MARIAN COLLEGE

MARCH 1, 1972

Constitutional Convention

On Saturday, February 26, the Student Board began sponsoring a Constitutional Convention for all interested members of the Marian College Community. The purpose of this convention is to develop some type of philosophy regarding the role of students within the college and, secondly, to study in depth the proposed Marian College Student Association Constitution. Specific delegates—Administrators, Faculty, and Students—have been chosen to participate in this convention because of their special interest in Student Government, but all interested students are encouraged to participate in the convention.

At 1:00 p.m. in SAC Auditorium, Jim Herbe introduced the convention explaining the purpose of this continuing event. Mr. Divita's report on the Governance Committee in view of the role of students in college governance was then read. The group present then commenced to discuss the role of students in college life.

The convention reconvened on Sunday, with discussion centering around the Joint Statement on Rights and Freedom of Students. The weekend of March 4 and 5 will see a continuation of the convention. Tentative plans are to discuss specific areas of the constitution such as: officers and their duties, committee structure, clubs, classes and organizations and finances. The convention is open to all members of the Marian community. Time is from 1:00-4:00 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

After the convention has finished its task, the Student Board will finalize the constitution with whatever changes they feel necessary and vote on the document in its entirety.

It is hoped that students will take the opportunity to attend the convention whenever possible and to share with others the interest and concern it will take to make the convention a success.

Nancy Perkins, when asked to comment about the first sessions, replied, "We were a little disappointed in the turn out. This is a constitution of the Student Association, not just Student Board, so if interested, please come."

Faculty Council News

The faculty petition challenging the Council's January decision regarding the Student Conduct Review Board opened the discussion of the February 22 Faculty Council meeting. A motion was made to accept as part of the original document, the petition's suggestion that a student involved in a conduct situation be permitted to remain on campus unless his/her presence presents any danger "to himself or to another person." This motion was passed. Then a final vote on the confirmation of the January decision of the Review Board was taken; the vote in favor of the confirmation was 12-7-1.

The next item on the agenda was a discussion of the collection and expenditures of the Student Association fee. This revolved around many aspects of the fee itself, one being the present collection procedure (it is collected by the Business Office as a mandatory fee for all students) and the possibility of the Student Board itself collecting this money. Another point was the financial losses incurred thus far, especially those of this academic year (Cincinnati Reds basketball game and Lighthouse concert), and the fact that students must now pay for their own yearbooks, where in previous years they came out of the Student Association fee. Also deliberated was the rationale that the yearbook is on a self-sustaining basis to protect against a disaster such as last year's yearbook, and the fact that the Theatre Department was allocated $2500 by the Student Board, which permits all students to get into all productions free. A background briefly on the Student Association fee was relayed to the Council. The subject was then put on the agenda for action in the March meeting.

Committee reports were made and the meeting was adjourned.

CONVOCATION

Kaarlo R. Tuomi, an American born citizen trained at a Soviet spy school, will talk here on March 2 at 12:30 p.m. in the MH Auditorium. Mr. Tuomi is being sponsored by the Convocation Committee.

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY

A representative from the Graduate School of Business of Loyola University of Chicago will be on campus March 10 in the afternoon. All juniors and seniors are invited to talk with him. For further information, see John Van Hoose.

Jim Apke leaps high in the tip-off of Tuesday's game against the Franklin Grizzlies. Co-captain Bill Smith is in the foreground.

The NAIA (National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics) playoff game between Marian, the top independent in District 21, and Earlham will be held at Richmond on March 6.

A pep rally for the basketball team will be held Monday, March 6, at 4:00 p.m. in the Intercollegiate Gym. Students may request to leave class early to attend the rally, but the decision rests with the professor.

Also, a bus will be going to Earlham for the game. Departure is scheduled for 5:00 p.m. and cost will be $.50 per person. Students may sign up Monday in front of the MH Auditorium.

All you roundball fans be ready to make the trek to Earlham and back the blue and gold of Marian College. Two more wins and we're off to Kansas City.

