

SELF-STUDY COMMITTEE

The Self-Study Committee on Governance divided the decision-making structure of the college into five areas—trustees, administration, faculty, students, and alumni. The Governance Committee, headed by Mr. James Divita, then proceeded to assess the strengths and weaknesses in Marian's present governmental structure.

Phase I of the Committee on Governance included an outline report defining the role, purpose, and function of the present structure. From this Phase, certain conclusions were made. Among those were: The Board of Trustees, administration, and Faculty Council call for improvements in detail, the divisional and departmental structure needs to be evaluated from an efficiency viewpoint, and students and alumni need to integrate more closely in the decision-making process.

Phase II of this committee is now in full swing. Members of this committee are probing applicable literature in hopes of finding new solutions to existing problems.

The ultimate goal of this committee can be seen by their defined purpose: "the formation of a concrete proposal revising and improving the college's governance structure."

A very vital part of every educational institution is the facilities used to accommodate its students. The Self-Study and Planning Commission of Marian College has set up a committee on Facilities, headed by Sister Marie Bernard, in order to study and reflect upon the existing facilities and perhaps the possibilities of new ones.

The committee has completed a space inventory which includes the number of square feet for each room in each building on campus. This information has been compared to that which the Office of Education of U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare has determined to be adequate.

One facility which is on campus and has not been used is a tract of wetland. While not an actual part of the committee's work, it was suggested that it be converted into an outdoor laboratory. With some financial assistance, the Facilities Committee hopes to attain this promising goal.

UPCOMING CONVOCATION ON PRISON REFORM

On Tuesday, November 16, 1971, at 12:30 p.m. in the M.H. Auditorium, convocation speaker Richard Cain will deliver an address on "Prison Life and Penal Reform." He will give some objective insights into prison life.

Cain's credentials are interesting and varied. They include: writer, scriptwriter, journalist, member of the Los Angeles Police Department, and Special Agent in the Far East for C.I.D. He received a B.A. degree in Journalism from the University of Tokyo, and is presently working on a book entitled CONVICT ON CAMPUS. He had a distinguished military career in the Korean War, for which he received a silver star of honor.

After returning from Korea, Cain served a total of fourteen years in San Quentin, Folsom and Soledad Prisons. Since his release, he has appeared throughout the country talking to college students and various interested groups about life within prisons. He was recently present at the Attica prison riots; this will be one of the main points of his speech to be given here.

The Sociology department is arranging a seminar for all interested students at 1:30 p.m., right after the convocation.

Since the budget has been cut, the Convocation Committee has tried to select top name speakers on a highly controversial subject. Mr. Don Johnson, head of the Theater department, said that he was highly disappointed in student participation to the various convocations. He thus urges students to participate by attending the speech and seminar with some good, well thought out questions.

Convocations in the future include Victor Buono, a Russian counter spy that worked for the U.S., on February 8, 1972, and on March 8, 1972, and at the end of March, the Butler Ballet.

DEATH NOTICE

Sophomore Barbara Moll's brother, Air Force S/Sgt. William L. MOLL, 23, died late Saturday night when his car went out of control on a road about a mile east of Batesville. Sgt. Moll was stationed at Griffiss Air Force Base, Rome, New York. Services for him will be held Wednesday morning at Holy Family Church in Oldenburg. The sophomore class is having a Mass said for Bill at 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, November 11, in the college chapel.

Food Service News

One of the busiest departments on campus is the Food Service, which is in the capable leadership of Ron Morgan.

Marian's Food Service has been managed by SAGA Food Service for 10 or 11 years. Its main office in California periodically sends to the institutions that employ them a menu based on nutritional values and food variations for each day. The school is not committed to stick to these menus and quite often does not.

