TO SOME VERY SPECIAL PEOPLE

As most of you are aware, it is a rare occasion when I am lost for words. But I found that on the evening of Monday Dec. 3rd no word in the English language could express the total unrestrained joy that was awakened in me by some very loving, caring, giving, sharing, warm and beautiful spirits who helped me usher in my twentieth year.

It seems that no word is sufficient to portray the gratitude that is my duty to express and so in understanding of its limits I can only say THANK YOU - each of you, for giving me feelings I thought would never be mine.

And if such a day as Monday passed only occurs once every twenty-years, than twenty years is a short wait to feel more love than the previous nineteen have given.

Thank you all for your love.
God Bless and Keep you all.

ADVENT---A TIME FOR WAITING

It is particularly appropriate this Advent to reflect upon waiting, and the gentle patience of our God who waits for us to be less concerned with ourselves and our own personal needs and more concerned with the needy of the world in places like Cambodia, Nicaragua, Iran, and Indianapolis. As we wait and pray for these situations to be resolved, God waits for us to be peacemakers in the midst of our too often violent world. This Advent we, who wait ofr the Lord of Light to shine on us this Christmas, are being waited on to shart the Light, not to keep it. Ways to do this at Marian are available by helping with the Christmas drive for the poor--food, clothes, toys can be contributed to the collection of Sister Mary Rose and Sister Barbara Ann--canches can be purchased for this drive from MANASSA--contributions can be made in the basket in the back or the chapel this weekend.

PANEL DISCUSSION ON IRAN

OPINIONS EXPRESSED

Panel discussion on Iran situation Friday, December 7, 1979 at 7:30 p.m. in the Lecture Hall, Rm 103 on the I.U.P.U.I. campus, 925 W. Michigan Street, Indianapolis. Sponsored by: Black Student Union, I.U.P.U.I. and Militant Forum Series, Socialist Workers Party.

"Any statement can be held true, come what may, if we make drastic enough adjustments elsewhere in the system... no statement is immune to revision."
Duhem - Quine thesis

The US is in a difficult position. One so complex and difficult it is hard to take a definitive stand. For many years the US has supported the Shah. Now, the US is put in a position of turning its back on the Shah or 49 of its citizens. If we send the Shah back to Iran to stand trial, not only will we play a part in causing his demise, we may well be implicating ourselves in any trial that ensues.

Then again, we must consider the lives of our 49 citizens - can they be sacrificed? If the loss of their lives can insure national security, and prevent a greater tragedy, I think they would gladly die. At this moment, I'm sure many of the hostages would as soon be dead as to continue living under the torturous conditions they now face.

If they should die before this catastrophe can be resolved, we should not blame Carter. We're dealing, or rather attempting to deal, with a society in which 55% of the people are illiterate, people caught up in the emotional response of having a common enemy rather than fighting amongst themselves.

The imposition of our technical advances on this rather primitive society has not only drained our country of many of our economic resources, but given at least one man a glimpse of power and an over-estimated vision of control.

For the speedy resolution of this dilemma,

Roberta Schiller

TO THE MASSES:

A number of violent comments about Khomeini appeared in last week's Carbon. They did not surprise me greatly; indeed, I am surprised that they did not appear sooner. I am, however, very disturbed by the hateful comments directed toward Iranians in general. This sort of thing is juvenile, irresponsible, unchristlike, unamerican. I am ashamed of it.

It is not civilized, decent behavior for hosts to harass their guests. Nor is it fair to blame innocent people for the actions of a mob of fanatics.

I realize that you are angry, frustrated, and upset over the hostage situation; so am I. But that is no excuse for ugliness.

CARBON ANSWER (to last week's question!)

The substance banned by the Church in the 16th century was coffee. This ban was lifted later by Pope Clement VIII after he tasted coffee and declared: 'This Satan drink is too delicious to let the heathen have it all to themselves. We shall baptize it and make it a Christian beverage.'

FORMER MARIAN STUDENT JOINS MOTHER
THERESA'S COMMUNITY

In 1977 Tanya Knarr ('78) entered the Missionaries of Charity (Mother Theresa's community - she won the 1979 Nobel Peace Prize.) These sisters work with the destitute and dying people in 50 countries. Tanya, now known as Sister Mary Christa, will make her first profession of vows as a sister in Rome in December. Because her family, including Marian Students Barbara and Katrina, cannot be with Tanya for her profession, they have requested that the Sat. night Mass on Dec. 8, be offered for Tanya. Members of the Knarr family will participate in the Mass, and special songs will be used that Tanya is also using in her profession Mass in Rome. After the Mass friends of the Knarr family are invited to a reception in the Visitors Lounge in Marian Hall. If anyone wishes to write to Tanya, her address is Missionaries of Charity, 73 Vicolo, TOR Fiscale, Rome, Italy 00178.

KNIGHT'S BRING HOME HARDWARE!

Our Knight's basketball team travelled to Upland last weekend for the Taylor Tourney and brought back home some hardware, that is a trophy! The Knights won impressively Friday night 78-55, over Wheaton College of Illinois, with Chad Miller being top scorer with 20 points, and Bryan Mills with 16. Saturday night the Knights played Taylor and won within the last five minutes 65-55. Leading scorers for the game were again Chad and Bryan with 19 and 14 respectively. Dale Wernke now has surpassed the school record in consecutive free throws made, he is now 33 for 33, 21 for 21 this year thus far and going 12 for 12 at the end of last year. This is the first trophy for a Grimes - coached team here at Marian. Congratulations coaches and team!

HELP PUT MARIAN ON THE MAP

Sterling, the publisher of the Guinness Book of World Records is going to be publishing in 1980 a 'Guinness Book of College Records and Facts.' There is a long list of categories which will be appearing in the book; and we're going to pass that list to you to help us fill it out.

Here are a few of the categories for you to think about until you stop by the booth to give your responses:

Favorite: play, male/female actor, song, musical group, game, liquor, beer, etc.

Do you know of any criminals among alumni? Have you played an unusual prank?

How long has your longest party lasted?

These are only a few, but please stop by the table that will be set up in the cafe to give your written answers and check out the other categories. If you don't we're going to submit an entry for the largest amount of students with absolutely no interest or enthusiasm in anything at all.

CORKY'S COLUMN

Hello Sports Fans,

Just because the volleyball season is over doesn't mean you'll get rid of me. Well the Women's Basketball season opened last Tuesday with a match against Franklin College. Although we lost the game, there was an excellent exchange of talent. The scores at half time were Franklin 22 and Marian 21. The game ended with the scores of Franklin 60 and Marian 51. Leading scorer was Kim Hermesch with 15 points followed by Julie Voglewede with 11 points and Tina Miller with 10 points. Kim played a good game under the boards by coming out as the leading rebounder. You had to keep alert to catch the four steals made by Julie. The girls will be away this Friday and Saturday at the City Tournament and I wish them well. Their next home game is Dec.12 against IUPU-Ft. Wayne. I hope to see all of you fuglies there.

Tarde,
Corky

Dear Santa,

Do you have anything for those of us concerned with the future of humanity? Something along the lines of breeding understanding amongst the people who have inherited this world. I believe that the understanding vital to man's continuance is the realization that we will not be given a second chance. Perhaps from that, all other understanding will follow and succeed. Please consider.

With sincere anticipation,

How often it is that the angry man rages denial of what his inner self is telling him.
