Get a sun-tan but please don't burn (remember to turn!)

See ya all the 28th of march!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

The views of this publication are those of the individual writer and do not necessarily reflect those of Marian College!!!!

TO THE ENTIRE MARIAN COMMUNITY—

Please pay attention to what is about to be said— think about it in relation to yourself. Don't throw it off.

We see a problem in this school that needs immediate attention. It deals with human relations and involvement as a remedy to pull everyone out of the ruts that can easily be fallen into. We've heard complaints all over the campus about boredom and the need for new interests. Look around yourself! Do you think you're the only one who feels trapped? There are available opportunities all over for meeting new people who are as bored as you, and anxious to meet you. They are the Foreign students at Marian College, and they want your friendship. If you could just try to extend yourself and give them a chance, you could find yourself with new friends, new interests, and a lot of good times. What are you afraid of??

It's really too bad this letter has to be written in the first place,; acceptance and taking an interest in other people should be a natural instinct. Besides, we are all people and we need each other— No one should ever have to be classified and/or treated as foreign.

A WORD FROM D. K.....

TONIGHT marks the exciting opening of "Gianni Schicci" a one act comic opera by the popular classical composer, Puccini, of "Madame Butterfly", "La Boheme," and "La Tosca." Tonight is extraordinarily exciting, because "Gianni Schicci" is the FIRST opera ever presented at Marian College. The Music/Drama departments produced operettas, musicals, comedies, and dramas, but never an opera.

With the combined talents of the Music/Theater departments, this muchly delayed cultural program has been accomplished. There is little doubt that this 45 minute presentation will be anything less than most enjoyable.

Since this is a milestone in the history of Marian College, everyone on campus is urged to attend. Don't shy away from the fact that it is an opera!! It is a delightful comedy, sung in English and easy to understand. (A resume of the story is available in the program)

A stunning set has been designed by Susan Close and her crew, and Roseann Wissel has gathered colorful costumes representing the 14th century. Kitty O'Donnell and Debra Hatfield of the Music Department have coached the ensemble vocally (as well as being piano accompanists) and Daniel Kade of the Theater Department has directed the group.

The opera performance begins at 8:00 p.m. tonight and Saturday in Peine Arena Theater... and 3:00p.m. matinee Sunday is scheduled. Marian students and faculty are admitted free. It is $2.00 for off campus guests.

Make arrangements for a thoroughly entertaining 45 minutes of opera—a first for Marian College.

GRETA CARBO

I have been at Marian College over a year now and I haven't dated a guy from this school yet!

I'm fairly attractive and intelligent. I have a good sense of humor. But I fail to see the humor in this situation! It occurred to me that perhaps my previous conceptions about what men found attractive in a woman might not apply in this day and age. Or is it just the Marian men? I seem to be able to date friend outside of school. Can you or your male advisors inform myself and the other lonely Marian women -- what the guys at this school want in a woman as friend or lover? What criteria are they using? Greta, do you think times have really changed regarding how men and women see each other?

Just curious

Dear J.C.,

Yours is the plight of many here at Marian! Your sense of humor is evident from your evaluation of your intelligence and attractiveness. The problem with which you are faced is really quite simple, namely the close proximity the students have to one another. Students come in contact with each other frequently in class, extracurricular activities, the dorms, the cafeteria -- the list is endless. As a result, I believe that many relationships developed here at Marian reflect a brother/sister attitude as opposed to that of lovers. Also, since many students are having difficulties in financing their college education, financing dates becomes a challenging, if not troublesome, task. If the American concept of dating did not include going to movies, bars, discos or other extravagant trivialities, then one might be able to enjoy one another's company, free from material excesses. In this day of the emancipation of the woman, if the men of Marian won't ask you out, then ask them! Men like to know that they are needed and loved by women as much as women like to know that they are needed and loved by men.

Obviously, since you appear to be a real pip with men off-campus, then why this urgent need to date men on-campus? Or is your need to date men on-campus merely an ego trip? I wish you all the luck in this Herculean attempt.

——Gretta

DESPERATELY NEEDED...

The yearbook staff needs any individual capable of writing the English language for the copy staff. The requirements are that one must know how to hold a writing utensil, and is willing to help.

We also need people for Layout staff. The requirements are very similar but drawing boxes on mat is easier than writing English.

This is where "desparately" comes in.

WANTED DESPARATELY...

photographers. The yearbook staff would like any individuals interested in photography, be they male or female, to contact Chris Noel, Jim Carroll, Eileen Herbertz, or Sr. Mary de Paul.

IN CASE YOU DIDN'T KNOW THE CARBON COVER CUTIE THIS WEEK IS MR. KELLY— M.C. PHILOSOPHY INSTRUCTOR—WHO HEADS THE GIANNI SCHICCHI CAST.

TO THE COMMUTING STUDENTS

The DSA had a meeting two weeks ago concerning up coming elections, budget, and other pertinent things. the discussion (of the few people in attendance) centered around the changing nature of the DSA. There are fewer full-time daylight hour commuters, and older adults attending classes mainly at night comprising a large percentage of "day students", with seemingly ALL commuters having greater off campus commitments to family, employment and alike. It was also pointed out that the Perc is no longer the commuters' lounge. Day students do not use the lounge or the Perc as a gathering place. There is no identifiable Day student group or place.

