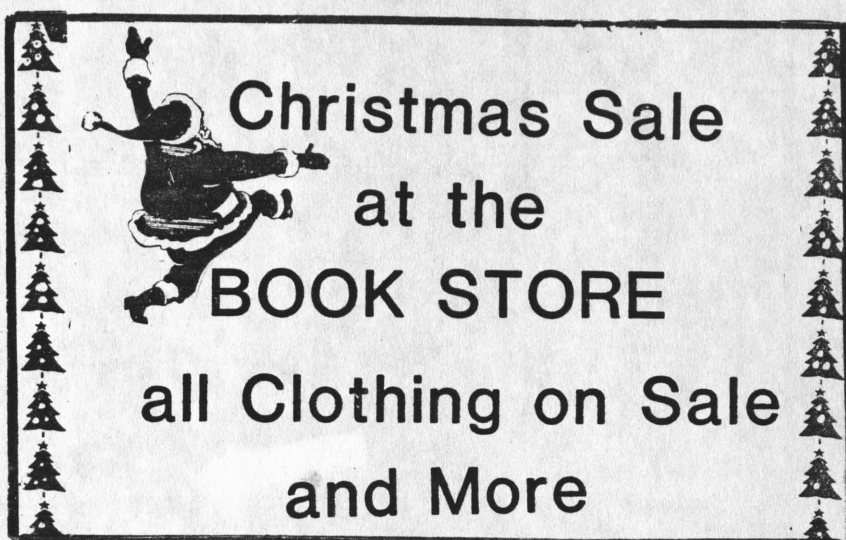

Janis Blome and Julie Wilhoit were both named to the All-tourney team. Julie Wilhoit was given the honor of being named Most Valuable Player for the tournament. CONGRATULATIONS JULES!

The Lady Knights' record now stands at 5-1. They met IUSE last night and will meet Oakland City tomorrow. They then travel to Wright State on Friday, Dec 21st.

Marian's Men's Basketball team pulled out a super victory last Saturday. They defeated Huntington College 101-89 and upped their record to 8-4. Tony Hines led the Knights in scoring with 27 points and had 4 steals. Dave Mahurin turned in another solid performance scoring 20 points, grabbing 12 rebounds, and blocking 4 shots. Mike McKenzie added 20 points also.

The Knights went up against Earlham last Wednesday but results weren't available at press time. They head to Greencastle next week for the DePauw tournament. GOOD LUCK GUYS!

Marian's JV squad is standing at a record of 2-2. They took a big win from Hanover a few weeks back. Since many of the team members are from Southern Indiana, including Coach Peak, it was a game of pride. Said Coach Peak, "It was either win at Hanover or never show my face in town again." Well, fortunately, there was a large crowd on hand to witness Marian's 66-58 victory. Marian's second victory came in double overtime over an Indiana Bell Squad. The Knights also played at Earlham last Wednesday but results weren't available.

-Mail News-

Students,

Newspapers delivered during the holidays will not be saved. All other mail will be saved until you return.

If you expect some important first class mail which you wish to be forwarded, please notify the mail room personnel before you leave for the holidays.

Intramural Basketball is in its final week in preparation for finals week. The men's 3 on 3 basketball tournament will begin Sunday at 6:00. The twenty teams will be divided up into three divisions for tourney play and Al McGuire only knows who will come out on top.

There are five teams leading the pack with 6-2 records and approximately the same number of "middle-of-the-roaders" with records of 3-5. We have some "tail-enders" with records of 2-6 and good 'ol team number 16 is still struggling at 0-8.

Four teams make up the women's 3 on 3 basketball line up. Team number 1 (MCM) is 0-2, team number 2 (JPT) is 2-0, team number 3 (LSJ) is 0-2, and team number 4 (JLL) is 2-0. From what I hear these games are a good source of comic relief or, to put it bluntly, they are hilarious! So get on out and check out the action when you need a break.

Since it's the end of the semester, Mr. H and I would like to thank everyone for participating in Intramurals so far this year. But remember, it's not over! Next semester is going to be pretty exciting with Women's Volleyball, Men's Basketball, Women's Racketball, and Co-ed Volleyball! So have a great break and be ready to Get Physical Marian!

FYI

-Need to Sell or Buy Books ?-

Psychology Club can sell books for you and to you. Next week, Dec. 17, 18, & 19, we will be collecting any textbooks on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, from 9:30-11:00A.M. and 1:30-3:00P.M. in Room 14. You mark the price that you want the book to sell for if we sell the book, we keep 10% of the selling price and you get the rest. We will also collect and sell the books on Registration Days and during the first week of classes. Further information on times will be posted in Marian Hall. For more info. -- call Beth Fohl, EXT. 186.