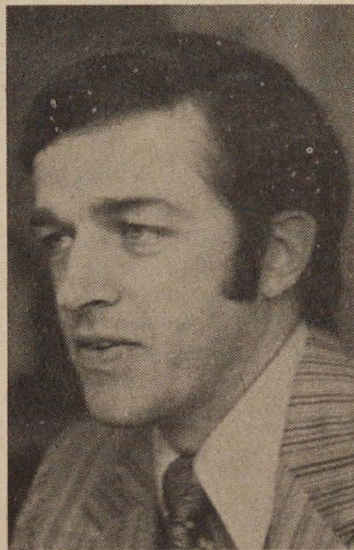

There are a few unique services offered, too. The "unlimited seconds" policy, not found in many college cafeterias is generally taken for granted in the cafeteria. This policy exists every night with the exception of Saturday Steak night.

Another factor is the specials. Nine specials are required throughout the school year. We have already had several—the Ice Cream excursion, Italian Night, and most recently the Halloween Night. Coming events include: German Night, European Night, and buffets for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. This year the cafe will be open on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights when semester tests roll around.

There are also some monotony breakers in the list of coming events sponsored by Food Service. They include Drive-in Nights, Surprise Night, College Talent Night, Music Night, Ice Cream Jubilees, and a Skating Party at the Lake.

The PERC is another part of the Food Services. Basically, the PERC tries to give day students and off campus residents a place to stay during class breaks. It has weekly specials running from Monday thru Saturdays.

Discount rates are something that few students are aware of. On Wednesdays a student and faculty member can get ½ price specials on beverages, provided they come in together. A tentative plan for mornings is free coffee with the purchase of a donut.

RON MORGAN

Mr. Morgan commented, "Your satisfaction is our daily goal. You can assist us in attaining that goal by letting us know your wants and desires. We can best improve our service by maintaining open communications bearing your specific dislikes and suggestions either directly or through the Student Food Service Committee."

U.N. VOTES CHINA IN

Tuesday, October 26, U.N. delegates defeated the China-U.S. Resolution thus removing Nationalist China, replacing it with People's Republic of Red China. The surprise vote pleased many of the world's delegates with the notable exception of the U.S. Red China moved quickly to be seated by officially listing themselves as China, People's Republic of, and speculating that Huang Hua, present ambassador to Canada, will be their official delegate. At the same time the U.N. moved to welcome China by ordering the making of the Red China flag to fly with the other flags of the world.

SENATE DEFEATS THE FOREIGN AID BILL

The Senate voted Saturday to stop foreign aid. The 41-27 vote caught much of the nation still in the surprise of the U.N. vote on Red China's admittance. The bill will cut approximately $2.5 billion in foreign aid to South Vietnam, Cambodia, Is-

Science Day

On Sunday, November 14, the student affiliate of American Chemical Society and the Biology Conservation Club will sponsor High School Science Day. Marian has asked 128 high schools from Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, and Michigan to attend. Letters of invitation were sent to the physics, math, biology, and chemistry classes of each of the schools.

Sister Mary Rose described the purpose of High School Science Day, "to keep an aroused interest of high school students in science."

The program of the day begins with registration in the Administration Building from 1:30-2:15 p.m. At the same time, tours will be conducted of the Conservation Program sites and the Science Laboratories. At 2:30 p.m., President Doctor Louis Gatto will welcome the students to Marian and introduce the speaker for the day, Mr. Robert Kryter. Mr. Kryter is a consulting engineer and shall speak on "An Engineer Looks at Pollution—a non-hysterical view."

Following this, there will be refreshments for the students.

Thoughts On Leadership

Should a Student Board executive officer or an editor be paid? Thus was posed Marian College's 'question of the week.' One reason which seemed to be a major basis for positive responses was that these people are "leaders" on campus and put a fantastic amount of work into their job. This statement is a blatant contradiction in itself! For if these people are doing all or most of the work themselves, then is it valid to call them leaders when they haven't the ability to delegate the work to their followers? If this be the case, then these people are not true leaders.