It could be asked if day students are served by the various activities sponsored by the DSA since most participants are resident students. There does not seem to be a "good" time for scheduling such events so as to cater to commuting students, because they are such a diverse group with varying schedules.

There also seems to be little support for the DSA from day students. We hope there will be a good number of candidates and voters for the various DSA officer positions, but judging from the past elections, we are not very optimistic. If there are no candidates, does this mean you see no need for a DSA and/or want to see the DSA become inactive? Could it merge with some other group on campus?

The DSA has been one of the most active groups on campus the last two years. However, some have indicated the events are held at the wrong time, are the wrong type, or to inconvenient for commuters. These may be true; however, we tried to take these into consideration when planning the activities. If you have suggestions, please contact any of the current officers or myself. Also please consider running for an office yourself, and the results you would like to produce. And Finally, create some enthusiasm and support for the DSA and get all your cohorts voting.

Thanks,
Merle Tebbe
Advisor, Day Student Association

INTERNATIONAL CLUB MINUTES

The meeting was called to order on Wednesday, March 9, 1978 by Sister Marie Pierre, at 4:40 p.m., and the names of four nominees for the presidency were written on the board. At this point, Neelmino Emmanuel (one of the nominees) informed the chairman that he was withdrawing from the contest because of academic reasons. The chairman then asked the house if it would like to nominate anyone else in his place. Mo nominated himself and his name was placed on the slate. The nominations were declared closed and those present voted. Later the chairman asked whether those who were unable to be present at the meeting be given a chance to vote. All agreed and Issa suggested that the ballot box be kept in Room 210 until Monday at 2:30, March 13.
THOSE WHO HAVE NOT CAST A VOTE' PLEASE GO TO ROOM 210 BEFORE MONDAY AT 2:30 AND VOTE!!!

SENIORS

Due to a number of circumstances beyond our control, voting for the student speaker at graduation has been postponed until Monday, March 13. Voting will take place in Marian Hall from 10:00 to 2:30, and also during dinner in the cafeteria from 4:30 to 6:00. Those nominated include: Jere McClarigan, Bob Melevin, Diane Stier, John Kleiber, Pat Price, Bob Blankman, and Phyllis Cavicchia. Give this some thought and vote on Monday for the person you think will do the best job of representing our class. Also, the Senior Party will be held on Thursday, May 11, at the Latvian Community Center on 64th Street. This is the same place it was held last year. More details later.

“ODE TO LIZZIE”

Climb every mountain,
Wash every load.
Don't you love that water
Rusty, warm it flowed.

Fill every washer
Save every dime...
( I just did this last month-
What a waste of time)

The time you will use
Could be spent otherwise;
But a view of your floor
Is a sight for sore eyes!

Climb every mountain
And soon you will see
There's more where those clothes came from
It's — Your — DES—TI—NY!

Buenos dias, my chicklets. Oh, Gosharootie, it's opening night. The Opera opens tonight at 8p.m. The title of course is "Gianni Schicchi", by Puccini (It's Italian. I'm not sure, but I think it almost translates into Myra Breck-enridge—Margo) (Thanx, Dave—See Peter). It's the simple story of two men, both of whom wish to be christened "Gianni Schicchi", and — (Wrong story Jocko — Bette) (Sorry) (Never mind) Here's the cast list:
Gianni Schicci— Denis Kelly; Lauretta—Veronica Lewis and Carol Scott; Zita—Pamela Wetula; Gherardo—Tim Bader; Nella—Gina Navarra; Gherardino— Steven Majors; Betto— Maark Trieeiler; Simone— Phillip Kern;Marco— James M. Carroll; La Ciesca— Priscillia York; Spinelloccio— Kevin Alford; Amahtio—di Nicolas—Theresa Reuter; Pinelino— C. Peter. Method; (I'll do anything for a story.)
;Guccio— Don Moore; (Say that three times without breath-ing or gagging—Margo): Directed musically by Deborah Hattfield and Kitty O'Donnell; physically by Daniel Kasle. Such is life.

WHO IS BEN? After forcing himself into my column, he left and I followed him to Monroe Reservoir, to his ship. Yes, Ben is the last living Viking. Say something to the nice people, Ben. "Ay bane good Viking. I going to opera on Friday and Saturday at 8:00 and Sunday at 3:00. That be after Ay rape and pillage whole downtown St. Paul area. Ay good at pillage, but better at rape. Dere be one time..." (That's enough, Ben!—Margo) (Something in your past, dear—Bette) (Shut up!—Margo)(Ay be going to Clare Hall now.—Ben) (Omigod—See peter) (EEEEK— Everyone)

See Peter(See a pin and pick it

THE MARCH IN MARCH

March is born
In search of spring.
So let's see
What we see—

The sky's clearing,the snow is slowing
The birds are singing, the squirrels are hunting
The sun's shining, the air's warming
Alas! The warning — winter is ending.

The ice's melting, the campus's flooding
It's time to give up learning skiing
and stop falling trying skating
Is't time to start swimming ?
Oh! No! College!!
Let's crush the slush and flush't out!
But when are you starting ?
We love walking!