R.A. FORMS AVAILABLE

Applications for the residence hall position of Resident Assistant and House Assistant for the 1972-73 academic year may be obtained from either of the Residence Hall Directors (Ann Buchanan or Bob Risch) or any secretary in the Office of Student Services.

Preference will be given to upperclassmen who have achieved a cumulative grade point average of 2.50 or above, who have a desire to work with fellow students on an individual and group basis, and who qualify for Work-Study. However, exception to the above qualifications may be made. Remuneration for the Resident Assistant position in the halls is $500 and for the House Assistant position, $180.

Resident Assistants assist students individually and collectively with academic, personal, social and adjustment concerns and work with fellow students in establishing an atmosphere conducive to growth, learning and community spirit. Any student who would be interested in finding out more about this opportunity to serve others should talk to an RA or Hall Director and pick up an application soon.

Applications must be returned to the Hall Directors by no later than March 31. Applicants will be given an opportunity to participate in an interview process during the month of April. If possible, appointments will be made by May 1.

Pam Murray, Fr. Dooley, Cathy Andre and Ed McCord deliberate on the rights and freedoms of students at the Constitutional Convention.

Cathy's Commentary

MARIAN MIRTH

The MARIAN is the 1971-72 varsity basketball team: the MIRTH is the N.A.I.A. bid. So "eddy" and his 12 "schillings" eat, sleep, and drink this thought from now until Monday, and very possibly longer than that. Yes, March 6 is the date and Earlham College is the place. And here is my "advanced summary" of that game.

The Knights, who bring kernels of energy and ability to any game, step onto the floor. The Marian fanfare is overwhelming as the onlookers applaud and verbalize their support for the blue and gold. As Earlham shuffles onto the floor, the team captain, who they call John, son of Earlham, muttered to his teammates, "This will be a night to remember."

The apt key of this game was the tip off, which the gregarious Knights grabbed. The mental tonicity of their maneuvers was awesome, as they could easily wade through the tough battle fearless and undaunted, with only victory in sight. As the neck-in-neck game continued, the big question became, Can field shots win the game, or is the demur fee of a foul shot the final point for victory? The question was answered as the team's spring man stole the ball and, with his paw, lickety split moved it down the court, ebbing'er into the basket, to pull victory number 20 for the mighty Knights.

As the crowd roared, with tears of pride and glee, Earlham's coach remarked, "That's som'myth there, those Knights." But back at Marian, this N.A.I.A. victory is a reality, as the Knights prepare for one more victory which will assure them a Kansas City seat.

Congratulations, team, for a very successful season. And thanks for the rewarding hours that we fans spent in the bleachers watching the games you played.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Panel on Homosexuality

To the Editor

In reply to your "commentary" on the Psychology Club's panel on Homosexuality in last week's Phoenix, I would like to say that I can agree with you on two points (unfortunately no more than that) that the 3 homosexuals on the panel did seem rather unprepared, and that they did seem to scoff at some of the questions asked. This was somewhat disappointing in light of the fact that neither would have been present if more effort and consideration had been used.

Just what "basic information" did you expect? There was over an hour and half to ask questions, plus Georgie, Kevin, and Debbie stayed around afterwards to answer more questions. The opportunity for you to have received any information was abundant. What more could you ask for? It seems to me that on this point you blew your chance -- you disappointed yourself more so than the panel members could have disappointed you.

As for "a working" definition of homosexuality, all of the panel members discussed this. Perhaps since they didn't say "Homosexuality is . . ." you missed it. In fact, they even made distinctions between different definitions of this term -- one being any close relationship between two members of the same sex (as in friendships), while the other involved a physical or sexual relationship between same-sexed individuals. Surely you didn't expect members of the Gay Lib. Movement to discuss homosexuality in terms of perversion and/or shame and/or illness. The importance of self-acceptance, a principle behind that movement, would be totally defeated if that sort of approach were taken.