My next thought-question follows from the above: If these leaders find themselves the carriers of the work loads, could it be because there are few true followers in the Marian community? This could very well be the case. Consider the following: a very small percentage of students expressed any interest in serving on committees of the Faculty Council (it is up to the Student Board to appoint these people). The lack of interest in these positions of decision-making for the student could be many. Is it because the student majority is unaware of these committees and their functions? Is the student majority apathetic? Or is it that the student majority is more interested and involved in strictly social and academic activities? If we, as students, are solely interested in the courses we take and the social activities we attend (without seeing the relationship between these and student power, of which I believe there is such a relationship), then is there any need for student leaders to seek or maintain student involvement in the world of faculty and administration?

My purpose is not to antagonize the students, faculty or administration with my pen. I will not criticize the student majority for "apathy"; I will not let my emotions guide my writing. It would be hypocritical, for I am one who has not always been interested and concerned about these matters. I only want my fellow students to question what is going on in Marian's microcosm, and perhaps take an active interest. I really would like to see more students motivated about every aspect of our community. I was and I am glad of it. Cathy Andre

AID KNIGHTS

Local merchants have expressed concern in Marian College by buying ads to help support the basketball program. They have contributed financial aid and by doing this have shown interest in our school and our team.

So, if you're in need of anything, it would be greatly appreciated if you would patronize the businessmen who placed ads in our basketball program. They've helped us, now its our turn to help them. The programs will be distributed at all home games, beginning with the opener Saturday.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

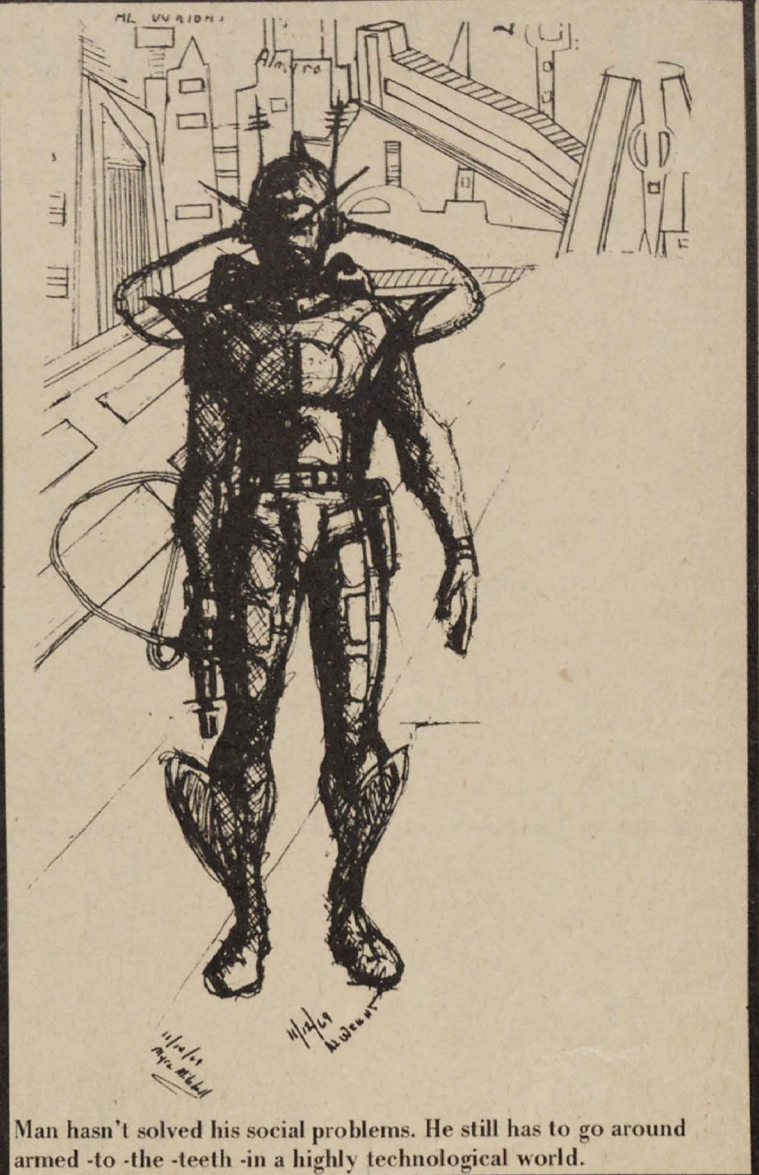

The following are three letters received from Dean Brames at three separate times.
Dear Co-editors:

