SORRY . . . [or how forewarning provides exemption from responsibility]

Due to several factors — including the absence of the student community, lack of material relevant to the Time period which break encompasses, the prevalent aura of inevitable doom and the desire to avoid the inconvenience of it all — the Carbon will not be seen next week, but will return the 20th of March. Some days one might not want to miss will not be recognized (Friday the 13th, the Ides of March, Einstein's birthday, St Patrick's Day and St Joseph's Day) except in passing parenthesis, perhaps pertinent only in preparing plans to participate with persons in the appropriate pageantry. Enjoy them all!

NEWS

El Salvador — A CIA investigation, initiated at Reagan's request, found that the Salvadoran rebels have been supplied with arms by the Soviet Union, Vietnam, Ethiopia and East European countries. A State Department official commented that "El Salvador is an East/West conflict."

Secretary of State Alexander Haig has accused Cuba of shipping weapons through Nicaragua. Haig indicated that United States aid to Nicaragua may be in jeopardy depending on its "future adherence to American law."

"It is our view that this is an externally managed and orchestrated interventionism and we are going to deal with it at its source," said Haig.

How limited the intervention in El Salvador will be is unknown. "Team advisers" are considered to be the first move. These are not combat advisers and no congressional approval is needed to send them to El Salvador.

Haig indicated the advisers would be "military training teams" in helicopter maintenance and communications. Reagan has suggested lending assistance in reorganizing basic training and monitoring arms shipments. Typically the advisers would aid in weapons and reconnaissance tactics.

Edward Meese, Reagan's chief policy spokesman, said the United States "does not rule out anything" in its efforts to halt deliveries to leftist guerillas.

EVER AND ALWAYS

When did I write these verses?
God help us, did I? Think Irish now

It was Ever and Always in the depths of my mothers womb before I was begotten at all it was nature saying what to say.
More than my own soul
it was the nostalgic thing
from endless ages echoing,
it was the bog, the mountains,
the race compounded making evedent
glamorous shining objects richly humanized events that, inspected by other minds, might evaporate like morning dew

God and hsi saints
be in my heart and on my lips
as I think to give language to men and women whose everyday talk is an art

STUDENTS

Please sign your NDSL (NATIONAL DIRECT STUDENT LOAN) and BEOG papers before you leave for spring vacation. This will help you get your bill completed and if you have a refund coming hopefully we can take care of it very soon.

Work/study checks WILL NOT be ready for Spring vacation. They will be ready for you when you return. You will be out of funds by that time and if you are able to keep your check it will look pretty good in that empty bill fold.

STUDENT TEACHERS: I will be happy to be in the office one evening next week for your convenience. See you on Tuesday, March 4, between 6:00 and 7:00 in the Financial Aid Office.

Sister Rose Marie

LENTEN SEASON BEGINS MARCH 4 — ASH WEDNESDAY

There will be an all-college Mass at 11:15 on Wednesday [class schedules are adjusted], to begin the Lenten Season. Lent is a time to take a close look at ourselves and how we relate to God and to others. It is a time for personal reflection, prayer, self-discipline and spiritual growth. In addition to the daily Masses at 7am and 11:30am, there will be a Communion service in chapel on the weekdays of Lent at 4:15 starting on Thursday, March 5th. Opportunity is available to receive the sacrament of Reconciliation every Saturday at 6pm in chapel. A special kind of discipline for Catholics to do as a family is to eat no meats on Lenten Fridays.

To all the cast of "Kiss Me Kate"—great show.

The Officers

KISS ME...

"Two brains are better than one" they say and and, in Marian, two departments have always brought out hits, theatrically! Two years ago, it was "Man of La Mancha" that beat the critics' eyes and dig. Today, it is "Kiss Me Kate"—a music and theatre department production—that had received nothing but kisses from the audience. We congratulate the cast of class and wish the producers and directors continued success in their future endeavours.
