DAYS OF OUR KNIGHT LIFE.... by Linda Kuper

With the spring semester underway and the hazardous weather keeping us from traveling home, we have been spending much time indoors, or on campus. During these brutally cold winter days we tend to get cabin fever and homesick for our families. In order to overcome this feeling, we tend to "adopt" brothers and sisters on campus.

Some students already have family members at Marian, but for those of us who aren't blood related to anyone here, our peers are our family. Freshman girls usually look for big sisters to tell them "tales of Doyle Hall" or depend on guys to set them up. Guys usually depend on their "big sis" for female advice or have "little sis" introduce them to girls. Due to Marian's size, most people develop platonic relationships among themselves and think of one another as brother and sis. Most of the time everyone gets along, but occasionally we have our little "family feuds."

Little sisters try to be funny at times by putting shaving cream on the phone receiver. As you say "hello" you swallow a mouthful of Gillette and curse the institution of families. Campus brothers are usually helpful in fixing your cars but never hesitate to tell you to diet, not to wear so much make-up, or to quit giggling. They also are famous for pranking you by telling you that there is a party in a certain room and when you actually enter, you find a "loving couple" and blush with embarrassment. Another factor is that many times you are not willing to take advice from your elder "bro or sis" because you feel your way is more superior. Soon you find out that "with age comes wisdom."

Despite the teasing and "picking on" you must tolerate, you soon find out that your "bro or sis" really cares about you and wouldn't want to do anything to hurt you. My little "sisters" are always willing to lend me money and my brothers never hesitate to jump my car when it is -40° and I enjoy being part of their college "family." However, when "little sis" spills ink on my favorite new sweater or "big bro" wakes me at 3:30 am and hangs up, I am ready to revert back to being an only child.

STUDENT SERVICES MAKE STAFF CHANGES

Two staff changes have been announced by Dr. William H. Woodman, Dean of Student Services. Effective immediately, Sr. Ruth Mary Forthofer will become Assistant Director of Admissions, while Michael Henderson is Director of Student Activities and Intramurals. Under the new arrangement, Sr. Ruth will function principally as resident admissions director, while continuing to visit Marion County High Schools. She will also coordinate campus visits by prospective students. Henderson will serve as advisor to the Executive Board of the Student Association and assist the Social Planning Committee in the scheduling of campus activities.

Business Club is sponsoring a Western Electric Tour on Feb. 4 at 1:00 p.m. There will be more info in next week's CARBON.

DO YOU WANT PEACE OR NUCLEAR WAR? TRY CHRISTIAN PEACE-MAKING

The possibility of the destruction of life as we know it on this planet by nuclear war is the single most pressing issue we must face. There are many opinions about how such destruction can be avoided. A series of six lunch and learn sessions are being offered by Campus Ministry on this topic, held every other Thursday from Feb. 4 through Apr. 15, at 11:30 to 12:20. The series will start with a session led by Fr. John Schoettle on "Violence in Jesus' Day and His Response to It". In order to get the most from each session, some reading materials will be available on each topic prior to the sessions. To receive your materials it is necessary to pre-register. Yellow flyers are available on the radiators in Marian Hall, Clare Hall desk, and from Campus Ministry describing the program, with a place for pre-registration. Plan now to attend. Bring your cafe tray or bag lunch to the west dining room. All members of the college community are invited to attend.

BOOSTER CLUB

There will be a meeting, Tuesday January 26 at 11:30 a.m. in the Psych. Lab. All members are to bring names of people and places plus phone numbers of contacts made for the Homecoming Activities. Elections will be held for new officers also so please try to come.

There is a sign-up sheet for the Visitation Committee. If you want to voice an opinion, or want to change something, sign-up! There is a meeting January 27 (Wed.) at 9:00 p.m. I have heard a lot about how everybody wants to do something about visitation, but nobody will get involved. So, here's your chance! You have to get involved before changes can occur! We now have five people, let's make it 20 or 25 and we can get things done!