In response to concern expressed by several people about letters regarding excessive absence from class, we feel it appropriate to explain the procedures to students. When a faculty member notifies the Office of Student Services that a student has been excessively absent from class (as determined by the faculty member) a letter is sent to the student informing the student to contact the faculty member regarding the absences.

A copy of the letter sent to the student is sent to the faculty member and one is retained in the Office of Student Services for information purposes for the semester in question. The letters are discarded at the end of each semester.

The following may be announced at the Sunday, Oct. 24 1971 meeting of the Executive Board of the Marian College Student Association.

The current housing policy, appearing on page 13 of the Student Handbook, does not make a distinction between a full-time and part-time student. Operational policy for housing purposes has been to consider as full time, a student who is registered for seven or more hours. Evaluation of this operational policy has led to a redefinition of a part-time, full-time student for housing purposes. The redefinition is an effort to bring about more uniformity in definitions. The following is the redefinition: 'A student enrolled for less

Man hasn't solved his social problems. He still has to go around armed -to- the -teeth- in a highly technological world.

rael, and Pakistan; this includes military spending. Senate conservatives favored the bill because it ended what they felt was aid to ungrateful nations. They added that the domestic situation was also of concern. Liberals in the Senate agreed with the measure because it will act as a stoppage of aid while priorities are reordered.

than 12 hours in a semester shall be considered part time and therefore eligible to live in housing of his own choosing. Exceptions to this provision for students for whom one condition of admission is that they carry a limited academic load, shall be determined and made by the Admissions Committee.'

The above shall take effect immediately.

Student I.D. Cards
All students who are currently carrying temporary I.D.'s or students registered for 12 or more hours who have not had a student I.D. picture taken should so notify the Office of Student Services by no later than 10:00 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 11, 1971.

Students in the above categories should report to the Study Lounge in the basement of Marian Hall on Thursday, Nov. 11, 1971, between the hours of 12:50 and 3:30 p.m. to have pictures taken and receive I.D. cards.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
Alfred F. Brames
Dean of Student Services

On October 28, 1971, the first draft of the proposal was presented to Dean Brames for his reaction and suggested revisions. Prior to this Doyle Hall Board, Clare Hall Board and Student Board approved the proposal with the understanding that it would be subject to revision.

Presently the Open Visitation Committee is in the process of completing a final draft. However, it is felt student reaction should be considered before the proposal is permitted to continue through the proper channels. Some type of dorm meeting or wing meetings will be held this week or the beginning of next week for the individual resident to present his reaction or concerns. The residents' responses will be considered in the final revision.

If a favorable response is obtained from the residents, the Open Visitation proposal will be presented before Student Services Committee on November 17. After their approval it will then proceed to Faculty Council, Dr. Gatto, and then to the Board of Trustees in order to become official school policy.

I personally would like to thank all those who have done research, helped in the writing and offered constructive criticism. I would also like to encourage the student to become acquainted with the proposal, and if you have questions please contact any of the following people: Vince Ryan, Mike Mills, Merle Tebbe, Dan Janich, Mark O'Connor, Carl Marszlslek, Ruth Mauer, Jolene Griffis, Marigrace Platt, Terriann Schiering, Camilla Consolino. This is of the utmost importance. A letter and questionnaire is being sent to the parents asking for their reaction concerning open visitation. Thanksgiving vacation offers the perfect opportunity for discussion between parents and students. Please take advantage of this opportunity for your own benefit.