I have already said that their preparation was obviously lacking, as was courtesy (on the part of both audience and these 3 panel members), but I found the discussion far from "dull". In fact, I thought it proved to be rather enlightening. I'm afraid some people may have been disappointed that Kevin wasn't wearing make-up and Georgie didn't look like a football player. Too many stereotyped notions of "weird fags" weren't lived up to by the homosexuals on the panel and in the audience. Why, they even looked like "normal" human beings!

In closing, I would like to thank the students who attended. I, too, was impressed that such a large number of individuals showed interest in arriving at a better understanding of Homosexuality.

United Negro College Fund

Dear Friends:

Each year I visit UNCF universities and colleges in the South...and send you a report on what's happening on our campuses and to our graduates. This year I can report to you that what is happening is probably the most important and hopeful development in our nation today!

The forty universities and colleges in our Fund are providing increasingly effective ways for aspiring blacks throughout the U.S.(and especially the South)to achieve advanced education of high quality--as a needed "giant step" toward full participation in the professional, political and business life of our country. Last year our colleges conferred 6,544 undergraduate degrees and 806 graduate and professional degrees. Although our colleges are all integrated, and have always been, our principal concern is assuring strong educational opportunities to the black students of our country.

What do our graduates do... with those degrees? To date, they have become 85 percent of the nation's black physicians, 75 percent of the nation's black Ph.D's and more than 50 percent of all black officials elected to public office in the U.S. And that's only a part of the record! Hundreds of thousands of our graduates have, in recent years, been changing the course of American history by their rational, self-disciplined and determined struggle for social justice through non-violent revolution.

Today, thousands of other young black Americans need your help in getting the quality of education they need to help build a more creative, dynamic America...and a viable world society. Whatever support you can give our Fund will go directly to help promising black students achieve a strong college education.

Please reach out a generous hand to them! It's the surest way I know toward a better world!

Yours faithfully and hopefully,
Martha B. Lucas Pate,

STUDENT REFERENDUM

There will be a Student Referendum, sponsored by the Student Board on Wednesday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in front of the Marian Hall Auditorium.

The referendum concerns the issue of conduct review and conduct appeals. Students are urged to exercise their right to vote in order to discover the student opinion on this issue. Three options are provided. They are: 1. A Conduct Review Board with power to make recommendations back to the Office of Student Services; 2. An Appeals Board with power of recommending to the President; and 3. An Appeals Board with final jurisdiction.

This ought to be a concern of every student at Marian. It is important that you show your concern through those channels available to you - in other words, vote!

"HOTEL PARADISIO" IS COMING

The Marian College Theatre Department will present the Georges Feydeau and Maurice Desnalliers' play, "Hotel Paradiso", a farce-comedy in three acts, March 24, 25 and 26 at 8:00pm in the Marian Hall auditorium.

This 'mad French bedroom frolic' (N.Y. Journal American) finds an assortment of refined people stealing through the halls and rooms of a cheap hotel, comically intent on assignments. There is the hero, the hen-pecked husband, who arrives in disguise with his friend's wife; a tottering octogenarian and a chorus girl; a stiff youth on his first flight with a housemaid; a housing inspector investigating ghosts; a nosey bellboy who impales our hero with a brace and bit as he bores through the wall for a peek, and a host of others, including the police who raid 'the joint' at the second-act curtain.

The leads are as follows: Greg Rodick as Boniface; Pat Arcady as Angelique; Marianne Able as Marcelle and Robert Grouse as Cot.

Others involved in this production are: Marc Kirby, Anne Sesso, Pat O'Hara, Donna Meyers, Bobbie Donahue, Gin De Vine, Phyllis Brzozowski, Carlos Barbera, Phil McLane, Jean Hellmann, John Ruhland, Joe Santosuosso, Alan Roell, Patty Kane, Janet Kitchen, Dianne Ryker, Maxine Ray, and Gene Bourke.

Although delighted with the tremendous turnout, directress Sr. Francesca regretted not being able to use all the fine talent here at Marian College.

