TO THE MASSES

The Variety Show was fast moving and entertaining till that letter to Dad and Mom was read. The content of the letter was of very poor taste and hurt many members of the Marian community. We really object to its being read again on the stage this Friday.

Hope the faculty and administration take appropriate steps and cancel that letter. However we will not object if the whole letter was re-written and passed by the Deans of Academic and Student Affairs.

Sincerilly,

TO THE MARIAN COMMUNITY

To those of you who missed the Feud-- too bad. The show was an overwhelming success. It by far topped the Gong Show. I hope the senior classes in the future will caryon this event. As much time, work& effort it took to put on the show, it was well worth it!

I would like to thank all four families for their "creative" teams, the giving of their time for their super spirit and acting on stage.

Mr. Elmendorf, thank you very much for first of all giving up your class time (I'm sure your class was upset), to be our emcee. Secondly, thanks for a job well done. You made the show a big success! You were a big hit!!

My biggest thanks goes to Anne Burkert and to Brian Cunningham for giving of their time and for supporting the change from the Gong Show to the Feud. Anne, you did a great job in writing out the responses. Kathy Horan, you made a beautiful card girl. Thanks for your help.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL

It is all to clear to anyone who has followed the program in the past few years that there are serious problems which must be addressed before next season - if there is a next season. Without going into a detailed discussion, and without engaging in wholesale condemnations, an elemental sense of sportsmanship is lacking. No one who saw the championship game can disagree with that assessment. There have been times in the past when conditions were almost as bad. Nothing was done then and the problem keeps appearing. It may well be true that one result has been to limit participation. Flag football can be, and has been, perhaps the most interesting and enthusiastically pursued intramural sport. To become that again things must change.

THEY CAPTURED IT.....

FOOD COMMITTEE REPORT

The Food Committee met November 11th at 3pm in the cafeteria. Members present were Daryl Miller, Jenny Kaiser, Janie Brockshmidt, Alice Back and Tim Trushaw.

OLD BUSINESS: There will be hot chocolate and salad crackers starting Wednesday. The salad bar has been changed around and seems to be working better. Hard boiled eggs will be worked into the cycle for the salad bar.

NEW BUSINESS: Some of the suggestions that were made are having coffee available until 6pm, getting a new toaster, having soft-boiled eggs in the morning, doing something about the line from 7:55 to 8:15am because of the rush of students, having cereal at Sunday Brunch, applesauce whenever pork is served, having gravy with roast beef, occasional cheese sauce for broccoli and cauliflower. It was also mentioned to have something else served when we have hot sausages. Either a milder sausage or hot dogs. There was also a mention of having ice available. Daryl is looking into the suggestions that we made.

The next meeting is on Tuesday, November 18th at 3pm. If you have any suggestions or complaints, please let one of the members know before Tuesday. The members of the committee are Tim Trushaw, Jenny Kaiser, Janie Brockschmidt, Alice Back and Jeannie Carson.

THANK YOU

A big thank you goes out to all who participated in and helped with the Home Ec Style Show. Hope we hear from you next year.

Thanks again,

Marian College, led to the West by the Booster Club and its efficient organization, is indeed off to a promising start. The Home Economics Club put on one of the best Fashion Shows to recent date with about 56 items modeled by both Marian and Alumni models. The well-attended show brought out the hidden talents present among the Marian students and stitched them together for a glamorous afternoon. The Candle Light Dinner that flickered the evening with succulent steaks and spongy shrimp satisfied the appetites of both student and parent.

As the stars came out against the clear night sky, the curtains went up to expose the musical and theatrical talents of the Marian participants in the Variety Show. It was very well done but for a flaw - humor went too far at a particular moment and brought forth toxic fumes. The directors should have taken care to screen such humor.

Sunday was sunny and was indeed a gift to Marian Homecoming Week. The Thi and Lagnaf teams kicked the day off on an exciting note keeping the good spirits high. Halftime saw Lagnaf leading and escorts leading the Homecoming Court in front of cheering spectators with the beauties flashing friendly smiles at them. Within minutes the sun shone bright and clear on Page Phillips, the personable beauty who was crowned the 1980-81 Homecoming Queen. Congratulations Page! The other half of the game was a contest that saw Thi edge Lagnaf by a point (26/25) at close. The evening Safari at the Perc saw the boats loaded with banana splits treat the participants. The wonderful day ended in a wonderful way.

The Hoedown Night sponsored by the Sophomore Class took us on a square dancing spree that sent the crowd shouting with glee. Though the live entertainment promised on the Western Night organized by the Juniors did not materialize, the Wagon provided us with birds and beef, baked and barbecued, and hot apple pie.

The climax of this week will be the Dinner/Dance on Saturday. I hope everyone of you have a good time.

They will lead a discussion in Clare Hall Lounge at 9pm on "Road Maps in Our Christian Life."