Sincerely,
Camilla Consolino

Keiko Nomuro comes to Marian College from Muroran, Hokkaido, Japan. She graduated from Fugui, a two year junior sister college to Marian. She is the ninth exchange student here from Fugui. As a senior Keiko is majoring in English Literature and minoring in French.

Keiko compares the attractiveness of Marian with its trees, lake, and fresh air to that of the blooming wisteria flowers of Fugui. She was also impressed with the Japanese Tea House that is used every spring for the performance of the Japanese Tea Ceremony. She feels that the students are fortunate to have the opportunity to be exposed to the graceful and beautiful Japanese culture through the Asian civilization course offered here.

From her home town Keiko has heard of the preparations for the upcoming 1972 Winter Olympics in Sapporo, the city where Fugui is located. She is missing this Olympic, though she rationalizes that the experiences here at Marian are much more exciting, valuable and worth-

Following her graduation from Marian in June, Keiko will return to her hometown and visit with her sister whom she has not seen in four years. Utilizing the facility she has acquired in English, Keiko hopes to become an interpreter in her country.

Counseling Dept's New Services

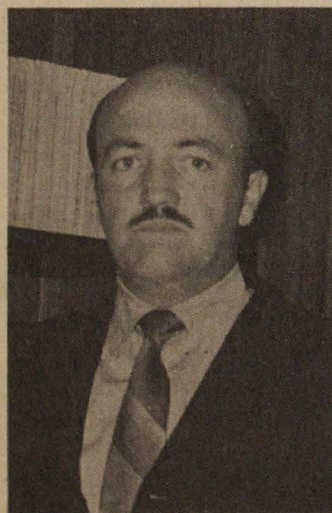

On Thursday, Oct. 28 at 11:30 A.M. John Van Hoose and Phil Helner of the Counseling Department conducted a brief meeting for seniors concerning job opportunities and graduate school. It was explained that the Counseling Department is attempting to establish a long-range program to help seniors.

For those who have decided on graduate studies, catalogues have been sent for from numerous universities. These can be found in Student Services. For those seeking employment after graduation, the counselors expressed a willingness to do some of the groundwork involved in job placement. If a senior is presently undecided about his post-graduation future, he can obtain counsel both on the individual level and in group conferences. Van Hoose also expressed an interest in helping males concerned about their military future.

The counseling services initiated this year include a complete filing system to help the senior as he begins a career after graduation and the alumni for future reference. The seniors at the meeting were asked to complete and return to the Counseling Offices a personal resume and confidential credentials.

Any questions or suggestions should be directed to Van Hoose or Helner in their offices in the SAC building.

Reviews and Previews

SADIE HAWKINS DANCE

The annual Sadie Hawkins dance was held in the old mixed lounge on Saturday night, November 6. The lounge was decorated to fit the theme with hay, corn shucks and hillbillies. Couples were dressed as all forms of hillbillies, with a few originals dressed as rabbits, skaters and in pajamas.

The event of the night was the crowning of Daisie Mae and Lil Abner. Candidates chosen from each class were: Nancy Steele, Coyt Walters, freshmen; Barbara Forman, Dan Ryan, sophomores; Barbara Campbell, Carl Marszslek, juniors; Elaine Guzzetta and Herb Boehm, seniors. Daisie Mae and Lil Abner were sophomores Barbara Forman and Dan Ryan.

A hat contest was held with $5 going to the winner, Larry Delpha.

NADER'S RAIDERS

InPirg, Indiana Public Interest Research Group, Nader's Raiders, held its weekly meeting on Wed., Nov. 3 in the SAC

Auditorium. The plans for the coming week were discussed and plans were made to familiarize the students with the organization and incorporate InPIRG in the school policy. An information table will be set up outside Marian Auditorium on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Meetings are held weekly at 7:00 p.m. in the Student Board room. Everyone is invited.

MUSIC TALENT ?