STUDENTS RAP WITH DEAN

In an attempt to become better acquainted with students and become more familiar with their interests and concerns, Dean Brames has set up a series of "rap sessions" with randomly selected students. These discussions were initiated last year. A group of 16 students are invited to sit down and discuss any topic, in no formal structure whatsoever. This group discussion has one basic purpose. That is, for the Dean of Student Services to listen to their concerns and viewpoints. It is not a problem solving session; the intention is not to talk to, but rather talk with the students.

One of these group discussions was held February 24 in the Student Activities Center. The hour meeting was the first one of the year. Dean Brames expressed a desire to have a few more during the 2nd semester.

One of the students who attended the first session said this of it: "These rap sessions are very worthwhile and I think they should continue because they are a service to the students."

"Boys In The Band"

On Saturday, March 4, the Sophomore Class will sponsor the movie "The Boys In the Band" starring the original off-Broadway stage cast. The movie will begin at 8 p.m. in the Marian Hall Auditorium. Admission charge will be $.75 per person.

The Boys in the Band is not a musical. It is a movie of the most powerful presentations of real life and self-destruction filmed. The nine actors are incorporated into an adult, witty, and poignant dramatization of Harold's very "gay" birthday party. The Boys in the Band has been described as "a gripping, frighteningly honest view of human relationships and the introverted psyche of the homosexual."

Women's Sports

Pitted against strong Indiana Central College, the Women's Varsity Basketball team was defeated 42-28 last Monday night.

I.C.C. held a good lead throughout most of the game, however, Marian did manage to catch up and trail only 18-14 at the half. The Maidens weakest point proved to

DOMONI CHATMON

Junior Domoni Chatmon is proud of her black heritage. As corresponding secretary for UBI, she feels that this organization has a double purpose in promoting black identity. "The Black Culture Week was an attempt at educating the college community and others about black values. But also, the goal of the activities was to help black students adjust to life in a black-white environment," Domoni explained.

Additionally, Domoni is active with Upbeat, a program designed to aid inner city youngsters. "We are in the process of setting up Tuesday and Wednesday tutorial classes in math and English for 47 inner-city youths," Domoni said. These classes are aimed at helping 47 students who need help in basic school skills. As Domoni's future plans include graduate work in counseling, she looks forward to her Upbeat activities. "I feel that Upbeat is worthwhile. I enjoy my time working with it. I feel it is well spent," she said.

As a residence assistant in Clare Hall Domoni spends much of her time doing what she likes best - interacting with people. "An RA has a lot of work to perform, but its rewards are many. I like helping people develop themselves and their personality. I'm a problem-solver," she commented.

With a double major in psychology and sociology, Domoni finds little leisure time. But when she has a few moments to herself she reads Black literature. "I like black poetry because it says something I can relate to. These works often talk about what I have felt. I can relate to black literature," she said.

be the third quarter, when they were only able to gain 2 points while I.C.C. bucketed 9 points. From then on, I.C.C. took over the game to emerge victorious.

With 17 points, Jeanne Grace set the scoring pace for Marian. Barb Meyer followed the lead with 6 points, Maria Kress and Peggy Smith with 2 points a piece, and Anne Monnot with 1 point.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to 1971-72 Manasa officers, who are: Merle Tebbe, President; Janie Bruns, Vice President; Judy Schultheis, Secretary; Marianne Lamm, Treasurer; and Susie Skiscim, Social Council Rep.

SUBSCRIPTION SALES

Subscription sales for the 1971-72 MARIAN, the school yearbook, are continuing. The price of a book is $6.25. Subscriptions can be purchased in front of the MH Auditorium or by contacting any member of the yearbook staff.

Though last year's book may not be a selling point for this year's book, the staff hopes that students will become aware of the staff and their efforts to make the MARIAN a top-quality yearbook.

KNIGHTS GAIN TOURNEY BERTH

The Marian Knights, by virtue of their 91-83 conquering of arch-rival Franklin last week, became the winningest independent in Indiana and earned a berth in the N.A.I.A. District Playoffs.