If you have music talent and would like to take a chance on winning an AM/FM compact stereo receiver and your winning entry sent to CAPITOL RECORDS / Hollywood, California, why not enter the CAPITOL TAPE MUSIC CONTEST ?

To enter, record your entry on any brand recording tape and send it to: 325 Bankers Trust Building, Indianapolis, Indiana, 46204. The deadline is midnight, November 15, 1971. To obtain an official entry blank, call the nearest Capitol Tape Dealer of whose phone number is 317-631-7234.

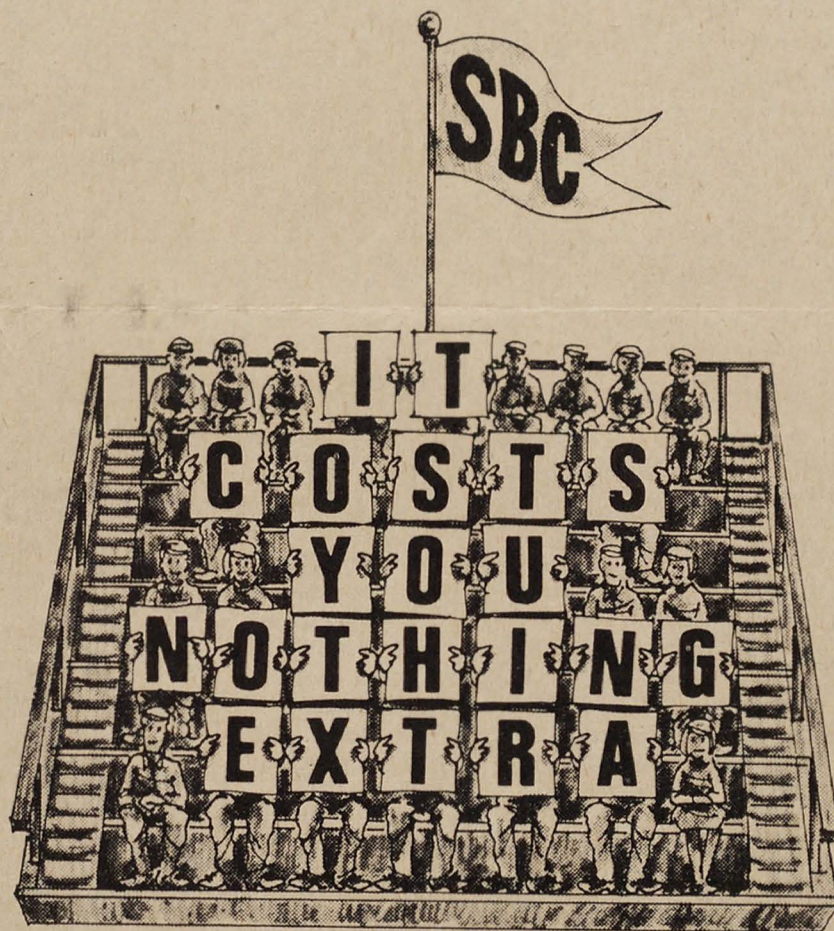

The goal of Capitol Records is to inspire unknown musical talent to start off their career. The grand prize winner in each city receives the stereo receiver and in addition to this, the three finalists in each city will have their sound aired on a local radio station for two weeks, from Nov. 23-Dec.3!

All ages and only amateur talent can enter. . . so send "your own kind of music" in right away!

REDLEGS VS. MARIAN

The Marian College faculty are scheduled to play a basketball game against the Cincinnati Reds on Monday, Nov. 15. The game will be played at Brebeuf High School at 7:30 p.m. Tickets will be sold today and Friday at $1.50 in front of the main auditorium, and for $2.00 at the door. Proceeds will be used to refinish the Perc.

This Student Board-sponsored event is one of the many Homecoming activities planned for Homecoming week.

Top Teams Tally Wins

After a month of volleyball, the women's skills are becoming precise, and consequently, the teams are getting better.