The charged up Knights, returning to the friendly confines of Reynolds Fieldhouse, did in the arch-rival Grizzlies for the second time this season before another standing room only crowd that went delirious each time the Knights scored.

Joe Wade and Jim Apke contributed the bulk of scoring in the early going, with Wade's short jumpers proving particularly effective and doing the most damage. The Knights began to work the ball around the Franklin zone on the crisp passing of guards John Springman and Mark Gayer and it wasn't long before the blue and gold started to move. Bill Smith and jumping jack Rick Ebinger pulled the Knights even and from then on it was all Marian. Smith's bucket gave the locals a 40-38 lead and it was one they never surrendered, stretching it out to 48-43 by intermission.

The Knights, given a tremendous ovation by the crowd when they returned to the floor for the second half, proceeded to rip the visitors apart. Junior co-captain Smith, who scored 22 points after intermission, led a surge that built the lead to 82-63, before a Franklin rally closed the gap at the buzzer to 91-83. Heroes were many in this game, probably the biggest basketball encounter in Marian history. Always-great Smitty dumped in 31 big scores and helped control the boards. His 14 for 25 from the field helped the Knights build up a blistering 54% shooting mark from the field. Big Joe Wade hit 19 points and was king of the boards. Joe, especially in the last few games, has really come on for the rampaging Knights. Jim Apke added 13 points and helped Marian dominate the boards on both ends of the court. John Springman, who amazes fans everywhere with his constant hustle, continued to dole out assists and added 8 points. Mark Gayer also dumped in 8 points, but it was his defense which had Coach Schilling smiling. Rick Ebinger who can leap with the best of them, contributed 12 ones and helped get the Knights the lead for good before running into foul trouble. Ted Canfield, only senior on the squad, was honored before his last home game in an impressive ceremony. Ted, a starter earlier in the year, saw playing time and will be sorely missed next year by the Knights.

On Saturday night the Knights, perhaps suffering a letdown from the big win over Franklin, were manhandled by Thomas More College at Covington 108-79. Coach Schilling emptied his bench early and everyone saw action in the tune up game before the tourney. Thus Marian finished its regular season at a very impressive 19-7 record.

So far, the basketball team had earned three unique distinctions. They are the best team ever to wear the blue and gold of Marian College, they are mythical city champs, and they are the top independent team in the state. Coach Schilling, taking over for the venerable Cleon Reynolds, has done a remarkable job with the youthful Knights in his first season and now prepares the squad for their playoff encounter with Earlham on March 6.

So now Marian enters the playoffs. They've worked hard to get there and done a lot for Marian. The team is hoping to have everyone there to back them, so somehow make it over to Earlham and back the Knights. You can be sure they'll be giving it all they got. Back a winner. Back the Knights. Only two more and it's off to Kansas City.

"Hello, Chief? Pocahontas and I just eloped!"

"Delicate" news is so hard to communicate in a letter—and so much more graciously said with a long distance call.

Costs so little, too, when you dial direct (about ½ the cost of person-to-person). For example, a direct-dialed call to Niagara Falls after 5:00 p.m. would cost less than $1.00. The tactful way to "break news" is to call. The economical way is to dial the call direct.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Intramural Basketball action on Monday night was marked with a surprise upset. Fourth-place ? defeated third place B.A. 18-12. Sandy Goldschmidt and Anne Monnot each chipped in five points to lead the victors. The Beaver Shooters extended their winning record by overlapping Da Pacers 28-3. Ginny Barbeauld tossed in 14 points for the winning Shooters. The Last Resort displayed a commanding win over Kirch's Birches 16-6. D. Szemborske, with 7 points, assured the team of a victory.

On Wednesday night ? successfully combined their skills to defeat Da Pacers 15-4. Anne Monnot led the victors with 7 points. Paced by Carol Luthman, with 8 points, the B.A.'s came back to topple Kirch's Birches 21-5. In the final tilt. The Last Resort maintained their undefeated record by outshooting the Out of Towners 21-7. Maria Kress led the game, making 8 points for the winners.