In the matches Monday night, Oct. 25, the Peons humbled the Fird Foor Farts, Green House Netters surpassed the Philosophical Beings, Act III failed to perform for the Marian Nighty Nights, and the Blue Yarn defeated the Bugaloos. The Knuckleheads squeaked past the East Wing Ding-a-Lings, the Staff Germs scaled the Mountain Mamas, the Blackouts shaded the Snatches, and the Raggedy Anns continued their victories by barely beating the Untouchables.

On Wednesday night, Oct. 27, since most of the better teams were pitted against the weaker ones, there were few upsetting victories. The Untouchables danced over the Bugaloos, the Marian Nighty Nights defeated the Fird Foor Farts, and the Blackouts colored Green House Netters. The Staff Germs foiled the East Wing Ding-a-Lings, and the blue Yarn won over Act III.

In the tougher games of that night, the Philosophical Beings met a few sharp edges, but finally topped the Mountain Mamas, and the Peons battled for the victory over the Snatches.

In the game of the night, the first-place Raggedy Anns had to work hard to take the win over the second-place Knuckleheads.

On Wednesday night, Nov. 3, only four games were played and the others were won by forfeits. The Staff Germs defeated the Fird Foor Farts, the Untouchables held the Green House Netters, and the Knuckleheads knocked over the Snatches. The big contest was between the Marian Nighty Nights and the Blackouts. The competition went for three battling games before the Nighty Nights were victorious.

As action continued Monday nights, the Blue Yarn won the challenge over the East Wing Ding-a-Lings, the Bugaloos romped over the Green House Netters, the Marian Nighty Nights outvolved the Philosophical Beings, and the Knuckleheads retained second place by defeating the Fird Foor Farts. The Blackouts ruled over the Peons, the Untouchables triumphed over the Snatches, and Act III forfeited to the Staff Germs. The Raggedy Anns are still undefeated, however, the Mountain Mamas put up a tremendous fight before they were finally defeated.

Lords, Bunch In Title Tilt

VICE LORDS 13
GODS OF HELLFIRE 12

The Vice Lords, rapidly achieving a reputation of being up for the big ones, earned a well deserved spot in the title game with a hard fought 13-12 victory over the powerful Gods. The Lords, a bunch of scrappers with plenty of spirit, proved their caliber as they had to battle back from a nearly deficit to overcome the fired up Gods, many who played the final game of their intramural career.

The Gods, starting off like gangbusters, looked as if they were going to make a shambles of the smaller Lords. After Stan Blenke's fine run on the kickoff was called back because of a penalty, quarterback Bill Doherty zipped consecutive strikes to receivers Larry Unser and John Jones which made it first and goal from the one. Doherty ambled over on the very next play and it was 6-0 with only three minutes gone. The extra point was no good but it looked as if a rout was on as the Gods had the momentum.

But speedy Dave Jongleaux promptly switched this momentum to the Lords as he pranced 90 yards with the ensuing kickoff to tie the score. This run, one of the finest of the season, brought cheers and applause from the highly partisan crowd which had gathered to view the contest. Paul Gerth scooted around right end with the extra point and the Lords took a 7-6 lead.

The fired up Lords defense, anchored by Jim and Jerry Luegars, stopped the Gods next drive and gained control of the ball. But then the Gods own brutal defense took over as Pete Klosterman nailed Dan Branigan for a 15 yard loss. Quarterback Branigan, trying to make up lost ground via the aerial route, bulleted a pass into the arms of alert defensive man John Jones to give the Gods fine field position on the 18. Doherty and Unser teamed up on successive tosses to make it first and goal at the 4. Blenke darted over on the next play of the see-saw game to make it 12-7. Jim Luegars nailed Doherty on the crucial extra point as the half came to a close.

The Lords went to work early in the second half, but Jones again thwarted the drive by intercepting a pass to give the Gods the ball. But they didn't have it for long as lineman Russ Pawlak alertly picked off a key lateral to give the Lords possession deep in Gods territory. Branigan then teamed up with his favorite receiver, Jay Farrell, to move it to the 17. Big John Kirchgassner batted down two consecutive passes but a key interference call made it first and goal from the one. Gerth scampered across on the next play and it was 13-12. The extra point was no good but there was plenty of time left.

After several exchanges of possession, John A. Smith boomed a long punt to put the Gods back in a hole. Sensing victory, hard charging Branigan nailed Doherty for a big loss in a big play. With time running out Farrell grabbed a pass for a key first down to help run out the clock. The Gods took over with only 19 seconds left.

So this was it. The Gods had to move. But they didn't and the rest is now history. So the Gods are now gone, but they'll not soon be forgotten. The dynasty they built here will long be remembered by faithful intramural football fans.

The Lords, who in only one season transformed themselves from raw rookies to title contenders and may be starting a dynasty of their own, now go into the big one for all the marbles on Nov. 14.

WILD BUNCH 34
WAR 0

A wild bunch of Wild Bunch footballers, flashing championship form, took a giant set toward the title as they completely demolished the outmanned War team by a 34-0 count. The game, observed by a fair crowd who braved the freezing temperatures, was never in doubt although War made a respectable showing in the first half. The Wild Bunch, playing in a workmanlike fashion, methodically wore down and destroyed their out-classed opponents.

The Bunch came out with fire in their eyes, one hundred percent ready to play. This readiness was evident on the opening kick-off as speedy Terry Smith scooted 85 yards across the marshy turf to paydirt despite futile War efforts to catch him from behind. Quarterback Ken Tyrrell dashed around right end with the extra point and it was 7-0. But War wasn't about to give up. Jim Fisher gained key yardage on runs as he moved his team all the way to the Wild Bunch 20. But Dan Hayden, Wild Bunch defensive back, picked off a pass in the end zone to stop the drive and give the Bunch the ball on the 20.

Tyrrell hit Jerry Whalen with a screen pass on the second play and the hard driving back loped 60 yards to the War 15. But the War defense, led by Mike Wilcox, trapped Tyrrell for a 10 yard loss and after several incomplete passes took over. Quarterback Fisher, once again moving his team up the field, hit Al Karason and Bill Eckman with key tosses but time in the first half ran out before War could dent the scoring column.

But once the second half began, the Bunch shifted into high gear and there was no stopping them.

Hank Ahaus boomed the kick-off to the War 20, and the Bunch defense held and forced a punt. Smith returned it to the 42 and took turns with end Mike Mottram catching perfectly thrown passes from Tyrrell. Then Hayden, operated at quarterback, hit speedy Tyrrell with a pass that carried to the 1 and caught the War defense completely by surprise. Tyrrell then moved back to signal caller, where he hit Smith with a bullet to make it 13-0. A Tyrrell to Reynolds pass made it 14-0.

But the Bunch was just warming up. Ahaus' onside kick was recovered by Paul Broxterman on the 25 and on the very next play Tyrrell and Smith combined for a touchdown. Reynolds again caught a pass for the extra point and it was 21-0.

War, trying to get on the scoreboard, had a pass interrupted by Whalen and it wasn't long before, you guessed it. Tyrrell, scrambling from the pocket, hit Smith with his third scoring pass of the half. The point after failed but it was 27-0. War couldn't move again and the Bunch took over with time running out. Hayden, once again operating at quarterback, lofted a pass to the evasive Tyrrell, who lateraled to Mottram. Mottram dashed to paydirt on this razzle dazzle play and it was 33-0. Hayden's extra point added insult to injury and it was 34-0.

So here we are, the Wild Bunch against the Vice Lords on Super Sunday. Who will it be? Can the Tyrrell-Smith combination beat the quick Vice Lord defensive backs? Can the Branigan-Farrell duo put points on the board against the vicious Bunch defense? It will all be settled next week, so don't miss it. You can be sure of plenty of excitement.
